RED SOX RUSH TO VICTORY IN EIGHTH

Bostons Toward End of Game Bring in Tieing and Winning Runs.

FOSTER HOLDS THE BROWNS

BOSTON, Sept. 25.-It was not until the eighth inning that the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 3 victors over St. Louis today, scored the tying any winning runs. Then two scratch bits, a sacrifice, Severid's error in falling to catch a third strike and the error of Agnew, his successor, in dropping Walker's perfect throw, gave Boston two runs. Severid was ordered from the game for arguments

Foster held St. Louis to four hits, one of which, a double by Lavan, turned wo previous passes into runs in the sixth

MERKLE NOW ONE OF BEST FIRST SACKERS IN GAME

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 .- No longer to "Fred" Merkle referred to as base ball's greatest "bonehead." He never deserved such a title, but one excusable lapse of which he was guilty during his early days, with the Giants resulted in the New York outfit losing a pennant, or so it was said. For years thereafter he seldom was spoken of except in terms of ridicule, and the wonder of it all is that he not only managed to live down the nickname forced upan him but gradually won over by hard work and conscientious effort those who were loudest in their censure Today he is one of the best first basemen in base tall; is one of the leading batters in the National league and to on of the Giants' most dependable players.
