MITCHELL A DEEP PUZZLE

DENVER, Colo., June 16 .- (Special Telegram.)-Clever clouting by the Bears and some sweet twirling by Pitcher Mitchell enabled the Bears to reverse the tables and win the strong game of the Rourks series, 6 to 4, today.

The Rourkovinians drew just four safe hits off of the southpaw, but bunched all of these in one inning.

Johnson started for the visitors and the Bears took kindly to his offerings from the jump. Boston Wins Game Calling Out Every Element of Reserve Strength

SIX TO FIVE IS THE SCORE

BOSTON, June 10 .- Boston bested Detroft, 6 to 5, today in a game which called strength in each team. Tigers and Red Sox hit frequently and pitchers changed often as a result. Scott, Boston's shortstop, who had fielded without an error in morethan a month, sprained an ankle in practice today.

FIVE HURLERS IN THE OPENER

BROOKLYN, June 10.-Brooklyn and Newark divided today's double-header, the visitors winning the first, 9 to 7, and the home team the second 2 to 1. Heavy hitting, poor fielding and errors made the opener a see-saw affair, five pitchers being used. Brooklyn outbatted the visitors, but bases on balls helped Newark materially. Reulbach and Wilson had a pitcher's battle in the second game and both received fine support. With the score tied Cooper opened the last half of the ninth with a triple.
