Union Men Remind Council of Protest On Nonunion Bands

Because the city commission failed to notice a protest made by the Central Labor union against the employment of a nonunion band in the parks, that body at a meeting last night approved the sending of another protest, which incidentally is to inform the commissioners that a communication from the Central Labor union is as important as bids from contractors.

Labor Commissioner F. M. Coffey of Lincoln addressed the meeting briefly on the progress of industrial affairs in Nebraska. A committee of fifteen men was appointed to start action for a Labor day program, while another committee was appointed to confer with certain moving picture show proprietors who insist on employing nonunion operators.

Free Shelter and Food No Longer to Be Had in the West

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 18.—Food and shelter and a place in the evening storytelling group for every stranger, a relic of Spanish hospitality, has vanished from its last big stronghold in California, the great Miller & Lux ranches.

Signs posted in the flat ranch houses here set forth today that the custom was at an end, after having been perpetuated more than twenty years by this concern, and indicated that civilization had replaced primitive hospitality.

Forty sets of harness recently were cut to bits at this ranch and the act was attributed to discharged employes, who after the custom of the place, were at liberty to remain.

Stamp Club Plans Picnic and Ball Game

The Omaha Stamp club last evening held its last regular session until the first Friday in October.

As branch No. 23 of the American Philatelic society, the local body is entitled to one vote in the convention of the national society, and named Ora E. Stark as proxy.

WOULD ELIMINATE UNFAIR BIDDERS ON WAR CONTRACTS

BERLIN, June 19.—The Prussian Ministry of War has issued a circular to the military authorities laying down the principle that all firms tendering for war contracts must do so through their local Chamber of Commerce or industrial associations, which must supplement the bid with a certificate testifying to the good faith of the firm and to its respective standing and productive capacity.

Where the bidder is the direct producer of the goods, the factory inspector must also certify that his technical equipment is adequate to the task and that he satisfied all legal requirements as to rate of wages, hours of labor and conditions of employment.

START MOVE TO AID JEWS

International Emancipation Committee is Formally Organized at New York.

U. S. INFLUENCE IS FACTOR

NEW YORK, June 19.—What is intended as a nation-wide movement for the amelioration of the conditions of the Jews all over the world, particularly those in the belligerent European nations, was inaugurated today with the formal organization here of the International Jewish Emancipation Committee.

Influence of the U. S. It is the belief of those interested in the movement that the question of permanent establishment of the civil and political rights of Jews throughout the world can be settled for all time through the influence that the United States will exercise at the conclusion of the European war.

To this end the committee adopted a resolution declaring its intention to "take such steps as will improve upon this government, under whose just institutions we have flourished, that it is the fervent and innermost desire and sentiment of the American people that the administration at Washington to which we are attached with unwavering fealty, when called upon to act in the councils of the world peace conference, shall take a firm and all-compelling stand upon this most vital and humanitarian question and do all in its power to procure for the Jews guarantees that will place them side by side with the rest of mankind, equal before man and the law, as he is before God."

Clark Will Help. Speaker Clark recently wrote a letter to the committee in which he said: "I will be glad to do what I can in aiding the Jews to get a favorable international agreement."

Russian Soldiers Sleep When Walking

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) WARSAW, Russia, June 9.—While the German army generally effects its concentrations and strategic movement by railway or automobile transport, the Russians are generally compelled to travel on foot.

During the latest fighting, with its continual play of advance and retreat, some of the Russian corps marched six days and nights without a single break.

The Russians march fifty minutes and halt ten minutes every hour. During the halt the footgear is often changed and always readjusted. There are halts of half an hour and two hours several times a day for meals, but when movements are being made under pressure, nothing more. During the movements which necessitated six days and nights of tramping, the steady marching continued without interruption, the men sometimes sleeping at their walking and waking only when they stumbled and fell.

U. S. CANNOT DO MUCH ABOUT MAIL OPENING

WASHINGTON, June 18.—United States officials are confronted with a perplexing problem in connection with the complaint of the Swedish minister here that private mail from New York to Sweden was opened while passing through England.

As the mails were alleged to have been opened in England and not on the high seas, interesting legal questions have been raised which make it seem doubtful to many officials today whether the United States could do more than transmit the complaint to Great Britain for consideration.

RUSSIAN RESERVISTS ON LUSITANIA ARE SAVED

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) PETROGRAD, June 19.—Nine Russian survivors of the Lusitania have arrived here. They are all reservists, who were on the way from Chicago and New York to join the army.

After their rescue they were taken to Queenstown, where they remained in a hospital for several days before resuming their journey. Of the eighty-two Russian passengers on board the liner thirty-nine escaped, and of twenty-four Persians only nine survived.

KING CHRISTIAN REPORTED STABBED WITH DAGGER

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) LONDON, June 18.—A private dispatch from Paris states that his illness of King Christian of Greece, according to rumors current in the lobby of the Chamber of deputies, was in reality due to a dagger wound.

The British Press bureau, on being asked to pass this dispatch for publication stated: "We see no sufficient reason to stop publication of this matter, but the responsibility for the accuracy must rest with the publisher."

AMERICAN IDEAS SHOWN IN BUILDINGS IN LONDON

(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) LONDON, June 9.—Downing street, which is a household word in English politics because it contains the official residence of the prime minister, affords one of the earliest examples of American enterprise in London.

It is a narrow lane leading from the middle of government offices in Whitehall. Constructed in the sixteenth century, it was sold by Charles II. to Sir George Downing, afterwards secretary
