

KENNEDY THROWS DERBY INTO RING

Says that He Will Take Up the Issues as They Arrive During the Campaign.

HAS BEATEN HITCHCOCK ONCE

John L. Kennedy has tossed his derby into the ring and is to be a candidate for the United States senate in 1916.

While this had long been foreshadowed, the definite announcement has only come now. Mr. Kennedy is thus far the only republican in the race, but other entries are expected.

"As for issues," said Mr. Kennedy, "I will take them up from time to time as the occasion arises. There is really no need of discussing the issues that may come up. It is enough to say that I will make the race. Everything looks propitious and I am going to make a fight worth while."

Beat Hitchcock Once.

Mr. Kennedy defeated Gilbert M. Hitchcock for congressman from the Second district in 1904. Hitchcock was then running for re-election. In 1908 Hitchcock defeated Kennedy again for the place. In 1907 Governor Sheldon of Nebraska made Kennedy a fire and police commissioner of Omaha.

Mr. Kennedy was chairman of the republican state committee in 1911, opened the republican convention in Lincoln in 1912 and presided until Governor Aldrich was elected temporary chairman and presided at the ball.

Besides handling a large legal practice, Mr. Kennedy has had time to take active part in many important public affairs in Omaha. He was a prime mover in organizing the Douglas Hotel company which built the Pontenello hotel. He is a partner in the Saunders-Kennedy Building company which erected the fine new building at Eleventh and Douglas streets recently completed. He has other large building projects planned, notably at the northeast corner of Sixteenth and Douglas streets, where he has obtained a long term lease.

Came Here as a Lad.

John L. Kennedy was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, October 27, 1854. He came to America when a lad of 19 years. For two years he worked on a farm in La Salle county, Illinois. Then he left the farm and entered Knox college, Galesburg, Ill. Though he did not remain to complete his course, Knox college has since conferred an honorary degree upon him. In 1882 he was graduated in the College of Law of the University of Iowa. He then came to Omaha where he has been engaged in the practice of law and his numerous public and semi-public activities since that time.

Swimming Pool For Spring Lake Park is Proposed

The Recreation board yesterday afternoon approved the plans of Superintendent English, relating to improvement of the swimming pool in Spring Lake park. It is proposed to designate days for men and boys and other days for women and girls; also, to install shower baths for use of bathers before entering the pool. The proposition of establishing a pool in Riverview park went over for a week, as Mr. English wants to submit to the board his general program of work here before action is taken on this pool. It is estimated the pool will cost $7,500, which Mr. English feels is a deep cut into his budget for the balance of this year.

An automobile will be bought for the new superintendent of public recreation.

Police Find Child Hidden Under Bed

Although the neighborhood about Seventeenth and Leavenworth streets was in a turmoil on her account, 2-year-old Claire Decker, imprisoned by bedclothes beneath a bed in a flat at 1301 Leavenworth, slept soundly through it all. Police Officer L. S. Thrasher found her by accident.

The little girl's father hid her there, police say, and he is now being sought.

Sometime ago, Mrs. Kate Decker, 1509 North Seventeenth street, filed suit against her husband, Harry, a machinist, charging cruelty and non-support. Later she filed complaint against him in police court, charging malicious destruction of her property. He was being sought by police when he entered the Seventeenth street home in his wife's absence and took away his little daughter.

When Mrs. Decker returned, she called the police. Officers O. F. Peterson and Thrasher located Decker at the home of his stepmother on Leavenworth street and with the assistance of City Prosecutor Fred Anheuser and several others, surrounded the place. Decker managed to escape, however, and after much searching, the child was found hidden beneath a bed, with a big pile of bed clothes concealing and nearly suffocating her.

The search attracted a big crowd, and before the officers found the child, nearly 200 people had collected to watch the proceedings.

Allen Goes Onto Detective Force

George Allen, former member of the police moral squad, and lately assigned to traffic detail, has been appointed a first class detective by Commissioner Kugel, and will be detailed to work in South Omaha, under the captain of the Second district station house.

In making the appointment official, Acting Chief Dempsey took occasion to highly commend the work of Allen, saying:

"Mr. Kugel has a system all his own for trying out the mettle of men. Allen has successfully passed that test. I am happy to say, I believe he will be one of the most successful plainclothes operatives in the detective bureau."

Railroad Passenger Men Express Opinions on Robbery of Tourists in Yellowstone Park.

WILL NOT INJURE BUSINESS

Omaha railroad men who represent lines operating up to the gateway of the Yellowstone National park are of the opinion that the robbery of thirty-five tourists in the park Friday by bandits will increase the business rather than cut it down during the remainder of the season. Said General Passenger Agent Wakeley of the Burlington:

"This robbery makes me feel ashamed of the bandit profession. It convinces me that the highwayman, of whom we have formed such an exalted opinion and who in the yellow covered novels has been made a hero, has now joined the ranks of the common foot pad.

More Like Pickers. "The men who robbed the stages Friday exhibited no bravery, or daring. They simply held up and robbed unarmed and helpless women. The act did not show any more daring than it would to rob a child of its candy, out on some of the streets of Omaha. People going into the park are not allowed to carry arms for protection and I don't suppose that the men and women on these stages carried any weapons except pocket knives and hat pins.

"The robbery will not hurt the business. Instead, if fancy that it will encourage it. People are of an inquisitive turn of mind and they will flock to the park now to learn just where and how this holdup was pulled off."

May Open Uncle Sam's Eyes. Assistant General Passenger Agent Murray of the Union Pacific said:

"I fancy that this robbery will be an eye opener to the government. It ought to result in increasing the number of guards and possibly the issuance of an order permitting tourists to carry at least revolvers for self-protection.

"While the passengers of twelve stages have been robbed, that does not mean that robberies are to become frequent. I venture to say that even if the government does nothing to increase the police protection in the park, it may be years before there will be another holdup; perhaps there will never be another.

"Seeing that this robbery is about the best advertisement the park ever got. It will be heralded all over the world and people will flock there just to see where it occurred and how it was done."

ENGLISH PLANS TO BUILD SOME TENNIS COURTS

Superintendent English of the public recreation system expects to establish tennis courts in connection with the playground system. He hopes to get at this work this season. His general program will include the placing of these courts in vacant spaces under supervision of neighborhood organizations.

Next week Mr. English will consider several applicants for positions of play directors.

An office on the fourth floor of the city hall is being prepared for the new superintendent.

BOARDER IS FINED FOR CHASTISING LITTLE GIRL

Casino Bucketto, boarder at the home of Lance Sanders, 511 South Seventh street, was fined $25 and costs for chastising Nellie Sanders, 8 years old. Bucketto is also said to have abused Mrs. Sanders, who is blind. He was given a severe reprimand by Judge Britt.

FEATHER BOA CRAZE "CENTERED" HERE

Dresher Brothers Still Making New Feather Boas Out of Old Discarded Feathers.

Women Demand the Boas (And Beaux, Too,) and Are Eager to Follow the Fashion.

Dresher Brothers, the Dry Cleaners and Dyers with the $57,000 plant at 2211-2213 Farnam St., are as much responsible for the present feather boa craze in Omaha as anybody.

You see it was this way: the moment Dreshers heard that feather boas were quite the caper in the east they thought to themselves that tons of old feathers were laying about Omaha homes; feathers that might as well be made up into new feather boas as to meet with an inglorious ending in the rag bag.

So Dreshers took some old feathers; cleaned them, dyed them, trimmed them, made them up into boas and found that their own product was even superior to the feather boas of the shops.

Dresher immediately advertised to let the well dressed ladies know of their abilities in this direction and the result is that the Dresher plume and feather department has been working early and late to satisfy the demand for feather boas, because the prospective wearers knew that feather boas made from old feathers would cost vastly less than new boas purchased at the stores.

Let this be a tip to you if you have some old feathers and care for a really becoming style. A feather boa touches off a woman's throat very charmingly.

Dreshers maintain a special Plume and Feather Dept. and do all of the required cleaning, curling and dyeing.

Phone Tyler 345 and ask for the "Feather Lady" Or leave work at Dresher The Tailors, 1515 Farnam St., or at the Dresher branch in the Pompeian Room of the Brandeis Stores.
