THE inevitable question, "Are suffragists good housewives?" has been solved today, and the answer is that they are. Demonstration of the fact was made this afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. King, in Benson, when the local suffragists gave a picnic.

Their hosts, Mrs. King, rose early this morning, milked two perfectly esthetic cows, made the butter from said cows for the picnic sandwiches with her very own hands and later served buttermilk for the surprise of her guests.

Could anything be more domesticated than this? After such demonstration of wifely and homey devotion the statement that suffragists are not good housekeepers belongs to the dead grey past.

Mrs. King is treasurer of the Douglas County Suffrage organization, president of the local Federation of Mothers' Clubs and active in woman's club work.

Western Travelers.

Mr. John Lee Webster will leave Saturday for a trip through California.

Plan Big Doings for Market Week Festivities Here

From Manawa to Ak-Sar-Ton den, from style show to tango and fox trot—in brief is the program of entertainment for the merchants of Omaha's trade territory who will be in Omaha by thousands the week beginning August 30 for the big Merchants' Market Week festivities.

Right off the bat Monday evening, August 30 the men of the visiting merchants are to be hosted to Ak-Sar-Ton den and there treated to the best that the den offers to anyone.

On Tuesday afternoon and evening the visitors are to be taken to Lake Manawa. A buffet supper is to be served and interesting athletic events are to be staged. Wednesday night, September 1, is to be the big style show. Hitherto these style shows have been held at the Commercial club in the big dining room. They have grown too large for that, however, and this year the style show is to be given at the Auditorium. Admission will be by ticket. A dance will follow.

Thursday night there is to be a dinner and dance at the Field club.

What About Your Future?
WHY NOT ENGAGE IN AN HONORABLE AND LUCRATIVE PROFESSION AND ONE OF HELPFULNESS?
An exceptional opportunity is offered respectable and earnest men and women who possess the ambition to lead lives at once useful and profitable. What we have to offer answers affirmatively the two vital questions asked by high-minded persons in seeking a life occupation—"First, Will it benefit mankind?" and second, "Will it benefit me?"

SERVICE GOOD WORK

These are the few principles upon which we are building a reputation as photo engravers. Any one who places orders for printing knows the value of properly selected plates. They also know the convenience of being in position to secure engraving work when they need it.

We have helped others in preparing their copy as well as supplying a complete line of plates. Above all, we give service cheerfully and promptly.
