Who said the grocers' and butchers' picnic was to be dry? That is the person the promoters of this big annual affair are now looking for.

The grocers and butchers have once more come into their own. For years they held the undisputed title of being the best little rainmakers in these parts.

They lost their prestige and for several years it did not rain on their festival day. But things have changed, and just as the crowds were starting for Krug park the rain god shook a few of his best little clouds and rain began to fall.

Those "Gold Dust twins" from Indiana, whose names in private life are just J. W. Shindler and E. P. Head, got right busy on the job Wednesday afternoon and became newboys.

Eight young women received diplomas, honors, and medals at the commencement exercises at St. Berchman's academy at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

"Gold Dust Twins" Sell Bees to the Brother Delegates

Those "Gold Dust twins" from Indiana, whose names in private life are just J. W. Shindler and E. P. Head, got right busy on the job Wednesday afternoon and became newboys.

The customers clamored around the big newboys and sales rapidly climbed till both had passed the hundred mark. And they only stopped when their voices had become so hoarse they could scarcely speak above a whisper.
