Joe Janda Victim of Gunshots Fired Near Childs Point

Joe Janda, 182 South Eighteenth street, South Side, was found dead yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock on a wooded hillside near Childs Point, several miles below the south city limits. The man had been killed with a shotgun by an unidentified assailant while picking grapes. Police believe that a farmer in the district where the man was trespassing fired the shot, but as yet have no clue.

In company with seven or eight friends among whom was John Kucerek, living at Eighteenth and Q streets, Janda had on a wild grape hunt, starting early Sunday morning. Becoming lost to his friends, they returned home late in the morning thinking that he had already preceded them. His absence was discovered and after a fruitless all-night wait for his return a search was organized yesterday afternoon which led to the discovery of the body late in the day.

Cries for help followed by three rapidly succeeding shotgun shots were heard by Kucerek, an intimate friend of the murdered man, shortly after their parting while on the grape hunt. At the time the incident caused little anxiety for his friend's safety, but now Kucerek believes that Janda was probably being attacked at that time.

Janda is survived by a widow and one child by the mother's first husband. He was 26 years of age and was only recently married. Sheriff Hutter of Sarpy county took charge of the case

Friend Kills Friend as Result of Quarrel on South Side Street

John C. Carroll, living at Twenty-fifth and Q streets, was cut to death yesterday afternoon at 5:40 o'clock before a grocery store at Twenty-seventh and Q streets by his intimate friend and roomquarrel of long standing, starting while the two men lived in Chicago. A small jack knife was the weapon used. Three deep wounds, fully a foot long, severed the heart, kidneys and jugular vein, causing a most instant death. Detectives Gillen and Allen arrested Dwyer a few moments after the murder. The latter made no attempt to escape.

Carroll and Dwyer have lived for twenty-five years together, working as butchers in packing houses of Chicago, Kansas City and Omaha during that time. A quarrel over some personal prejudice threatened to separate the two some months ago in Chicago and police believe that the same quarrel was renewed.

Carroll has relatives in Chicago, a sister, Mrs. Mary Jenkins, living at Thirtysixth and Long John street, and a brother, Larry Carroll, who is either a policeman or a fireman of Chicago. Both had been roommates at an address given as 2112 West Thirty-fifth street, Chicago. Carroll was unmarried and appeared about 35 or 40 years of age.
