GAME SPOILED BY UMP BAITING

Will wonders never cease?

They never will.

The Rourkes yesterday copped an extra-inning game.

It took just twelve innings for Marty Krug's tribe to defeat the Links from Lincoln, but they did, and thus made it three victories out of the last fifteen games played. The score was 2 to 1. games played. The score was 2 to 1. Both of the Omaha runs were earned.

The first run came in the opening frame when Breen singled, stole second and scored on Cyrus Forsythe's knock to left. The winning count was registered in the twelfth when Smith doubled to left and came romping joyously home when Dick Breen combed a single to center, and the second a pitchers' battle. Score, first game:

Marty accepted thirteen chances at short without a muss and swiped two bases. Hunter, c. Earl Smith stole two bases, too, and Cy Forsythe, who is a cripple, copped one. Some base stealing.

The Links scored their one run in the ninth on an error by Schliebner and hits of the company of without a muss and swiped two bases.

Link Athletes Crabbed.

Link Athletes Crabbed.

The Lincoln athletes tried to make a joke out of the game by constant crabbing with Umpire Van Sickle. Van Sickle is without a doubt the cream of the league's umpiring staff, but is in bad with the club owners because he has nerve enough to fire any obstreperous athlete out of the park. In fact, at the recent St. Joseph meeting the magnates instructed O'Neill to bounce among the structure of the park of the structure of the struct recent St. Joseph meeting the magnates instructed O'Neill to bounce, among others, Van Sickle, but the Western loop prexie has so far wisely refrained.

The Lincoln players evidently thought they were playing in a lot behind some gas works yesterday. They crabbed and fussed and stopped the game by their fussed and stopped the game by their states of the seven and one-third in lings. Struck out: By Gilligan, 2; by Cilligan, 2; by Riley, 5. Van Sickle finally ordered Manager Mc Ta'lion, ss. Intyre, Red Whalen and Harry Williams Britton, out of the park and chased Secretary as he was an extra player. Van Sickle also chased Cecil Thompson of the Rourkes, who threw in his oar. An offi-cer was called to show Williams the Bills, if, gate. As a result the game dragged and Hahn, rf. Jones, 1b. was tiresome. But for the continual wrangling, for which there was absolutely no occasion, it would have been a mighty good game of ball.
