THREATS AGAINST OWN FATHER

Mystery surrounding the numer ous incendiary fires in the building. of the Iowa Bell Telephone company at Council Bluffs, and threats against the lives of those at the head of the corporation was cleared last night. by the confession of 15-year-old Adolph Elgan, son of Police Commissioner Frank Elgan, who is also one of the chief officers of the telephone company of the lows city.

For almost a week Council Bluin has been in a furore of excitemen. because of attempts of an incendiary to set fire to the buildings, and mysterious messages threatening to murder the different men in control of the plant

Many Threats Made.

Already several thousands of dollars' worth of damage has been done to the property of the company. Frank Elgan, as district superintendent had been warned several times that he was to be murdered. Other officials re-ceived word that the telephone company buildings were to be blown up.

Yesterday it was discovered that an at tempt had been made to burn the Elgan home, and the excitement reached a high pitch.

Mothers of girls working as operators refused to permit their daughters to leave ome, and every employe and friend of those connected with the telephone com pany became uneasy.

Detectives working on the case aged to obtain a clue that directed surpicton against young Elgan, and he was watched. The confession resulted. His
