OMAHA DRIVER WINS 300-MILE RACE AT HOME

Eddie Rickenbacher Drives His Car to Popular Victory to Inaugurate Sport.

ONE RECORD FALLS IN TEST

Tom Orr Thrills Crowd by Breaking a World's Record—Five Miles in Three Minutes.

ABOUT 30,000 WATCH THE RACE

Rickenbacher... a Heart-Breaking Pace Right from the Jump. Which Was Hard to Follow.

BROWN ENTERS AT 100 MILES

Rickenbacher (Maxwell), first. Elapsed time, 3:17:39.20. O'Donnell (Deussenberg), second. Elapsed time, 3:30:27.68. Orr (Maxwell), third. Elapsed time, 3:40:17.25. Donaldson (Emden), fourth. Elapsed time, 4:50:36.25.

Eddie Rickenbacher, driving a Maxwell, won the first annual 300-mile gasoline classic at the new Omaha Speedway yesterday. His time was 3:17:39.20, an average of 91.74 miles an hour.

Eddie O'Donnell, captain of the Deussenberg team, and Rickenbacher's old mechanic, was second, clipping the distance at an average of 86.16 miles an hour. Tom Orr, Rickenbacher's Maxwell teammate, was third, traveling at an average of 82.30 miles an hour, and Lou Donaldson piloted his Emden into fourth money. W. W. Brown, in a Du Chesneau, was flagged off the track after he had done 70 laps. Brown will get a good-sized chunk of the prize money for his game showing, as he entered the race after it had progressed 100 miles. Thirty thousand people saw the race.

An Omaha product won Omaha's first big automobile race. That was Eddie Rickenbacher. Eddie was a resident of Omaha for several years and he learned the racing game on the half-mile dirt track on West Leavenworth under the tutelage of Roy Coffey. So it is only natural that Eddie as a personal friend and take a personal delight in seeing the racing car with a race. It was a great ovation he got when he waved his hand in air in answer to the finish flag.

Rickenbacher was given first position at the pole and he paced the preliminary lap around the track. On the flying start Rick was leading the first and he received the flag from starter Fred Wagner. When the flag waved again it was to herald the lap of the Maxwell pilot, and when it waved a third time it announced that Eddie was the victor.

Never once did Rickenbacher lose the lead. Billy Chandler of the Deussenberg team was in hot pursuit for a few miles, but Billy's car went to the bad and he was forced to succumb. When Chandler left the race Eddie O'Donnell took up the chase, but Eddie couldn't drive the turns quite as fast as Rick, and even though he passed him occasionally on the stretch, Rickenbacher came in fifteen laps ahead at the finish.

O'Donnell and Rickenbacher furnished some merry sport for the speed enthusiasts. Brushes between these two were frequent and exciting. First O'Donnell would come roaring down the stretch and pass Rick. The crowds in the stands would rise en masse and cheer and yell. Then Rick would pass the Deussenberg and the crowd would again rise to its feet to give, this time, a still louder cheer and yell.

Has a Narrow Escape. During one brush O'Donnell narrowly escaped a serious accident. Donaldson was just ahead of the speeding daredevil and O'Donnell was a trifle in the lead of Rick. He attempted to swing high into the curve to pass Donaldson, but couldn't make it. It looked for a moment as if O'Donnell would crash down into Donaldson or turn broadside before Rickenbacher. But the Deussenberg driver threw his wheel over and plunged straight down off the track and ploughed along the dirt safety track for several feet, then to swing up on the boards again safely. It was a clever bit of work and dangerous.

Tom Orr, who drove his Maxwell into third position, also put up a mighty pretty race. While Rickenbacher and O'Donnell carried away the honors, Orr did some mighty good work and was congratulated for his showing.

Makes Game Showing. Lou Donaldson, driving the Emden, and W. W. Brown gave an exhibition of gameness that is seldom paralleled. When the first three cars rolled over the tape and received the finish flag, these two

MORE ARRESTS AT EL PASO PROBABLE

Indications that Other Men Implicated in Alleged Huerta Conspiracy Will Be Dealt.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS ARE ACTIVE

EL PASO, Tex., July 5.—The possibility of additional arrests growing out of the alleged plot to launch a new revolution in Mexico by Victoriano Huerta and those in custody with him was the central feature of interest here today. Although nominally federal offices were closed incident to the celebration of Independence day, federal officers spent a busy day pursuing their investigation and preparing for the preliminary hearing next Monday of Huerta and others under arrest. It was believed that General Huerta and five others confined in jail late Saturday would arrange bond of $15,000 each tomorrow. However, it was equally certain that if released from jail they would be kept under close surveillance.

J. L. Camp, United States attorney for the West Texas district, who arrived last night, conferred with federal officers here and assumed such supervision of the legal phases of the case. It was understood that the activities of the federal officers continued to develop new evidence which subsequently might lead to other arrests.

Probable Plan of Action. Officials were silent as to their plans. The customary procedure in such cases would be to bind Huerta over to the federal court at San Antonio, if basis for such action is found at the preliminary hearing. This probably would result in Huerta's removal to San Antonio or some other point removed from the border pending trial at the next regular term of the district court in December. Should it be desirable to keep him under close surveillance than if released on bond it would be impossible for the immigration authorities to detain Huerta for deportation, in which event the law requires that he be "safely held," probably in jail.

Word was received from Newman, N. M., today that a revolver, cartridge belt and check book found in the Mesquite near there had been identified as belonging to General Pascual Orozco. It was presumed they were discarded the morning of June 27, when federal officers and soldiers appeared at Newman where Orozco had gone to meet General Huerta. Authorities here still were without definite information on the whereabouts of Orozco, who escaped Saturday. He is generally conceded to have crossed the border.

No Action of Extradition.

AUSTIN, Tex., July 5.—Governor Ferguson announced definitely today that he would take no action on the requisition for the extradition of General Huerta until he has been officially advised from Washington that the Villa governor of the State of Chihuahua, Mexico, is the proper person to request extradition. Governor Ferguson pointed out that for him to act on this requisition might further complicate the Mexican situation, which he did not propose to do. He was asked what probable action he would take in the event he was advised to act by the federal government. "I will consider the matter then," he replied.

First Monument for Washington is One Hundred Years Old

BALTIMORE, Md., July 5.—The centennial will be celebrated tonight of the laying of the cornerstones of the Washington monument, which stands in the heart of this city. It is the first public memorial erected in this country to George Washington. While search lights play on the monument, three tablets will be unveiled. One is a historic record of the cornerstone laying on July 4, 1815, by Levin Winder, governor of Maryland. Another tablet commemorates of General John Howard Eager and Samuel Smith-Maryland. General Eager donated the site on which the monument stands. The third tablet contains the names of eight celebrated Marylanders of a century ago, including General Lafayette, who was made a citizen of Maryland by special act. In connection with this tablet eight oak trees in the parking of Mount Vernon place, named for the eight men, will be dedicated.

MORGAN REPORTED TO HAVE PASSED POINT OF DANGER

Pulse and Temperature of Wounded Financier Are Normal and He Passes Peaceful Night.

SAILANT IS NEAR COLLAPSE

He Is Unable to Sit Up in His Couch When His Keepers Come to Call Him.

FURTHER INQUIRY IS HALTED

BULLETIN. NEW YORK, July 5.—A bomb was exploded tonight in the basement at police headquarters, directly under the detective bureau. Most of the windows on one side of the building were shattered.

GLEN COVE, N. Y., July 5.—J. P. Morgan, who was shot twice by Frank Holt last Saturday, is out of all danger. His physicians so notified his family this morning. Mr. Morgan's pulse was normal, his temperature was normal and he passed a restful night.

Holt, the would-be assassin, on the other hand, was so weak today that when his keepers went to his cell to arouse him, he could not sit up in his couch. Unless his condition improves rapidly—and there seemed no reason to expect so radical a change—it will be impossible for him to be taken into court for examination next Wednesday.

All plans to submit Holt to a further questioning today were abandoned because of his serious condition. Holt is near collapse. Dr. Guy Cleghorn, the jail physician, was summoned early to Holt's cell. The physician examined Holt thoroughly and found that his injuries were graver than at first thought. Extreme weakness seemed to be the chief feature of Holt's indisposition. This was due, Dr. Cleghorn said, to a great quantity of blood which Holt had lost from the wound over his eye.

Two stitches had been taken in this wound, but the flow of blood was not entirely checked. When the wound was dressed today it still evidenced a tendency to bleed and all possible efforts were made to prevent a further loss of blood. In addition Holt sustained a black eye, a shoulder severely wrenched and he was struck a powerful blow in the stomach which left a mark that had turned black and blue. "Holt is very sick," said Dr. Cleghorn; "sick physically and mentally. He is apparently exhausted and is unable to answer questions."

Sheriff Griffenhagen of New York county came here today to question the prisoner. He stayed only a short time in Holt's cell. When he left the jail Sheriff Griffenhagen said that he did not see how Holt could be taken into court next Wednesday, the day to which his examination was adjourned last Saturday. With the knowledge that his wounds were less grave than the doctors had first feared, Mr. Morgan rested comfortably at his home, East Isles, during the night, awoke much refreshed and seemed cheerful. The X-ray examination of yesterday

Supreme Court Cannot Consider Protest of Huerta

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—General Huerta's telegraphic protest to Chief Justice White of the supreme court against his incarceration by federal officials at El Paso and demanding that instructions be given for proper treatment of him was taken to the State department today by James D. Maher, clerk of the supreme court. The telegram was in Spanish and it was translated for Mr. Maher in the Latin American bureau. "It's all old; there is nothing to give out; there is no news in it," was all Mr. Maher would say as he left the department. "There is nothing for the court to do; it does not meet until next October anyway."

Department officials say the court cannot take jurisdiction of the case and the expectation is that the telegram will be referred to the State department and the Department of Justice for its information. Secretary Lansing said today his dispatches showed no developments in Europe or Mexico.

Interned Belgians Celebrate Fourth

THE HAGUE, July 5.—(Via London.)—Twelve thousand Belgian soldiers interned at Zeist, held an athletic meeting today in honor of the American national holiday. The games were arranged in appreciation of the timely help given by Americans, which had saved thousands of the interned soldiers' fellow citizens from starvation. The camp was decorated with American, Dutch and Belgian flags.

DESTROYER BOATS ESCORT THOMAS

Liner carrying British Purchasing Agent Convoyed Down Channel by Two Warships.

MORGAN'S YACHT MEETS HIM

NEW YORK, July 5.—The American line steamer St. Louis arrived here today from Liverpool. It was escorted down the St. George channel by two torpedo boat destroyers to a distance west of Daunt's Rock, probably owing to the presence on board of Mr. D. A. Thomas, the British capitalist and coal operator. Thomas comes here to supervise and expedite the production of munitions for the allies.

The two destroyers remained with the St. Louis two days and nights, it was said, and did not leave it till the war zone was cleared. When the St. Louis docked here Mr. Thomas was met at the pier by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador to the United States, and Willard D. Straight, of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. Mr. Thomas was accompanied on the trip across by his wife, his niece, Miss Jamison, his secretary, R. H. Carr, Morgan's business associate, V. Lloyd, Owen and R. H. Mahon. One of Mr. Morgan's yachts, its name not distinguishable through the pouring rain, lay close to the pier, ready to take Mr. Thomas and his party aboard.

"I have come to America prepared for an indefinite stay," Mr. Thomas said. "I may stay till the end of the war, and I don't know how long that will be. It looks as if the war might last a long time. But no matter how long it lasts there can be but one ending—Germany must be defeated and will be."

"My stay in the United States and Canada—I expected to go to Canada soon—is to co-operate with Mr. Morgan's firm and firms in Canada in the purchase of munitions of war for England. In this connection I want to say there has been no criticism of the manner in which Morgan has fulfilled his contracts. What criticism there has been is chiefly in Canada and was to the effect that Canada had not been favored so much in the awards of contracts as the United States."

Mr. Thomas said he did not care to comment on the latter subject. His immediate plans, he added, were not yet ripe for publication, but embraced a trip to Canada within the near future. News of the attempt to assassinate J. P. Morgan had been received aboard the ship. "It gave us all a feeling of nervousness," Mr. Thomas said.

Marshall Sleeps Through Reception

LITTLE ROCK, July 5.—Vice President T. R. Marshall slept through the reception arranged for him by Little Rock citizens upon his arrival here this morning from St. Louis en route to Hot Springs to be the principal speaker at an Independence day celebration. Among those who met the train were Governor George W. Hays, Mayor C. E. Taylor and members of the Arkansas supreme court, but the guest of honor slumbered peacefully through the noise made by 500 or more persons who desired to shake his hand. The special remained here only ten minutes.

WABASH SUIT WILL BE HEARD WEDNESDAY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 5.—The petition to vacate the order to sell the Wabash railroad at foreclosure will be heard before Elmer B. Adams, United States circuit judge, at Woodstock, Vt., on Wednesday, July 7. The sale was postponed to July 21, and a few days ago a petition was filed on behalf of certain bondholders to vacate the order of sale. It was understood that the only bidder would be the Equitable Trust company of New York, holder of the mortgage being foreclosed, and that a sale would terminate the receivership and pave the way for reorganization.

Liberty Bell Off on Long Trip to Pacific Coast

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 5.—Philadelphia said goodbye to the Liberty bell today. Escorted by the First brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, the old revolutionary relic passed between the faces of thousands of persons to the Pennsylvania railroad station, was hoisted on a specially constructed car and amid cheers left for the Panama-Pacific exposition.

The bell is being taken west on a special train, which will make more than seventy stops for local celebrations before it reaches San Francisco on the night of July 16. Six months will elapse before it will be returned to its case in Independence hall. The principal celebration in this city of the 125th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence was planned to fit in with the ceremonies attending the departure of the bell.

At dawn the precious relic was rolled from its case into Independence Square. There it was placed on a motor truck in a pouring rainstorm. The truck and the banner from which the bell was suspended were decorated with the choicest flowers. Only a handful of persons saw the relic leave the building. At 10 o'clock the Independence day exercises were begun. They were of the same character as those held in the historic square from the early days of the republic—singing by school children, patriotic addresses and prayer.

High School Cadets Camp with Army at Luddington, Mich.

LUDINGTON, Mich., July 5.—Troop A, Fifth United States cavalry, Company C and band, Third United States infantry, and several hundred high school and college students have gone into camp at Lincoln field, near this city, for a month's instruction in military tactics. Captain Weeks, Twenty-eighth infantry, is in command. While strict military discipline will be maintained the students will have all the afternoon free to enjoy the attractions of the lakeshore summer resorts.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Several hundred high school graduates and students from eastern and southern colleges went into camp at Plattsburg, N. Y., today to be taught the science of soldiery by regular army officers. This is the fourth consecutive student summer camp held by the War department in the east. The students will be drilled for five weeks and those who pass muster at the end of the camp will qualify for appointment as officers in volunteer forces.

The Bee's Fund for Free Milk and Ice

Our free Milk and Ice fund has a fine start, thanks to generous folks who are contributing. We do not know of any way in which a small sum of money can be made to do more good than in helping the hot weather little tots. Contributions from 10 cents to $5 are solicited and will be acknowledged in this column. Previously acknowledged: $94.90 Henry B. Goring..... 5.00 A Friend..... 1.00 Ed F. Kennedy..... 1.00 Dr. C. F. Yells..... 3.00 Charity Instead of Fireworks. OMAHA, July 5.—The Bee Free Milk and Ice Fund—Dear Sir: Inclosed find $1, which I am sending for the fund instead of buying fireworks. A FRIEND.

GERMANS MAKE GAINS IN WEST

Official Report Says Fifteen Hundred Yards of Allies' Trenches Were Stormed.

GAINS MADE ALONG DNIESTER

BERLIN, July 5.—(By Wireless to Sayville.)—The German army quarters' statement today says: "Western theater: A British attack north of Ypres and a French attack against Souchez were repulsed. "On the western end of the forest of Le Pretre the Germans stormed 1,500 yards of the enemy's position and advanced for a distance of 400 yards. We made prisoners of about 100 unwounded Frenchmen, among them the staff officers of one battalion, and took two field guns, four machine guns and three light and four heavy mine throwers. "The bombs thrown by aviators yesterday on Bruge, Belgium, fell in the neighborhood of the most valuable monuments of the town. "Eastern theater: Teutonic allied troops under General von Linsingen have reached the whole front of the Ziota Lips and have cleaned the west bank of Russian. In almost a fortnight of fighting against strong enemy positions, we have forced a passage across the Dniester river and have driven the enemy from position to position. "In the Bug section the enemy last night evacuated his bridge head at Krylow. "Between the Bug and the Vistula the Russians were repulsed near Plonka and Turbin and near Tarnawska and Krasnik."

French Official Report.

PARIS, July 5.—The French war office statement today says: "In the region to the north of Arras two attempts at attack on the part of the enemy, preceded each by a violent bombardment, were checked by us at about 10 o'clock last night. "One was directed particularly against our positions in front of Souchez. The Germans came out several different times from their trenches armed with grenades and bombs. We, however, compelled them to withdraw, leaving many dead on the ground. The other took place at 'The Labyrinth,' but it was at once stopped by our fire. Yesterday afternoon and in the evening the Germans assumed the offensive along a front of about three miles stretching from Fey-Eu-Haye to the Moselle. To the east of the forest of Le Pretre, along a front of about two-thirds of a mile, they were successful, after a very violent bombardment in again gaining a footing in their old lines recently taken by us. But they found it impossible to move beyond these lines. "Further to the east on a line running from La Croix-Des Carmes to the village of Riepi, on the Moselle, the Germans fell in an attack and they suffered very heavy losses. "There is nothing of importance to report from the rest of the front."

Three Negroes Are Shot to Death by Mob in Georgia

MACON, Ga., July 5.—Three negroes were shot to death by a mob of 500 persons last night near Round Oak and Wayside, two villages about thirty miles from here, and authorities today began search for others who are missing. Telephone wires leading to the villages were cut and news of the lynchings did not become known here until today when sheriff's deputies arrived with three negroes, who are being held in connection with the killing of Silas Turner, a farmer, whose death precipitated the lynchings. Turner went to the home of W. H. King, a negro near Round Oak, to collect a bill and during a dispute which resulted he was shot.
