. ROURKES RETURN HOME WEDNESDAY

Trip on Road is Disastrous, Krug's Men Losing Eight Out of Thirteen Games Played.

BAD PITCHING IS THE REASON

After a more or less disastrous trip over the western wheel of the circuit the Rourkes return home to open a stretch of twelve days on the local lot Wednesday. Des Moines will be the first attraction.

on the western swing. Two out of three were dropped at Denver, Wichita and Topeka and the four-game series at the Hunter, of coin resulted in an even break. But the Hunter, of the road did not affect the Bills, if.... Hahn, rf... Hahn, rf... turn home in fifth place, the same position they were in on their departure. To bad pitching must be ascribed the poor showing away from home. Tom Blodgett, regarded as among the best twirlers in the league, lost four games and annexed nary a victory. He was hammered hard in every game. Bob Ingersoll, the new pitcher, lost three and won one. Cecil Thompson won two games and Lou North won two and lost one. Everdon was used only as a relief hurier.

The Des Moines series, which opens Wednesday, will consist of three games played in two days. The original schedule called for games Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but it was agreed to double will come here Friday, an open date, and the Booster day game will be played with Coffey's crew. Also Lies Moines will jump for home and play its Booster day with Lincoln on Friday. Following Denver will come Topeka, Lincoln and Wichita in that order.

Heath Byford Wins

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.-Heath Byford, Chicago, upset predictions today by defeating W. M. Johnston of San Francisco in the first round of the western tennis tournament at Lake Forest.

It was a signal victory for the Illinois champion, since critics generally had predicted his defeat at the hands of the famous Canifornian and bemoaned the fact that the draw placed a local favorite against the star in the first round. Errors cost Johnston the match. He made a total of 76 to Byford's 54, though he earned 39 of his points to the Chicagoan's 20. The score was 3-6, 7-5, 6-4. G. M. Church, the Princeton player, with Johnston out, became favorite today. He had little trouble beating J. D. Bowen of Chicago, 6-1, 6-1, in the second round, to which he moved through a default. J. J. CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Newark won a hard-fought sixteen-inning game from Chicago today, 3 to 2. The visitors tied the acore in the ninth innings on three successive singles. In the sixteenth Mc-Kechnie singled and Esmond sacrificed him to second. He went to third on Househ's infield out and scored the winning run when Smith fumbled a slow roller from Scheer. Scheer stole second and reached third on Fritz s wild throw to, catch La porte at second, ending the scoring.

Except in the first and third innings, when bunched hits gave Chicago its two runs, Moseley held the home team safely throughout the long game. Prendergast gave way to a planch hitter in the ninth and Black finished the game for Chicago. Score:
