Otis M. Smith, secretary of the Omaha Driving club, issued a statement that the track will be in excellent condition and that the races positively will begin Thursday afternoon, according to program, withstanding any showers which may come today, tonight or even tomorrow

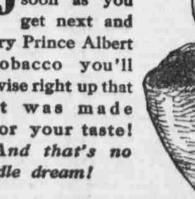

Indications were that if no more rain falls the track will be quite fast. In fact the recent rains, combined with a great amount of labor by men, teams and macan be rented quickly and cheaply by a chinery, have been actually beneficial to the track, since the soil is at its best when damp below the upper surface, owing to its sandy nature. Scores of mules were driven over the track for hours yesterday and two graders and a harrow were kept going. Also the race horses, which now number more than 100, were jogged over the oval,
