

NORTH PITCHES A SECOND SHUTOUT

Pa's New Hurler Heaves Second Game with the Rourkelets and Wins 1 to 0.

ALLOWS BUT THREE SINGLES

In a game which, despite the muddy field upon which it was played, was a decidedly brilliant affair, Omaha beat Denver Wednesday afternoon in the ninth inning by a score of 1 to 0. North, a new man for the Rourkes, pitched his second contest, and his second victory for the home club was a shutout.

At all periods he held the Bears safe, the entire outfit ga pering but three singles, and not a man reaching third base. Harrington for the enemy also hurled a creditable game, keeping Omaha well in hand until the last stanza.

In this inning Krueger singled and advanced to third on Krug's sacrifice out. Thomason then brought in the merchandise with a neat single to right and the thing was over.

Game Delayed by Rain. Although a half-hour delay was occasioned at the opening, because of wet grounds, the game was over before 5 o'clock, taking just one hour and twenty Umpire Van Sickle performed exceedingly well and was not barked at once by either side. In fact, a more cleanly bit of adjudication has not been seen at Rourke park this year.

This afternoon a double-header will be the menu, the first game starting at 2 o'clock sharp. As an additional feature Mr. Rourke has negotiated with the South Dakota Elks' band of twenty-nine pieces and they will furnish harmony throughout the afternoon for the crowd. The Fielder Jones Will band is en route to San Francisco. Score: DENVER.
