By MELLIFICIA. Tuesday, August 3, 1915.

ALTHOUGH Omaha society women are more or less scattered while away on vacations, they get together and entertain whenever the opportunity presents itself.

It happens that Mrs. Edgar Morsman, jr., and children, are spending the summer among the clouds at Long's Peak Inn, Colorado, while Miss Millard and Miss Helen Millard have been stopping near by in Estes Park.

Last week Mrs. Morsman entertained the Misses Millard at dinner at the Inn and the latter, visiting Omahans there, met Enos Mills, the naturalist, author and lecturer, who has frequently been entertained in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barlow and their son, Milton, jr., have joined this group of sojourners at Long's Peak. They write they are always near roaring log fires and enjoying an occasional snow storm. Not much advantage, however, over the stay-at-homes of this year.

At the Brandeis Theater.

Many large theater parties attend the performances of the Edward Lynch players at the Brandeis theater each week, and this is the case especially at the matinees, when large numbers of the younger set reserve large line parties as early as two weeks in advance. Twenty of the young ladies employed in the Pompeian room of the Brandeis stores attended the Monday night performance in a body, and T. M. Thompson had a line party of seven. Among those who will give theater parties this week are: Mrs. Kinsler, Miss Ray Brown, Mrs. Gaines, Mrs. A. B. Cook, E. E. Zimmerman, D. J. O'Brien, W. E. Porter, Mrs. Overmyer, Mrs. Harmon, M. Donahue, Miss Gertrude Southard, C. L. Benner.

Mrs. C. H. Newell will entertain eight guests at the Thursday matinee. Miss Ruth Beatty will have fifteen and Mrs. Shringler, Ruth Thompson and Virginia Lowe will have parties of four. Miss G. Wright and Miss Lola Stein will each entertain large parties at the Saturday matinee.

At the Field Club.

Miss Florence Riley entertained at a beautifully appointed luncheon today at the Field club in honor of Miss Mary Butler of St. Louis, the guest of Mrs. Wagoner. The table was decorated with strands of blue and white ribbons and a large mound of Killarney roses was used as the centerpiece. The guests were all pupils of St. Mary's at Notre Dame, Ind., and included:

- Misses—Mary Butler of St. Louis, Katherine Keelins of Council Bluffs, Annie Keelins of Council Bluffs, Theda Hughes, Marjorie Barrett, Ruth Beatty.
- Misses—Mary Deur of St. Louis, Katherine Deur of Missouri Valley, Ruth Kinsler, Carita O'Brien, Irene McConnell, Nell Beatty.

Mrs. C. J. Baird gave a luncheon of six covers today at the Field club, complimentary to Miss Brownlee, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Brownlee.

At Happy Hollow Club.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weller will entertain at dinner this evening at the Happy Hollow club. Their guests will be: Messrs. and Mesdames—F. W. Clarke, A. W. Gordon, Mrs. Ralph Breckneridge, Miss Katherine Davenport, Warren Breckenridge, Clifford Weller, ridge.

Pleasures Past.

A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Helen Fales, who leaves soon to spend six weeks at Bridgeport, Neb. The affair was given at the home of Mr. Roy Greening and fourteen guests were present. Flags and garden flowers were used in the decorations.

At the Country Club.

Mr. Glenn Wharton will give a dinner of twenty covers this evening at the Country club. His guests will be the traveling salesmen of the business house.

Outdoor Affair Postponed.

The outdoor affair of the George A. Custer Woman's Relief corps, which was announced to be held Wednesday evening at the home of M. Arthur Gwynne in Florence, has been postponed until more favorable weather.

On the Calendar.

Miss Ruth Beatty will give a theater party Thursday afternoon at the Brandeis, in honor of Miss Mary Butler of St. Louis.

The ladies of the Columbian circle will entertain at their hall at Twenty-second and Locust streets, on Wednesday afternoon at 7:30.

News of the Wayfarers.

Mrs. E. D. Harris, Mrs. George M. Cooper and daughter, Mildred; Miss Martha Hains and Miss E. Homstrom are sojourning at Estes Park, Colo.

Return from Madison Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Wright have returned from a two weeks' stay at Madison Lake, Minn. Mr. Wright holds the record for catching the largest bass of the season. Others returning from Madison Lake recently are Mrs. A. W. Jeffery, Albert Jeffery and Janet Jeffery, Mrs. H. J. Root and Cullen Root.

Personal Mention.

been visiting Dr. Bacon's mother and his sister, Mrs. Harry Ayer, in Hildesford Me. They will return home the last of the week. They will be accompanied by Dr.

MAKES EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS IN HIS STORE.

HERBERT S. ARNSTEIN.

The big store of the Guarantee Clothing company, 1519 to 1521 Douglas street, is being completely remodeled on a scale that will make it one of the most attractive stores of its kind in the city.

An arcade front is being installed of the latest design. This type of front consists of very wide entrance and great depth from the street line to the door. An extra showcase is built in the wide entrance, thus providing in effect two entrances from the street, both leading back to the one door into the store.

Inside, the store is also being re-decorated throughout. A big balcony is being constructed at the rear. On this will be the cashier's office. A complete cash and bundle carrier system will be installed, leading from all parts of the store to the cashier's balcony.

The entire ceiling and walls of the store are being covered with ornamental pressed metal and when this is painted and decorated the effect will be a wonderful improvement.

"We are making these extensive improvements because the increase in business demands it," said Herbert S. Arnstein, proprietor. "We have been in business in Omaha for twenty-nine years, fifteen years of that time in this location."

west of Elmwood park, when they met two young girls who were taking their young women asked to be taken to their homes in South Omaha.

According to the girls' story, the letter says, they went motorcycling with two men who became angry with them and left them out in the country.

GIRLS ASSAULTED ON AN AUTO RIDE

Two Eighteen-Year-Old Lads Had Stolen Machine and Asked the Girls to Ride.

BOTH HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED

Phillip Silkett, 2404 Indiana Avenue, and Montey Archer, 1821 North Twenty-second street, are being held on a charge of having taken two 15-year-old girls out in an auto, which they had stolen, and assaulting them. The boys are each 18 years old. The girls notified the police Sunday about the matter, since which time a number of special officers have been on the trail of the lads. They were caught Monday night by Special Officer Stevens of the American District Telegraph company, and Officer Demato, while with Elmer Smith, 519 Burt street, and Edward Irvine, 2097 Clark street, in front of the Brandeis theater, where they made an attempt to steal another machine.

Had a Stolen Auto.

The story, as given out by the juvenile authorities, is that the two first named boys had stolen a machine, and were riding in it Saturday evening. They passed the two girls on the street and waved to them. They then stopped and spoke to the girls, suggesting that they ride around the block. The boys occupied the front seat and the girls were in the rear. Having rounded the block they suggested that they continue the ride. They rode out into the country, and during the ride one of the boys changed from the front seat to the tonneau and one of the girls moved into the front seat.

While in Fontenelle park the boys attacked the girls, and although they fought hard they were overpowered.

Faced One Girl's Home.

The boys then refused to allow the girls to get out, and rode on out north, passing the home of one of the girls on the way. By this time it was well past midnight, but they refused still to allow the girls to get out, and later attacked them again.

About 4 o'clock they let the girls out of the machine in Florence and left them. The girls went to the home of a friend in Florence and told their story. The father of the friend immediately told the police and the girls were taken home. As a result of the occurrence both girls were seriously ill for some time, but were at police headquarters yesterday and positively identified the two boys.

ALLEN TO TAKE A TRIP TO SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

T. S. Allen, who came up from Lincoln and was sworn in as United States attorney, succeeding Frank S. Howell, will start his administration with a trip to California. He expects to leave within a week and will be gone for several weeks.

Julius Orkin's Enlarging Sale Commences Wednesday, Aug. 4th

You Know the Location:
1510 Douglas Street

Julius Orkin will shortly remodel and enlarge his popular women's appareling establishment. Entire interior of the building to be wrecked! New floors, new window frontage and a gain of thousands of feet of floor space will result and Omaha women will then have a suit store to set the pace for years to come.

We don't expect women to buy clothes while carpenters are hammering; that's why EVERY garment here MUST be sold BEFORE the carpenters come. Every garment in the store must go out in a hurry, at just about your own prices. 'Twill soon be a NEW store—with a NEW stock! This sale will be the saving event of the past decade to all Omaha women!

Women's and Misses' Suits, Dresses, Coats, Skirts, Waists, Etc., Must Sell BEFORE the Carpenters Come---Even Though They Bring but a Fraction of the Original Worth

The words "Bargain," "Sacrifice" and "Value" seem insufficient in this case. The desire to MOVE this stock in as sincere as the remodeling and expansion are certain. Julius Orkin prices even in the regular way are admittedly "popular"—what, then, are they NOW with such reductions as THESE?
