New York Wins First Contest, While Second is Captured by Chicago Team.

SECOND ONE IS A SHUTOUT

A single and Boyie's homer in the first inning gave New York two runs.

The locals bunched a triple and a double, following a base on balls off Perritt in the fourth for two runs in the second game and bunched three hits with a wild pitch, while Schauer was on the mound in the sixth for two more runs. McGraw used several pinch hitters, but Humphries care out safely.

Saler, who returned to the game after being out several days, wrenched his ankle running to second base in the second inning of the first game and had to retire. Score, second game:

FEDS ARE ENJOINED FROM FLIRTING WITH TEBEAU MEN. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 30.—A temporary injunction against President James A. Gilmore of the Federal league and owners of Federal league clubs, restraining them from tampering with players under contract to the Kansas City American Association team, was granted in the circuit court here today.

Arguments on a petition for a permanent injunction will be heard tomorrow. The petition declares that the Federal league is disorganizing the local association team; that the players are becoming dissatisfied and "listening to the call."

It is alleged that although the Association players are under contract, that fact is ignored in "secret persuasion." The application names fifteen players on the local Association team, which it alleges are now being persuaded to jump.

OMAHA HORSEMEN TRUE SPORTSMEN

Harness Game Here Attracts Big Men of City, as it Does in Other Parts of Country.

NO ADEQUATE FINANCIAL GAIN

The list of directors of the Omaha Driving Club which is putting Omaha on the map once more in the harness racing game is, in a way, an honor roll. These men are doing a big thing for Omaha and they are doing it for the sake of the city and for the sake of the sport itself, without expectation of anything like an adequate monetary reward.

Harness horse racing is almost the only sport involving the outlay of large amounts of money which has as deep an appeal to its followers that they lose sight of the financial motives to a large degree. Almost invariably it is the big men of a city, those who accomplish things worth while, who are interested in fine horses, and the rule has proven good in Omaha.

Fine Gentlemen and Fine Horses. "Fine gentlemen and fine horses go together" is a saying that is accurate to a remarkable degree.

Ed Peterson, president, and Otis M. Smith, secretary of the Omaha Driving Club, both big business men of Omaha, have taken the lead in the revival of the harness game here. Mr. Peterson is head of one of the largest railroad contracting firms in the country and Mr. Smith is vice president and manager of the Missouri Valley Elevator company.

The hall of trotting horse fame in Omaha would not be complete unless the name of Creighton, once on the tongues of horsemen all over the nation, were in it. The family is represented on the board of directors of the driving club by John D. Creighton.

The other directors are: Ed F. Peck, vice president and manager of the Omaha Elevator company; Everett Buckingham, general manager of the Union Stock yards; T. C. Byrne, president of the Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods company, and John A. Kuhn, department manager of the Uplike Grain company.

Outside Tennis Players Criticise Lincoln Tourney

LINCOLN, Neb., July 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Rain again interfered with the state tennis tournament, being held here, but at the business session it was decided to continue the play Saturday and Monday, to determine the championship.

Out of town delegates were out-spoken in their criticism of the tournament and said they had not received a very warm welcome to the city. Some of those who were most rabid in their criticism announced their intention of going home without playing out the tournament. But it was finally agreed to go ahead with play regardless of the number of withdrawals.

Play started again this evening after a day's interruption. Halman sprang a big surprise by defeating McProud, who had been hoped to enter the finals. Mathewson also upset the dope with his victory over Morgan.

Following are the results of this evening's play: McProud beat Edmundson, 6-0, 6-0. Proud beat Hooford, 6-1, 6-0. Weavering beat Read, 6-3, 6-3. Halman beat McProud, 5-8, 8-6, 6-5. Mathewson beat Morgan, 2-6, 6-6, 6-2.

Colonels Get Catcher. President Wathen of the Louisville Colonels, as a result of a scouting trip through the Southern league, secured the services of Catcher Francis Gribbens.
