TENNIS IS PLAYED

Park Larmon Furnishes Surprise of City Tournament by Defeating Spike Kennedy.

POTTER AND HARRY KOCH WIN

The second round of the City Tennis tournament has been finished, and the third round is partly played. The courts are again in fine shape and faster tennis is being played. To the surprise of many, Park Larmon put Spike Kennedy out of the running Monday with the interesting acore of $-6, 11-9 and 6-3, proving that Spike put up a good fight. Cub Potter and Harry Koch won their matches with no trouble and Rusty Larmon trimmed Lyman McConnell, playing fast tennis for the two sets. Ralph Rainy fell before the onslaught of Guy Williams, although he put up a good fight even if the score does tions have been played before either of them invests. The results are as follows:

The assassin's bullet and the explosive bomb are two death-dealing agencies that are making their presence felt in this country as an outcome of the European war.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for July 17th, there is given a comprehensive gist of public opinion from all quarters upon the attempted assassination of J. P. Morgan, the explosion of a bomb in the National Capitol, and the reported planting of others in the holds of ocean-going steamers. The editorial opinions of both pro-German and American newspapers are presented.

Another subject that will hold the interest of Americans, is the very complete explanation of our national finances, under the heading of which deals particularly with the $35,000,000 deficit in the National Treasury.

Profit and Loss of a Year of War

Most men and women want to know all about a subject in which they are vitally interested. While they may believe their own opinion and view-point are correct, yet it is obvious that they can not know the exact truth unless they have the information from all sides. The "Digest" prints the news-facts on all sides of important events of the world without fear or favor. More than a million Americans buy and read it every week.

Among other features that will strongly commend the issue of July 17th to the attention of its readers are:

Nashville's Hour of Trial Alleged Disorganization in France and England The Allies' Air Raid on Karlsruhe Aerial Mail Service Recruiting by Poster in England The Pepe and the Interviewers The German "Sherlock Holmeses" A Letter to the Kaiser Trusting the Honor of Criminals

Is the Rifle Doomed in War? The Swing of the Pendulum in Roumania College Girls as Wives and Mothers A Thinking Machine Nietzsche's Soul in a War-Book Japan's Billy Sunday England's Most Unpopular Editor The Money that Americans Will Not Spend Abroad This Summer

Every subject of interest to the average man and woman is dealt with in this foremost American weekly, including the War News, Science, Invention, Literature, Politics, Religion, Foreign Comment, Motoring, Drama and Sports.

Each number is graphically illustrated with the best cartoons, photographs, and maps.

Note:-In many places the news-dealer is selling out his "Digest" supply so quickly that readers are often disappointed in failing to get their copy. Give your news-dealer a standing order for THE LIT-ERARY DIGEST and you will always be sure of avoiding disppointment.
