MACKIANS PERK UP, TRIM YANKS TWICE

Bad Pitching by New York Twirlers Gives Double Victory to the Athletics.

FIRST GAME GOES TEN FRAMES

PHILADELPHIA, June 31.-Bad pitchin line to pitch a neat ball game. But in the tenth his side-wheel went back on him and what the Boosters did in that tenth round is a shame to relate. Anyhow, Des Moines copped the fray, 5 to 2. The Rourkes had grabbed a two-rim lead in the opening frame and it looked good for a win the way Hallman was labbring. But in the eighth old man Tex Jones awing his well known war bindgeon and the next seen of the pill it was sailing over the right field wall while Cy Porsythe stood beneath it hurling dire maledictions toward the ineffensive little sphere. As Edward Hahn was on first at the time the score was deadlocked.

To enliven the doings a bit Dutch Myers and Baldy Isbell had a few words of an argumentative nature. Dutch had all the better of the argument.

In the sixth Sawyer attempted to go to third on Jones' roller to Whalen. Red thucked to Marty and Myers declared Sawyer out. Isbell didn't believe and he ield the umps so in language that might be described as unexpurgated. The umps majestically waved the Booster hose to the coop.
