NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Trading Swelled by Speculation in So-Called War Specialties.

MORE THAN MILLION SHARES

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Further extravagant speculation in specialties, chiefly those issues known as war shares, helped to swell today's trading to the very large total of 1,138,000 shares. Of this amount, United States Steel and Westinghouse Electric alone contributed one-third, Steel incidentally advancing 2¾ to 78¾, its highest price since 1912. Westinghouse made a maximum gain of 1¾ at 124¼, and closed at 120⅝, losing a considerable part of the rise shortly before it became known that the quarterly dividend had been increased from 1 to 1½ per cent.

Other very prominent features were American Car and Foundry, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, American Smelting, American Petroleum and automobile issues. New high prices were recorded by Bethlehem Steel, which rose 4⅜ to 359; Crucible Steel preferred, ⅝ to 107¾; Maxwell Motors, common, 2¼ to 57⅛, the first preferred 1¾ to 94⅜, the second preferred 5¾ to 49¾; Studebaker, 5 to 145; Continental Can, 3¾ to 83⅝; Texas Company, 4 to 157½, and American Woolen, 7⅝ to 65⅝.

General Motors, whose meteoric rise of recent days made it the most conspicuous of specialties, opened at 345, an overnight gain of 22 points, fell off 10, and closed at 340. Other special stocks of no particular designation rose 2 to 4 points.

In the railway division, Reading, Erie first preferred, Canadian Pacific, "Soo" preferred, Southern Railway preferred and Atlantic Coast Line improved their positions 1 to 2 points, but the inquiry for investment issues was relatively narrow. More foreign selling of American railway issues was reported from London, where the international list was low, from 1 to almost 3 points.

United States Steel's greater strength probably had its origin in the reports of the trade journals, which state, in effect, that export business now constitutes the dominant factor of that industry; that it was the demand from the foreign sources rather than home inquiry that caused the advances in various manufactured specialties.

Exchange markets continue to wait on the outcome of the loan negotiations, no changes of note being shown by today's rates. Sterling was a trifle steadier than continental remittances.

Bonds were firm, despite renewal of foreign selling. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,880,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.
