ne years ago Rev. Mr. Cherry conceived the idea of spending his annual vacations climbing mountains. He went to Colorado and scaled Pike's peak. He liked the exercise and the trail so much that he tried it again the following year.
Since then it has become an annual pastime during his vacations. Up to date Rev. Mr. Cherry has elimbed Pike's peak thirty-six times, going every known trail.
He always walks both up and down the mountain and upon one or two occamountain and upon one or two occasions has made two round trips in one
