LONG'S PEAK INN, in the heart of the Rocky mountains, is harboring a number of well known Omahans just now.

It is the most rustic resort in Estes Park and is situated at the foot of Long's Peak, the King of the Rockies. Mr. Enos Mills, the popular author and naturalist, is operating this attractive resort. Mr. Mills is not a stranger in Omaha. He has lectured here on different occasions during the last two winters. The rusticness of the spot made such claim on his fancy that he decided to open it to the public eye for a pleasure ground.

Omaha is represented there now by Mrs. Edgar Morsman and children, Miss Mary and Master Edgar and Frumman Morsman. They plan to remain there until school time. Mrs. Olin Eugene Harris is another well known Omahan at the inn for the summer.

Mrs. Fred Metz and daughters, the Misses Harriett and Gertrude, and Mrs. John Kuhn and Miss Marion Kuhn, have been guests recently at Long's Peak Inn, and claim it as one of their favorite haunts.

Butler Objects to Money Spent On Playground Work

The appointment of seven play supervisors by the recreation board was confirmed by the city council. Commissioner Butler voting against the proposition.

"I believe playgrounds should be established at such places as Thirtieth and William streets and Twenty-fourth and Caldwell streets, instead of spending so much money on the playgrounds already established. Too much of the recreation fund is being spent for salaries," declared Mr. Butler.

Commissioner Drexel wanted to know why women should be employed as play directors and Commissioner Kugel said he believed the recreation board should refer matters to the council before acting upon them. Commissioner Hummel contended some confidence should be reposed in the recreation board or else dispense with the board entirely.

The council approved of the purchase of a runabout for Superintendent Knitlich of the recreation department and appropriated $100 for play equipment.

The seven supervisors have begun their work in-site marks and one of the playgrounds.

GREATER OMAHA BUDGET APPROVED

Combined Taxes to Be $3,755,562 for City and School Purposes for Year 1916.

ALL FUNDS ARE TO BE LARGER

The city council approved the Greater Omaha budget of $2,276,602 for 1916, the funds being as follows: General, $1,390,000; sinking fund for interest, $400,000; bond retirement, $150,000; South Side deficiency for last five months of this year, $123,000; special fire fund for motorizing department and installing new fire alarm system, $66,500; hydrant rental, $146,102.

This levy represents the maximum as allowed by the existing city charter, and the result will be a substantial increase of taxes for next year.

Add to general city levy $1,474,900, authorized by the Board of Education Monday evening, the total taxes next year for general city and school purposes for Greater Omaha will be $3,755,562, which does not include the water district.

Jardine's List Approved. The city council approved the appointment of John A. Bruce, chief city engineer, at $3,000 a year, beginning August 1, and of Herman Deal as assistant chief engineer at $15 per month, with use of his automobile.

The name of Watson Townsend, who has been city engineer, was not included in a long list of appointments sent in by Commissioner Jardine, superintendent of the public improvement department. Mr. Jardine was not inclined to discuss the Townsend matter further than to say: "I will take care of Mr. Townsend." The former city engineer continues to work in the department.

Friendship for Late Bishop Clarkson and Wife Cause of a Gift

Request When Late Bishop Clarkson and Mrs. Batterson Visited in Omaha some thirty years ago, their visit here being vividly recalled by Mrs. Theodore L. Ringwalt.

Mrs. F. H. Davis, daughter of the late Bishop Clarkson, is out of the city, but her daughter, Mrs. Walter Roberts, stated that she remembered having heard her grandmother speak of Mrs. Batterson many times. Mrs. Clarkson and Mrs. Batterson were girlhood friends in Frederickburg, Md.

Mrs. S. D. Barklow, who met Mrs. Batterson on her Omaha visit, is spending the summer in the west. This is Mrs. Batterson's second Omaha request. When late many years ago she gave a fund to St. Barnabas' church, according to Rev. Lloyd B. Holmapple. After the death of her husband in 1901, she built a cathedral in his memory at Salina, Kan. Mrs. Batterson was 83 years old at the time of her death.

Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "I never hesitate to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Sol Williams, merchant, Jesse, Tenn. "I sell more of it than of any other preparation of like character. I have used it myself and found it gave me more relief than anything else I have ever tried for the same purpose."
