Hope Rourke Gets to Play a Double-Header with Denver Today

DOUBLE BILL IS ON CARDS FOR TODAY

Rourkes Will Tussle in a Bargain Fray with the Grizzlies This Afternoon.

RAIN STOPS SATURDAY GAMES

The well known rain has put the blink on another combat. In fact it put the blink on two combats, for Pa Rourke had carded a bargain bill for the famished fans due to the fact that Denver did not arrive in Omaha on time to play Friday. Twice now Pa Rourke has undertaken to deal the fans a bargain matinee and both times the weather man thrust in an oar and crabbed the doings.

Today Pa will make his third attempt to stage a double fray. This is a schedwied double-header and as the tirizalies are quite a team and Omaha has not seen much of the Rourkes in a long time, buslness ought to be good. But that weather man may have other plans for this Sabbath day and if he does Pa will probably agree with O'Neill that it's time to bost up the league. The first game will start at 2 o'clock.

Pa Writes to O'Neill. And speaking of busting up the league Pa has written a letter to Tipperary Tip, in which he advises the calling of a meeting as soon as possible. Pa suggests that the meeting be held in Omaha. It is the Omaha magnate's idea to have the club owners in the loop gather and talk the financial affairs over. Pa thinks it would be about right for Tip to prepare a report and submit it. Then each club owner should make a report and submit it. Also to include suggestions of remedies and ways to aid in linishing the season.

Need Co-operation. Rourke believes that O'Neill will take kindly to the suggestion and call the meeting. That some good will come of it is Pa's firm belief. He thinks that it would be a good idea for all of the clubs in the leagues to ask a little help from the various commercial clubs in all of the cities and if each club were given a little more co-operation it is his judgment that the season could be Arthur Lange, the kid southpaw Pa leen released to Grand Island in the State league. Lange is a youngster and worked. Washington drove Coveleskie a comer, but he is a southpaw and Pa from the mound at the end of the sixth even now has three southpaws on his inning and bunched three hits, two bases staff. He couldn't give Lange the work on balls, a double steal and an error for he seeds, so he will give him an op-portunity to learn a little something un-pitched. Score: der Claire. Claire.

SPORTS SECTION of THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, JUNE 20, 1915,

JOE STECHER, wonderful Nebraska athlete, who in a short time has become the wrestling wonder of the age, to meet Charles Cutler at Rourke park, July 5, for the championship of the world.

and for that matter all mat fans in the country, will be given an opportunity to see Joe Stecher, the Nebraska phenom, do battle with a really worthy opponent. To date Stecher has been matched with wrestlers who have proven easy pickings. He has flopped them without delay or apparent exertion. But in Charley Cutler of Chicago he will meet a crafty ring general on July 5, who knows the wrostling game from the ground up, and Joe will have to put forth a little more effort than he has heretofore to dump the Chicago champ. Stecher expects to beat Cutler and so does everybody else in Nebraska who has seen Joe work. But Cutler can't conceive of such a possibility. He can't conceive how he can lose to Stecher, regardless of how powerful Stecher's famous scissors hold may be. And that scissors hold will determine the match and Joe's standing as a wrestler.
