GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Two Cars of New Wheat Reported on Local Exchange and Old Wheat Drops.

CORN HOLDS AT STEADY PRICE

OMAHA, July 21, 1915.

Two cars of new wheat were reported in on the local exchange today, they are the first shipments of new wheat this year.

Old wheat takes a big drop today, selling from 10 to 12 cents lower and the demand continues light.

The corn receipts totalled forty-one cars and there was a fair demand for this cereal, and it sold unchanged to ¼c higher.

Oats were quoted ½c lower.

Grain exporters expect that foreign governments will establish credits with the banks in this country to pay for all grain as soon as the export movement is well under way.

Considerable grain has been contracted for, to be shipped in August and September and the belief exists that the money or credits will be available when the grain is ready to be loaded.

Clearances were: Wheat and flour, equal to 592,000 bu.; corn, 8,000 bu.; oats, 336,000 bu.

Liverpool closing: Wheat unchanged, ¼c higher; corn, unchanged, 1c higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 725,000 bu., and shipments 296,000 bu., as against receipts of 2,280,000 bu., and shipments of 1,362,000 bu. last year.

Primary corn receipts were 457,000 bu., and shipments 523,000 bu., as against receipts of 380,000 bu., and shipments of 351,000 bu. last year.

Primary oats receipts were 477,000 bu., and shipments 404,000 bu., as against receipts of 561,000 bu., and shipments of 506,000 bu. last year.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Enlarged estimates of shipments that would be required by Europe lead to a bulge today in the price of wheat, but the advance was not well maintained. Quotations closed unsettled, ¼c off to ½c up, compared with last night. Corn finished at a gain of 1@1¼c, oats ¼@¾c down to 1¼c up and provisions with losses of 10@65c.

Nothwithstanding highly advantageous present conditions for the growth of domestic spring wheat and for threshing and moving the winter crop, the market soon developed notable strength based almost entirely on bullish foreign news. The unpromising harvest outlook in Great Britain, France and Italy was said on good authority to have made virtually certain a prospect that the United States would be called on more freely for breadstuffs than had of late been supposed. Hopes for a big yield in Canada were said to have disappeared.

Difficulty in obtaining knowledge of the actual amount of export business done today, however, led to a bearish reaction in the wheat market after midday. The largest total mentioned was 800,000 bushels and this was not confirmed until speculative trading hours were over. A decided break in cash prices at Omaha as a result of the arrival of the first Nebraska wheat this season tended further to unsettle prices here in the last part of the day.

Corn showed firmness almost from the start. Cool weather, adverse to quick growth was against the bears, and it was said all the corn here and all bought to arrive in Chicago within the next thirty days had been sold for shipment. Active call from the seaboard lifted the July delivery of oats. Later options, though, were easy on account of hedging by holders of new grain.
