

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Calendar. TUESDAY—Monsmouth Park Mothers' Culture club picnic, Miller park.

THE June number of the Nebraska Club Bulletin, issued by the state president, Mrs. A. G. Peterson of Aurora, details action of the Portland biennial council of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

The new ruling is to the effect that departments of work of the General Federation of Women's clubs shall be composed of a chairman, vice-chairman, appointed by the board; sub-chairman and the state federation; chairman of corresponding committees.

General Federation committees are hereafter to be designated as "Departments of Work."

Other Nebraska state chairmen who become General Federation officers by this ruling are:

Art, Mrs. James T. Lees, president Lincoln Women's club; civics, Mrs. Hugh La. Master, Tecumseh; education, Mrs. Emma Miller, West Point; conversation, Mrs. Joseph Sparks, Chadron; home economics, Mrs. A. E. Davison, Lincoln; industrial, Mrs. N. M. Graham, South Omaha; library, Mrs. W. E. Wherry, Pawnee City; literature, Mrs. Edgar Penny, Fullerton; music, Mrs. George N. Eeels, Norfolk.

Mrs. Graham of South Omaha, who is now a member of the General Federation Industrial department, has been state chairman for two years. She is the retiring president of the South Omaha Women's club having held this office two years. Mrs. Graham was most active in promoting the inauguration of hot lunches for school children in some of the South Omaha schools. The experiment proved most successful.

Mrs. William Archibald Smith, regent of Major Isaac Sadler chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, announces the following appointments on committees: Program, Misses Cassie Roy, Louise Schindel and Frances Thompson; patriotic education, Mrs. Kenneth Finlayson and Miss Maude Roy; constitution, Mrs. Earl E. Stanfield and Miss Ethel Eldridge; courtesies, Misses Carolyn Barklow and Mildred Funkhouser; historic markers, Miss Ida Crowell, Mrs. R. E. McKelvey and Mrs. E. B. McCulley; music, Miss Ruth Gausson and Mrs. Ralph Newell; auditor, Mrs. Charles Haffner; messengers, Mrs. E. G. Eldridge and Mrs. Elmer C. Conley.

Major Isaac Sadler chapter will place a bronze tablet in memory of Chief Logan Fontenelle in the lobby of the Hotel Fontenelle next fall. There will be appropriate exercises and probably a luncheon to celebrate the placing of the memorial.

This chapter, together with the Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, decorated the Liberty bell with a huge wreath three feet across when the historic relic was on exhibition in Omaha, Friday morning.

Mrs. Maude Crow Waters, president of the Friday Morning club of Los Angeles, one of the largest women's organizations in the country, was elected to the Los Angeles Board of Education. Mrs. Waters was the center of interest when the California delegation passed through Omaha a year ago in June, en route to the General Federation of Women's Clubs biennial convention held in Chicago. The California women and other westerners were entertained at the Commercial club, Omaha club women acting as hostesses.

The monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Young Women's Christian association will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the association rooms.

The board of trustees of the west central district, Woman's American Baptist Foreign Missionary society, will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association. Mrs. Edward Johnson is chairman of the board. Mrs. George Wilson of Lincoln, state secretary, is expected to be in attendance.

Mrs. F. J. Burnett, leader of the home economics department, Omaha Women's club, leaves Friday for a few weeks' stay at Isle Royal, where she will be with her daughter.

Mrs. H. B. Ritchie will give a talk on "Industrial Welfare and Its Relation to the Labor Problem" at a meeting of the Frances Willard Women's Christian Temperance union, which will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carrie King, 3484 Charles street. There will be a parliamentary drill by the superintendent of parliamentary usage, Mrs. R. E. McKelvey.

The annual picnic of the Benson Women's club was held at Miller park Thursday afternoon and evening. A 9 o'clock picnic dinner was served to the members, their families and a number of invited guests. About forty attended the picnic.

The Benson Women's Christian Temperance union will hold a meeting next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Whistler.

The Omaha Women's Christian Temperance union will hold its regular monthly business meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian association. Mrs. Edith Shirock, superintendent of the medical contact department, will give a demonstration of her work.

The Monsmouth Park Mothers' club will hold a picnic for the mothers and children at Miller park Tuesday. The busness meeting will be held near the pavilion at 11:30 o'clock, after which a basket lunch will be served. Everybody interested in the Mothers' club has been invited to come and bring a basket.

The West Omaha Mothers' Culture club, of which Mrs. R. A. McFarlane is president, is planning an interesting study of opera and the drama for next year. Mrs. J. A. Hamilton, the ex-president; Mrs. Blaine Truesdell and Mrs. T. J. White constitute the program committee. The first meeting will be held the fourth Friday of September.

The literature department of the Omaha Women's club has issued its program for the coming year. There will be a study of the literature of Russia and Italy as shown in the writings of Tolstol, Turgenieff, Zangwill, Antin, Pawlowski, Pushkin, Tchekoff, D'Annunzio and Browning.

An interesting feature will be lectures by Miss Kate McHugh, Keene Abbott and Rabbi Frederick Cohn. Mrs. Charles H. Mullin is leader of the department.

Delegates to the World's Purity Federation congress at San Francisco will pass through Nebraska on a special train on Tuesday. This is the ninth annual meeting and will be held July 13-14. Anthony Comstock of New York City is one of the principal workers in the federation. The train reaches Lincoln at 11 a. m. and the delegates will be entertained by the Lincoln Commercial club until 1:30 p. m. Governor Morehead has appointed sixteen delegates from this state who are to join the party at Lincoln. Mrs. Max Hostetter of Shelton, one of the delegates, will join the delegation at Denver.

Early day suffrage work in Nebraska will be recorded in a book, "Reminiscences and Anecdotes of Early Nebraska," being written by Mrs. Warren Perry of Fairbury. Mrs. Perry was the first white child born in Hebron and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Correll of Hebron, who were pioneer suffragists. They edited a Nebraska "Woman's Journal." Mr. Correll held a unique position as a masculine president of the national suffrage association for a short time, and did notable work for the cause in the Nebraska legislature. Mrs. Correll is living. Mrs. Perry was formerly state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, having been succeeded by Mrs. Charles H. Aull of Omaha.

The West Side Women's Christian Temperance union will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Black, 114 South Fifty-sixth street. In the evening the West Side union, together with the Jennings Methodist Episcopal church, will give an ice cream social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Grover, 5303 Lincoln avenue.

Miss Laura Mulford, who has been a Young Women's Christian association secretary for the last year, leaves on August 1 for her home at Stuart, Neb. The new secretary will be Miss Merie Burriss, an Iowa girl and a graduate of Coe college in 1914.

The Young Women's Christian association delegation to Albert Lea conference is as follows: From the Burgoes-Nash company, Miss Louise Herrmann and Albina Walasek; from the Brandels company, Miss Mabel Workman; from Loose-Wiles, Misses Jane Melvor and May Odgen; from M. E. Smith's, Misses Mildred Herbert and Lorena Polen; from Voegel & Dinning's, Misses Sadie Hiatt and Emily Stacy; from the Pleasant Hour club, Misses Della Hanks and Etta Radwimer; from E. G. Dun company, Miss Frances Semek. Others are hoping to join the party. The Lincoln delegation of five will go from here, with Miss Elizabeth Brenizer in charge of the party. Mrs. C. E. Johannes, chairman of the industrial committee, joining them at the conference.

The Lake Geneva conference will be held August 17 to 27. Miss Beulah Evans will head the delegates, which includes Misses Helen Lawrence and Laura Hyde, from the secretarial force; Miss Edna Wilson and Dr. Nora Fairchild from the Business Girl's club; Miss Ruth Anderson, Fellowship club; Misses Martha Frankfort and Flora Melcher, Athletic club; Miss Abigail Manning, Home Economics club; from the girls' department, Belle Cook, Lillian Nelson, Alta Davis, Esther Rawson and Agnes Johnson.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. The Summer Hill farm activities are now in full swing, and through July and August, many city girls will take advantage of the real country life. The farm has never been more attractive than it is now, the country so green and beautiful, and the large rambling house with plenty of room and good times with the other girls. The week-end parties are practically over with, and now the girls go out for an entire week or two, but the week-ends can be arranged for parties or for the individual girl. Board and room for the week is $10 and for the week-end $1. Information may be secured by calling at the Young Women's Christian association general office.

During the two months of July and August Miss Moore will have charge of the employment office, while Miss Odorise is on her vacation. The office is open every day but Wednesday from 9:30 to 5.

The swimming for this term is too far advanced for any one to enter now, but a new term will begin in September, and then those who were unable to enter this summer can do so. The terms will be the same. The pool is open all summer and tickets can be secured for a small sum. The tennis court will be kept in repair all summer, so that it can be used at any time the weather will permit, but on only two days is there a librarian in attendance, on Tuesday and Friday. When no one is there, books may be secured at the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Singer will spend two weeks in South Haven, Mich., before returning home.

Daughter of '76 Is Not Able to See the Historic Relic Here

Mrs. A. A. Chambers of Council Bluffs is another descendant of a signer of the Declaration of Independence, who would have been entitled to greet the Liberty Bell as it passed through Omaha Friday.

Mrs. Chambers is now 84 years old, but remembers distinctly the line of descent, which makes her a daughter of independence. Her great-grandfather, John Hart, was one of the New Jersey signers, as well as a man of considerable importance in the continental congress. He was a native of Hopewell, Hunterdon county, New Jersey, where he died in 1780.

When operations centered in New Jersey in 1776, Mr. Hart was obliged to flee for his life. He was hunted as closely by the British that at one time he took refuge in the kennel of a big dog, which was his companion for a time.

Mrs. Chambers remembers a story which her grandmother, a daughter of John Hart, told. One Thanksgiving during the war, General George Washington and his staff were to eat dinner at the home of John Hart. A sumptuous meal had been prepared and the two children of the family, Mrs. Chambers' grandmother and a brother, were watching eagerly for the arrival of the guests.

Much to their terror a squad of Hessians appeared, entered the house, and helped themselves to the food. The Hessians, however, assured the children that they need not be afraid, for they merely wanted the food.

Mrs. Chambers' husband was a son of

DR. KERR VISITS BELLEVUE, WHERE HE WAS ONCE HEAD

The campus of Bellevue college was never more beautiful than it is this season," commented Dr. David Ramsey Kerr, Ph. D., D.D., L. D., associate president of the Beechwood school for young women, Jenkintown, Pa., when he paid a three days' visit to Prof. and Mrs. Nicholl of Bellevue last week.

Dr. Kerr was president of Bellevue college during the fifteen years from 1890 to 1904. He made the first efforts to improve and beautify the campus, planting trees, shrubs and flowers. He was highly gratified at the result of his efforts, being particularly delighted with the growth of the trees which now make the campus a magnificently shaded park.

It was also under Dr. Kerr's supervision that all of the present college buildings except Clarke hall and the new gymnasium now in process of construction were built, together with two other halls which were burned. The addition of the large new gymnasium to the number of college buildings Dr. Kerr regards as of inestimable value. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the success of the college and its promising condition along all lines.
