

DEBUTANTES LIFE OF CLUBS

Various Outdoor Clubs Are Filled with the Gayety of the Younger Set.

FIVE HAVE THEIR PLANS MADE

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Original Monday Bridge club. TUESDAY—Dinner-dance at the Happy Hollow, Carter Lake and Seymour Lake country clubs.

Always at this time of the year the prospective debutantes of the season to come loom upon the social horizon.

The clubs are filled with the gayety. In fact, the life of the country clubs now is in their set and speculations are rife as to their plans.

As things are now there will be only a few this fall. Last year we had twelve say bids and their debut parties and given in honor affairs kept all hopping until the last days of October filled them.

The five prospective debutantes for next fall are: The Isabel Vinsonhiler, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Duncan Vinsonhiler, attended school at Dana Hall, graduating from there in June.

Miss Marion Towle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Towle; Miss Marjorie McCord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal McCord; Miss Charlotte Callahan and Miss Geraldine Wolfe.

Miss Callahan is a little undecided yet as to her plans. She was to have been a debutante of last season, but a death in the family prevented.

Miss Geraldine Wolfe, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Waldridge, is another member of the younger set who will possibly seek debutante honors next fall.

Off for the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Kelly went to the Rotary special, to attend the Rotary convention in San Francisco. They will be gone about a month visiting various coast points.
