GIRL SENSATION IN

GOLF-Miss Alexa Sterling, the 17-year-old southern woman golf champion,

who proved to be the sensation in the national women's tournament at Chicago.

ERE is a new fad, girls, that goes one better to carrying a cane for the sake of "having something in the hand." On the wrist now, milady wears a small willow bird cage, and in it lives a bird.

If you follow the fad, you will look very young and whimsical as you appear at afternoon and morning fetes with this little pet tied to your wrist. He, too, enjoys his "job" no less that than the wearer, and sometimes justifies himself by setting up a private musicale of his own.

One of our very-up-to-the-minute shops introduced them this week but the fad is too new to warrant report as to its popularity. Essentially it will be a rather restricted one, for to carry it with favor one must be possessed of the naive insouciance we read about; however, we have a few, and the wonder is who will be the first to launch the fad in Omaha.

Mrs. J. H. Conrad entertained at luncheon today at the Field club in honor of her mother, Mrs. Weeks of Hastings. A mound of crimson asters decorated the table and covers were placed for:

Mesdames— Mesdames—J. E. White, C. E. Balbach, E. C. Brunner, C. O. Talmadge, W. A. Pixley, John W. Parish, W. S. Wiley.

Pearl Chamberlain, Mrs. C. B. Laver had thirteen guests at luncheon today at the Field club.

Wedding Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Constantine Joseph Smyth issued cards yesterday for the wedding of their daughter, Rose Clare, and Mr. Clarence Sibbernsen. The ceremony will be performed on Thursday evening, September 30, at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents on North Thirtyeighth stret. A reception will follow the The young couple will be at home after January 1, at 112 South Fifty-first street.

At Happy Hollow Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hamlin will entertain eight guests at dinner this evening at the Happy Hollow club; W. M. Rain-bolt will have sixteen; E. B. Williams, two; B. H. Dunham, two.

Mrs. J. L. Weaver will entertain twelve guests at luncheon Thursday at the Happy Hollow club and Mrs. J. W. Hamwill have six guests.

On the Calendar.

The ladies of the South Side Progressive Card club will entertain at their hall, Fourteenth and Castellar streets, Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Mesdames C. B. Bolan, Thomas Burns, G. Cooney, T. Cogan and J. A. Connelly will be the hostcasse of the evening. The Columbian Circle will entertain on Wednesday afternoon at their hall on Twenty-second and Locust streets at 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. Rose Coulgon and Mrs. H. Stigenescinner will have charge of the Children's Party.

Mrs. W. J. Moring entertained at a children's party Monday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock, in honor of her daughter, Lera Elizabeth. The afternoon was spent in games and music. Luncheon was served from two long tables, which were prettily decorated with a variety of garden flowers. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Florence Brand and Mrs. James McClain and the guests included:

Governor Morehead has appointed 600 delegates from Nebraska, and other states have appointed their delegates as Island, Massachusetts and Washington. well. Wisconsin has named forty-seven and Town has a large list.

The eastern states are taking particular interest in the affair, and are sure to be on hand with able representations, while hardly a state in the union will neglect to send some one to represent

A strong program is being planned and many prominent men have already consented to speak. Governor Morehead will appear on the first day of the meeting and deliver an address of welcome. Several prominent officials from Ne-brasks have already consented to speak These include Senators Hitchcock and Norris, and Representatives Lobeck, Reaves, Stevens, S.oan and Kinkaid, H.n. A. El. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education of Boston, will be here for a day, and will address the assembly. Hon. A. P. Sandles of Columbus, O., chairman of the Ohio agricultural commission, has accepted an invitation to come and address the convention. Charles Dt.l.n. managing editor of Capper's farm papers published in Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska, will talk, Dr. T. A. Stockbridge, a prominent agri ultui t of Atlanta, Ga., and J. J. Joiliffe of Des Moines, have already signified their willingness to speak.

Experts will discuss almost every phase of farm work, and will explain the why and wherefore of success and failure in agriculture. Markets, prices, freight rates and everything that in any way offects the farmer, will be dis ussed, and enclusions drawn, the idea of the convention being to better conditions for the farmer, and through the farmer for every-

COPPERS FOOL LOOKOUT AND FIND GAMBLING GAME

John Shiaus, 507 South Thirteenth street, arrested on a charge of allowing gamtling in his establishment, was fined $36 and costs in police court. Two inmates were fined $10 and costs each, According to the moral squad they had to use every trick of the trade to gain admittance to the place, as the system of watching for "coppera" was a gem of efficiency.

freezing. The mercury registered 20 de-grees above zero at Dead rood, S. D., and Julius Orkin cannot return these goods to the manufacturer because they were made up on special orders given in good eral rain, the precipitation ranging from faith; he cannot display them properly in a store that resounds with carpenters. hammers; he cannot reserve them for a month, for the styles are apt to be too old by that time.

There is only one solution and Julius Orkin is making the most of it. He is selling all these constantly arriving Fall garments at sensationally reduced prices; he is selling them direct from the packages in which they were shipped for want of a better place in which to show them. His discomfiture is your gain: if you have in mind a Fall garment of any kind now is the time and this is the place to buy.

Julius Orkin has named his hurried merchandising move the "Out From Under" Sale—so named because he is in peck of difficulties and is "Getting Out From Under" them.

Here follows an idea of the reductions you cannot resist them if at all interested The reductions are genuine reductions. The items below include the price the goods would have brought had the store been in proper condition to house the stock; then you will note the seiling prices, that mean such a series of savings to you. Forget the pretty appointments that ought to surround the garmentsthink only of the pretty garments and low prices.

Fall Suits that would sell at $29.50 are here during the "Out From Under Sale" Fall Coats that should bring $19.50 are offered you at only $1.65. Fall Dresses that are worth $19.50 in every way are yours now for only $11.65. Fall Skirts that should be bringing $7.50 are to be had at only $3.50. Pall Waists that should sell at $1.50 and $1.56 are meeting with instant sale
