Boston Nationals Capture Both Ends of Double-Header from Cincinnati.

NEFF ALLOWS BUT FOUR HITS

In the second game Hughes gave only three hits and one base on balls. Compton, the Braves' new outfielder, made a good showing in the second game, getting three hits and scoring both of Boston's runs. Score, first game:

BOARD IS AGAINST SUNDAY IN SCHOOLS

Majority of Members Do Not Favor Allowing Evangelist to Speak Before Students.

WILL COME UP AT NEXT MEET

Members of the Board of Education are being thrust against the proposition of whether permission should be granted to the Billy Sunday committee to carry the evangelist's campaign into the public school buildings.

A formal communication from Rev. Titus Lowe to the teachers' committee states that Rev. W. H. Sunday and Homer Rodeheaver would like to speak to the pupils of the eighth grades and of the high schools. Members of the committee looked at each other with unwonted seriousness when the matter was broached. The committee deferred action. The question will be taken up by the entire school board.
