Poisoning Old Woman

JACKSON, Kr., Aug. 27 .- The hearing of the case of Mrs. Mamle Hamlin, who claims to be the daughter-in-law of former Governor H. G. Hamilto of Illinois. and who is charged in an indictment found by the Breathitt county grand jury yesterday with having polsoned Mrs. Poliy Davis, a wealthy widow of this county, was set for hearing next Monday.

Mrs. Davis died recently under peculiar circumstances and is alleged to have told Mrs. Hamilin, who was closely associated with her at the time, that her property was not to be appropriated by relatives, but that she was making her will, leaving ber property to clearity. Mrs. Hamlin, besides being indicted on the charge of murder, also was indicted on a charge of having forged Mrs. Davis' name to a will which purported to leave the dead woman's property to her.

Mrs. Ciara Meyers of Charleston, W. Va., is also being held by the grand jury tie until the last half, when a long drive in connection with the case.

of Illinois, explained that her husband, Burt Hamlin, had been the son of H. G. Burt Hamilin, had been the son of H. G. Hamilin, former attorney general of lill-nois, who at one time had been act-ing governor of the state. Mrs. Hamilin denies the charges.
