Decision on Frank Case is Not Ready

ATLANTA, Ga., June 18.—Governor Slaton said this afternoon he had not yet reached a conclusion of Leo M. Frank's application for a commutation of his death sentence, and he thought it likely he would not announce his decision until Monday. Frank's execution is set for Tuesday.

Stahl, Who Swore Lusitania Bore Guns, Charged with Perjury

NEW YORK, June 18.—Gustav Stahl, the German reservist, who swore to an affidavit submitted by the German embassy that he saw guns aboard the Lusitania, was indicted for perjury today by a federal grand jury. The alleged perjury was committed, it is said, not when he made the affidavit, but in testimony to the same effect before the grand jury in its inquiry against Paul Koenig, head of the secret service department of the Hamburg American line, and others, to determine whether they should be indicted for conspiracy in the United States. It is alleged that Koenig was instrumental in procuring the Stahl affidavit.
