GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Receipts Light, with Very Little Trading and No Quotations Given Out on Wheat.

LOOK FOR LOW GRADE GRAINS

OMAHA, Aug. 4, 1918. The receipts were dgnt today and there was very intile tracing carried on. There was no assumed for wheat and there were no questions given out on that market. There was a little demand for corn, but this was well taken care of by the light receipts. The corn market was quoted by ingher to be lower.

Although the demand for only was slow, the receipts were exceptionally light, an dthis helped boost the market a cent higher.

Some of the grain traders think there will be a large quantity of low grade argely as a weather proposition for the present. Most of the traders are bearish and say there is plenty of time for the crop conditions to improve.

Clearances were: Wheat and flour equal to $21,000 bu.; corn, 25,000 bu.; cats, none.

Liverpool closed with spot wheat un-changed and corn ld higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 723,000 bu.
and shipments 746,000 bu. against re-ceipts of 3,132,000 bu. and shipments of 174,000 bu. last year.

Primary corn receipts were 406,000 bu.
and shipments 278,000 bu., against receipts of 482,000 bu. and shipments of 430,000 bu. last year.

Primary oats receipts were 251,000 bu. and shipment 890,000 bu., against receipts of 2,170,000 bu., and shipments of 875,000 bu.

CATTLE—Only 130 cars of cattle were reported at this point, making the total for the three days this week 10,611 head. Some other market points were heavily supplied and advices from Chicago were very unfavorable to the selling interests. Still owing to a very good local demand and to the light receipts market prices were not only well maintained, but in some cases showed improvement.

Beef steers of good to choice quality were steady to strong, the best yearlings selling at $8.50, with heavy yearlings at $9.75. Common to medium grades were generally steady, although undesirable kinds were slow sellers the same as on most days.
