SIX HOME RUNS ARE MADE IN SWATFEST

Krueger, Blanck, Shields and Spahr Each Hit Circuit Clouts and McCormick Makes Two.

OMAHA LOSES BY WIDE MARGIN

DENVER, Colo., July 25 .- (Special Telegram.)-As a result of the double victory on Saturday and the long ride from Lincoin, the Rourkes drifted into Denver a little weary, but had plenty of pep at Broadway park when the gong rank. The matines was named the "Round Trip Day." A pair of the hostiles, Blanck and Krueger, crossed the pan for the visitors after circuit clouts, while for the Bears, McCormick hit the pill for two four-base drives, Shields whanged one over the fence on the first bounce, a feat that is seldom accomplished, and Spahr sent one to deep center for the sixth long distance rap of the afternoon. The score was 15 to 7, Denver.

The Rourkes hit Sterzer hard, but many hits were cut down by fast fielding. The Bears' outfield caught half a dozen fly balls, many of them scorching drives that looked like safeties. Faults on the part of the Rourkes were costly, together with the heavy artillery of the locals. Sterzer and Blodgett signed articles of agreement to fight the Sabbath program out, but Blodgett couldn't stand the pace and gave way to Everdon in the third.

Rourkes Count First. Neither side scored in the first frame, but in the second the visitors crossed the plate with three tallies, thanks to the home run of Krueger. In the third round the Grizzlies took the heart out of Blodsett, Kelleher singled, Spahr tripled, Sterzer acquired a base when Blanck muffed one, and Spencer beat out a bunt, filling the sacks. Miller then doubled, scoring Spahr, Storzer and Spencer. Mo-Cormick whiffed, but Galloway cet the daisies in left for a single, scoring Miller. Coffey walked and went to second when Krueger threw the ball into center. Shields popped to Blanck.

Helleher got his second hit of the in-ning that tallied Galloway. Coffey tried to score from second, but was thrown Riley, p ...

After this frame it was nothing to it for the home bunch. In the fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth rounds the Bears piled up nine more counts on heavy swats and on the mishaps of Omaha.

Sterzer let up in the last two stanzas and the Rourkes took opportunity by the forelock and crossed the home platter with a quartet of tallies. Score:

HAS SEVEN UP AND FIVE TO GO

ish, Jr., by Clever Playing.

CLEVELAND, O., July 5.- Playing the greatest golf ever witnessed over the Mayfield course, "Chick" Evans today defeated J. D. Standish, jr., Detroit, seven and five, in the final match for the 1915 western amateur title.

In doing so he set a new record for the course this morning, finishing the eighteen holes in seventy-one, one stroke less than marks made by W. C. Fownes, ir., Pittsburgh, and Ned Sawyer, Chicago, earlier in the tourney. While the match did not have the thrills that accompanied the Evans-Sawyer clash of Friday, it was made interesting to several hundred golf fans by the determined playing of Jimmy Standish. Standish was handleapped by his own weakness to slice or hook on his too shot. But the prettiest golfing of the day would be .Standish's beautiful recoveries from sand traps, long grass, woods and creek. Taking into consideration the frequency are of George Ross and Johnny Reed to with which he did this his desperate qualify in the championship flight. Ross match against the champion was remarktook one stroke too many and Reed able. But Evans had no glaring fault spoiled his chances by taking a 60 on the such as Standish's. He played an even game throughout. Winning his fourth championship wasn't such a thrill to him. He was used to it and went about the task with a care free smile on his face, often halting to discuss the score with a friend. if his life depended upon it. This style of play found Standish leading at the first turn in the morning round, one up. Only three holes were won in those first nine holes, the other six being halved in good scores.

Evans made the first nine in thirtyseven equalling the par up to the turn. On the return he played sensational golf. being aided at the eighteenth by holding out on a mashle shot from the rough. 100 feet from the cop. This gave him a thirty-four for the return, two strokes under par. He had overcome Standish's early lead and stopped for lunch two holes to the good. The afternon round was not so interesting. Standlah continued hooking and sticking with sensational mashie shots to the fair ways. Evans missed easy putts that would have given him the match sooner.

Again the champion made the first half of the course in par. He was two strokes under par when the match ended and might have broken his morning mark had he been forced to continue the match to the eighteenth hole.
