

DESCRIBES LONDON ATTACK FROM SKY

Observer Tells of Losses of Life and Injuries Caused by Bombs

SOME ARE KILLED OUTRIGHT

LONDON, Sept. 18.—An official description of some of the effects of the last Zeppelin raid upon the London district, written by an observer at the request of the home secretary, Sir John Simon, and issued tonight for publication follows:

"Here are a few pictures of the effects accomplished by the officers and crew of the last air ship which visited the London district. Somewhere in London there is a little street with a public house at the corner.

"Outside it Wednesday evening, after the place was closed, a man and a woman stood talking. While the woman went away to buy supper, the man waited for her and there fell at his feet the first explosive bombs.

"Killed Man Outright. They killed the man outright and blew pieces of the paving stones onto surrounding roofs. They blew in the front of the public house, reducing the stock to a mass of broken glass. On the floor above they twisted an iron bedstead, injuring a woman who was sleeping there and reduced what had been the carefully kept living rooms of a small family to a mass of soot, dust, plaster and broken glass.

"In another part of the area over which the airship passed there is a big block of workmen's dwellings which are crowded day and night with children. A bomb dropped on the roof.

"Directly under the roof was a little flat in which four children had their sleeping quarters. After being put to bed two of them got up secretly to make tea in an adjoining room.

"The bed they left now is a mass of charred and blackened sheets, with the mattress torn to pieces. They escaped by a miracle, but in a small bedroom adjoining the other two children were instantly killed.

"Turn Horses Loose. At another place an incendiary bomb dropped through the roof of a stable and fired a motor car into which it fell. The stableman and his wife, in spite of the fire which immediately became serious turned loose eleven horses which were in the stable. A watch dog also was rescued, as was a caged bird kept on the first floor above the fire, although while bringing it down stairs the stableman's wife was blown off her feet by the explosion of a bomb in a neighboring court yard.

"The only casualty in this case was a bantam rooster. Somewhere in London's suburbs there is a little block of houses almost by itself, divided into small flats. On the ground floor there was sleeping a widow, her 18-year-old daughter and a young man lodger.

Car Stolen While Iowa People Shop

Less than five minutes after Mr. and Mrs. H. Ploghoff and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Carson, Elliott, Ia., had left their Ford car at Fifteenth and Douglas streets yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to make a short shopping tour, the automobile was stolen by unidentified parties.

DISPUTE WHETHER LOAN IS FOR SHELLS

Anglo-French Commission and Some American Bankers Insist It Cover War Supplies.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The Anglo-French financial commission, who are seeking to establish a mammoth credit loan here, and American financiers, who expect to supply the money, were reported to be at odds tonight over the burning question of including munitions of war among exports to be paid for by the proceeds of the loan.

On several details of the loan, the commission and bankers have agreed, but on this major question, it was said, their views are diametrically opposed.

Other Financiers Saying No. NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The Anglo-French financial commission, who are seeking to establish a mammoth credit loan here, and American financiers, who expect to supply the money, were reported to be at odds tonight over the burning question of including munitions of war among exports to be paid for by the proceeds of the loan.

The situation has not reached the acute stages of a deadlock nor anything approaching it, but the line of demarcation is clear and well defined. Many hours, it became known tonight, have been passed in discussing this single issue and many more, it was thought, would follow in similar discussion before it is decided.

A minor point of variance between the commission and some American bankers is the role that Russia is playing in the participation of the loan. The commission, although acting officially only for Great Britain and France, is popularly believed to contemplate including Russia in its plans, too.

Some U. S. Bankers Say Yes. Some American bankers think so, too, but a great many are said to be of the opinion that the loan should cover only commodity exports, such as wheat, cotton and manufactured products and that another method must be found to pay for munitions of war, even if this method involves the shipment of huge stocks of gold across the Atlantic to the United States.

Want to Deal with Russia. But some American bankers want to deal direct with Russia and object, it is reported, to having it obtain money in this country through England and France.

A third point of disagreement, subordinate to either of the others, concerns the rate of interest. If the commission's callers have correctly reflected its views in their talks with newspaper men, Great Britain and France are emphatic in their assertion that the proposed bonds shall not pay more than 5 per cent interest and there will be no underwriting of the issue.

As to this proposal, it is understood, the American bankers generally have been won over. Here and there, however, a voice of dissent is heard. In some quarters a return of one-half of 1 per cent to the bankers is regarded as no more than due.

GERARD CALLS ON MINISTER JAGOW

Visit Presumably Made in Connection with Situation Regarding Sinking of Arabic.

FEELING HOPEFUL IN BERLIN

BERLIN, (Via London), Sept. 18.—James W. Gerard, the American ambassador to Germany, today at noon called on Dr. Gottlieb von Jagow, foreign minister, presumably in connection with the situation surrounding the sinking of the White Star line steamer, Arabic, by a German submarine and the opening of negotiations on the submarine problem.

Nothing can be learned here which goes to confirm the statement made in Washington dispatches that it was the intention to open conversations between the two countries on the submarine situation, but officials assume that the news is correct and express the belief that the difficulties between the United States and Germany would be on a better way to settlement by such a method.

Differences in viewpoints, which are only stiffened when laid down in formal notes, can, it is generally believed, by the officials, be more easily adjusted in informal conversations and all the more so, they say, because the fundamental differences of policy have largely disappeared under the new instructions regarding attacks on passenger steamers.

ENGLISH CABINET CRISIS IS AT HAND

Advocates of Draft Threaten to Resign Unless Asquith, Grey and Kitchener Come Over.

BITTER OPPOSITION TO POLICY

LONDON, Sept. 18.—England is absorbed in the rumored cabinet crisis over the question of conscription, to which it is reported David Lloyd George and Winston Spencer Churchill had been converted. Lords Curzon and Lansdowne, Andrew Bonar Law, Walter Hume Long, J. Austen Chamberlain, the Earl of Selborne, and Sir Edward Carson, the conscriptionist members are said to be threatening to resign unless Premier Asquith, First Lord of the Admiralty Balfour, Sir Edward Grey, Lord Kitchener, and other cabinet members adopt their chosen policy.

Lacking positive statements from Premier Asquith and Lord Kitchener, that compulsory service is necessary for the safety of the country, the system is likely to find little support in the present Parliament with the radicals, laborites, and nationalists opposed to it.

NETELGH WOMAN'S SPINE INJURED BY MOTOR

NETELGH, Neb., Sept. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. William Doehse was run down by an automobile here today and her spine was dislocated. She will be taken to an Omaha hospital for treatment.

The streets were crowded with people in for the county fair, and she was crossing the street with her baby in her arms and became confused. As the machine struck her, she had presence of mind enough to throw her baby in the clear, but the machine passed over her body before it could be stopped.

THURSTON FAIR TO WAIT KING CORN'S PLEASURE

WALTHILL, Neb., Sept. 18.—(Special.)—The Thurston county fair, which was to have been held here this week, has been postponed by order of the board of directors until the first week in October. The action was taken because of the unfavorable season delaying the maturing of the corn crop several weeks so that very little corn in the county was advanced enough for exhibition.

C. G. Campbell, who is in charge of the department, declared that he did not know of a single farmer in this community who was planning to make an exhibit. Six large sample ears of yellow corn brought to town yesterday by J. R. Langford, a well known farmer and livestock man living near Walthill, were just beginning to harden. Mr. Langford says that he picked them from a field of eighty acres on a new soil, growing its first crop, and the field is as far advanced as any he knows of. It will take two full weeks of favorable weather to mature it past danger from frost. Fifty per cent of the corn in the county will mature properly with a month of good weather.

WILSON SPEAKS WORD TO "OPINION MOULDERS"

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 18.—A letter from President Wilson was read before the midsummer meeting of the Colorado Editorial association, which today began a two days' session here. The letter said in part: "May I not express my very great interest in the summer meeting of the Colorado Editorial association? This is a time at which the editors of the country are, it seems to me, under the compulsion of a very high duty, the duty of guiding the opinion of the nation, along the ways of sobriety and just thinking and self-possessed purpose."
