

ORATIONS GIVEN BY COMMERCE SENIORS

Young Men and Women of Business School Hold Graduation Exercises.

DIPLOMAS GIVEN AT BRANDEIS

That perennially pleasing sight of young men and women graduating from school and going forth into the world hand in hand with Youth, Ambition and Hope, was witnessed again at the Brandeis theater last evening, when the third annual program of the high school of commerce was given.

It was of the good, old-fashioned kind with the sweet girls and solemn boys seated on the platform and giving the program themselves.

Three boys and three girls delivered orations and every one of them did it with the calmness of the finished public speaker.

After an orchestral number and after the invocation by Rev. Lloyd B. Holtschlag and a piano solo by Cecil Berryman, the first oration was delivered, being an instructive account of the aims and equipment of the Omaha High School of Commerce, by Miss Freda Christensen.

Archeological Work in Nebraska, by William Boukal, was a description of the researches and discoveries of Robert Gilder of Omaha.

Miss Agnes Sorenson showed the remarkable development of the "safety first" movement and emphasized its importance to humanity.

"What Uncle Sam is Doing for the New American Boy," was the subject on which Alva Lloyd spoke in a defense of the practical as against the classical education.

Miss Marie Williams put much spirit into her arraignment of the interests responsible for child labor conditions. "Modern American Journalism," was the subject under which Albert Ramacioti gave a description of the modern newspaper.

Miss Isabel Radman played a violin solo "Maurica Concert." President Ernst of the Board of Education had taken enough time "off" from signing the 700 warrants for the school teachers' pay to be on hand and presented the graduates with their diplomas. Principal Ruessel of the high school of Commerce, was on the platform. Superintendent Graff presided.

Diplomas Bestowed.

The following received diplomas: FOUR-YEAR COURSE: Leroy R. Brown, Leslie A. Naughton, Freda C. Christensen, Al B. Ramacioti, Edith Leach, Helen Foster.

First Battle of Two Submarines in the History of Warfare

VENICE, June 19.—(Via Chicago and Paris.)—Details have been received here of the recent engagement between an Italian and an Austrian submarine, in which the Italian boat was vanquished. This is the first time in history that an encounter between underwater boats has been recorded.

The Italian boat, Medusa, with a crew of fourteen men, was lying submerged. The Austrian boat was not far away and also under water. Neither one had any intimation of the presence of the other.

The Medusa came to the surface, swept the horizon with its periscope, and finding the way clear, emerged. Shortly afterward the Austrian boat sent up its periscope and saw the Italian not far away. It immediately attacked, and one torpedo was sufficient to send the Medusa to the bottom.

One report is that an officer and four members of the crew of the Medusa were made prisoners by the Austrians.

Another report is that an officer and four members of the crew of the Medusa were made prisoners by the Austrians.

Austrians Bombard Towns on Adriatic

LONDON, June 19.—The Austrians have bombarded with torpedo boat destroyers, the Italian towns of Pesaro and Rimini and also a section of the coast inland near Fano and Pesaro on the Adriatic Sea. Rome reports that three civilians were slightly injured at Rimini, but that the material damage nowhere was important.

Culls from the Wire.

The trial of Judge Ben B. Lindsey of the Denver juvenile court on an amended charge of contempt of court in connection with a recent murder trial was closed when Judge Berry in that district court took the case under advisement.

Efforts to reach Daniel Hardendorf and Reed Taylor, two miners who have been entombed in the Lonegore-Chapman mine at Joplin, Mo., more than a week, continue with the workers still several feet from where the men are supposed to be.

Jeane Halliday Dana, whose body was second in the surf on the Cliff Bath beach at Nantucket, Mass., committed suicide by drowning. Her husband, Edmund T. Dana, said, according to the medical examiner, that she had been dependent and had lapsed at suicide.

In an aeroplane accident at Quincy, Mass., George H. Herzy, Jr., of that city, a mechanic, and William E. Dwyer, R. I., who was receiving instruction in flight from Harry M. Jones, the serious injury by falling on the heads of the others.

Allies Lose Heavily In the Dardanelles

BOSTON, June 19.—The cruiser North Carolina today returned to home waters after ten months of varied foreign service, bringing accounts of the fighting in the Dardanelles. Officers and men said that the British and French forces had sustained heavy losses, and that the hospitals at Alexandria were crowded with wounded.

THOUSANDS IN THE MEXICO BREAD LINE

From 12,000 to 20,000 Wait from Early Morning Till After Dark, Through Heat and Rain.

HUNDREDS ARE OVERCOME

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) MEXICO CITY, May 29.—From 12,000 to 20,000 of the city's poor have been standing in line at the food distributing station from 3 o'clock in the morning until long after dark for the last seven days in an effort to get enough corn to keep alive. From 8 in the morning until 2 in the afternoon they bear the hot rays of a tropical sun, and from the latter hour until dark they stand in downpours of rain, for the wet season has come.

Desperate Rushes for Corn. On some days as many as 200 have been carried away on stretchers by Red Cross attendants. These have dropped from weakness due to lack of food, from being overcome by the sun's rays or from suffocation. So desperate have the rushes for corn become at times that the soldiers guarding the lines in the effort to maintain a semblance of order have had to fire over the heads of hungry throngs.

While these scenes were being enacted on the streets in various sections of the city, delegates to the national convention were quarrelling over whether General Gonzalez Garza or General Manuel Esfaleix should be named chief executive. At times the debate became so fierce as to cause weapons to be drawn.

One of these passages was interrupted by a mob of women who stormed the chamber with the cry of "Give us corn!" There is little corn to give, an allotment of two quarts being the maximum allowed to any one applicant by the distributing stations.

Americans Freed.

EL PASO, Tex., June 18.—George C. Capthorn, special representative of the American government, reached El Paso late today from Chihuahua, bringing with him George (Max) and Samuel Finkelstein, Americans, who had been under sentence to be shot on the charge of plotting counterfeits in Juarez. The cases were reviewed by Carothers and Miguel Diaz Lombardo, and the Americans released. The case of W. H. Cox, another American held on a counterfeit currency charge, was expected to be reviewed and the defendant released next week.

Not to Halt Americans.

NOGALES, Sonora, Mexico, June 18.—Governor Maytorena dispatched 800 troops today to the Yaqui valley. This immediately gave rise to reports that the Villa leaders in Sonora intended to oppose the landing of American marines from the warships now on the way to Toluca bay, but Maytorena denied the report, saying the troops were being sent to protect the valley's bean crop.

Kills Stepmother, Father, a Policeman And Is Slain Himself

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., June 19.—Fred Shaver of this city, late today shot and killed his father, his stepmother and a policeman, and was himself killed by other officers. The weapons used were rifles, and Shaver's act is attributed to drink and a quarrel with his father. The latter, Hudson Shaver, 67 years old, and well to do, was married June 7 to Ruth Campbell, 27 years old.

This afternoon the son went to his father's apartments, where, after a dispute the older man fled to the hall. There he fell dead from a rifle ball. The sound of the shot attracted Officer Kendall, who ran up the stairway.

Young Shaver shot the policeman in the chest and hip, and these wounds proved fatal an hour later. The murderer then barricaded himself in the apartment and the slaying of his stepmother probably occurred soon after that.

Lately Shaver appeared in the window and several policemen stationed across the street fired in quick succession and he fell back to the floor. The officer's then broke open the door and found young Shaver dead.

Work on Plan for Semi-Centennial of State of Nebraska

John I. Webster, president of the Nebraska State Historical society, will entertain at dinner at the Hotel Fontenelle next Friday evening, members of the committee which is arranging for the semi-centennial celebration of the admission of Nebraska into the Union.

The speakers will be Governor Morehead, Senators Hitchcock and Norris and Congressmen Sloan, Shallenberger and Rowley. There are 100 men from various parts of the state on the committee, most of whom will attend the dinner. On this occasion the date for the celebration will be decided. There is a question whether the appropriate time would be during the fall of 1916, or during March of 1917. Nebraska adopted its constitution and elected senators and congressmen during October, 1860, and on March 1, 1867. President Andrew Johnson issued the proclamation which admitted the Antelope state.

PHOTO ENGRAVERS SEE RAISE IN PRICES SOON. CHICAGO, June 19.—Nearly all materials which are used in photo-engraving are being requisitioned by European armies. The result, according to those attending the nineteenth annual convention of the International Association of Manufacturing Photo-Engravers, is that advances of 200 per cent have already occurred, and profits, they say, are disappearing.
