IN THE quiet interim of the summer solstice Fate has come to the rescue of feminine hearts and sent from the far east two tutors, possessed of charm, to enliven the social scenery.

Mr. Albert Waldron, a master at St. Paul's college, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze. He has come on to tutor Mr. Denman Kountze in a special summer course of study. Mr. Waldron is an enthusiastic golfer and is seen almost daily on the Country club links.

Mr. Thompson is spending the summer at the Peters' home, where he is tutoring Mr. Douglas Peters. Mr. Thompson's out-of-door interest is tennis, and he is a noticeable figure on the Country club tennis courts.

With two such fascinating sportsmen at the club, is it any wonder this flocking of the feminine world to the cooling verandas of the club? I hear, girls, one of their hearts is taken, a blow no doubt, but then, mayhap, it may be retaken.

At Happy Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Tumcliff entertained four guests at dinner last evening at Happy Hollow club. W. C. Ramsey had four guests; I. Sibbernson, two; J. T. Yates, five; H. H. Cook, three; O. T. READY TO TAKE VACATION, MALCOMB ORDERED TO WORK

A. R. Malcomb, assistant general freight agent of the Missouri Pacific, had gone on his annual vacation, expecting to spend the time in the Wisconsin woods, when he was called back by a telegram, instructing him to go to the Pacific coast for a month, or six weeks, to look after contracting freight business. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Malcomb and while they are west, they expect to find time to visit both of the expositions.

MISSOURI VALLEY VETS IN MEETING

DHALMAN MAKES AN ADDRESS

Over 100 veterinarians from a dozen states bordering the Missouri river arrived in Omaha early Monday morning for the annual convention of the Missouri Valley Veterinarian association at the Hotel Rome. Over 200 delegates are expected.

The convention is to be in session three days. Only a meeting of the executive committee was held in the forenoon, to go over some matters of detail, and the convention proper was not called to order until after 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dahlman Makes Address.

Dr. C. J. Siler of Kansas City, president of the association, called the meeting to order and made a brief address. Mayor Dahlman gave an address of welcome, which was responded to by Dr. R. F. Bourne. Reports of various committees consumed the greater part of the afternoon.

One of the points on which the Nebraska veterinarians pride themselves at this time is that, as they put it, through their efficiency and vigilance Nebraska has been kept clear of the dreaded hoof and mouth disease while neighboring states were afflicted with it. The hoof and mouth disease is one of the questions that is to be discussed in the course of the week. Much attention is also to be given to the subject of sanitation, as the veterinarians recognize that questions of sanitation are important to the health of persons.

Today the women are to be shown through the Skinner Macaroni manufacturing plant during the forenoon. They are to be entertained at luncheon at the Fontenelle hotel at noon by courtesy of the local veterinarians and the local serum companies. This afternoon the women are to be at the Empress theater, and in the evening they are to participate in the banquet the veterinarians are to hold at the Rome. Wednesday morning the women are to be shown through the O'Brien Candy manufacturing plant, and through the Iten Blacut company's plant.

England Must Stop Interfering with American Shipping

IN THE LITERARY DIGEST for July 10th, the leading feature deals with the President's protest to England against the continued interference by that country with American shipping, and shows all phases of the question. That there is a growing feeling of resentment among American manufacturers is shown by the reflex of public opinion from all parts of the country which the "Digest" presents.

THE LITERARY DIGEST, week by week, not only gives the most comprehensive, reliable, and interesting account of the European war, but its editors are keeping in close touch with developments and public opinion in America and elsewhere on all questions of human import.

Another feature in this number explains

The First Concerted Movement for Peace

Every American will be interested in learning the Socialistic view-point which is new being directed towards the bringing about of peace.

That the clamoring for peace by the socialists is seriously annoying the ruling powers in Germany is shown by the suppression of the Berlin paper "Vorwärts."

Other interesting topics which are covered in a comprehensive fashion in this issue of the "Digest" are:

- More Dual Citizenship Profits of Labor and Capital
- Bryan and Dumba The Rights of Army Officers to Resign

The busiest of busy people can spare two hours weekly reading THE LITERARY DIGEST. Even in this short time, were they to read nothing else, they could learn more about all those subjects which concern mankind everywhere, than could he who spends many hours in indiscriminate reading.

ALL THE FACTS WITHOUT CONFUSION

What real relief it is, after all the conflicting sensation and rumor that greets us on all sides, to know that there is one source to which one can turn and read in an orderly and reliable form all the vital news of the world—the wheat separated from the chaff—the moving stories of wisdom, folly, and action that go to make up our everyday life, illustrated with the best cartoons, portraits, maps, etc.

Let us suggest that you spend two hours reading THE LITERARY DIGEST this week.
