RURAL SCHOOLS UP FOR DISCUSSIONS

Farmers' National Congress to Devote Large Part of Time to Baffling Problem.

THREE SENATORS TO SPEAK

Rural school problems are to occupy a large place in the discussions to be held at the convention of the thirty-fifth annual session of the Farmers' National Congress of Omaha, September 28 to October 1. Present indications are that of the three days' sessions the entire day Wednesday will be consumed by arguments and discussion on the subject of how the rural school facilities can best be improved.

On Wednesday morning the session is to be opened by a series of discussions on the subject. Prominent educators from Nebraska and other states are scheduled to talk, and at 11 o'clock the subject is to be thrown open to general discussion.
Immediately after the introduction of some resolutions in the afternoon, the rural school subject is to be again reopened. The officers of the association are bound this long standing question of rural schools shall have a fair chance, and that something definite in the way of a program shall come of the meeting.
Three United States senators and four congressmen are listed on the program for discussions on various topics.

Norris to Speak.
Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska is to speak Thursday morning on the subject of rural credits. Senator Albert B.
Channing of Des Moines is to appear immediately after Mr. Norris in an address, which will probably also be on the subject of rural credits. Senator G. M.
Hitchcock of Nebraska is to speak Friday afternoon on "The Farmers' Interest in Our Foreign Relations." Congressman C. O. Lebeck is to deliver an address on Tuesday afternoon. Congressman Charles H. Sloan of Nebraska is to speak Friday morning on "Congressional Discrimination Against the Farmer." Congressman Moses P. Kinkaid of Nebraska is to speak Friday morning. Congressman Dan V. Stevens of Nebraska is to speak Friday afternoon on "American Merchant Marine as Affecting Agriculture."

Urges Co-operation.
Co-operation between the farmer and business man, rural schools, rural credits and national legislation affecting the farmers are to be the principal and general topics of discussion throughout the three days' session.

C. C. Rosewater, treasurer of the executive committee of the Agricultural Publishers' association, and general manager of the Twentieth Century Farmer in Omaha, is to give an address Thursday afternoon. Dr. George E. Condra of the University of Nebraska, is to give a moving picture lecture Thursday afternoon on "Nebraska and Omaha and Their Relation to National Agriculture." Thursday evening there is to be a banquet of life members of the organization at the Hotel Home. The dinner is to be at 6:30 o'clock.

George N. Hicks, in Omaha Since 1878, Dies at Residence

George N. Hicks, one of Omaha's oldest and prominent real estate men and a resident of this city for many years, died yesterday at his residence in the Pasadena apartments, 430 Park avenue.
He had lived in Omaha for thirty-seven years.

Mr. Hicks was born in Deerfield, a suburb of Utica, N. Y., April 17, 1847. He was for a time private secretary to Governor Horatio Seymour of New York state. He moved to Omaha in November, 1878, and entered the employ of the Union Pacific Railway company. In 1883 he left the railroad and has since been engaged in the real estate business. He has built many houses and was active in upbuilding Omaha, being identified with many of the civic activities of the city.
He leaves a widow, Ellen, and a son, L. J. Hicks, of Roseburg, Ore.
Services will be private from Burket's chapel, Monday, September 27.

DISPUTE OVER OFFICE IN LODGE GOES INTO COURT

A dispute concerning possession of the office of supreme banker of the Supreme Forest, Woodman Circle, was carried to the district court, when Nora M. DeBolt started proceedings to oust Ida M. Kelley.
The relator alleges that she was elected supreme banker July 14 and that the defendant refuses to turn over the records and assets to her. She asks the court to establish her right to possession of the records and assets.

Many Race for Land in the Goshen Hole Country in Wyoming

Advices to the Burlington land department are to the effect that when the 150,000 acres of land in the Goshen Hole country, Wyoming, subject to entry October 25, were thrown open to inspection at 9 o'clock Saturday a. m. there was a rush to secure selections. The advices indicate that from the Nebraska state line, west of Scott's Bluff county, several hundred women were ready for the race.
Of the women the greater portion were men, though there were numerous women along the border of the land lying close to the Burlington and extending as far west as Guernsey, something more than thirty miles. Many of these women were reported to be on foot, others rode horses, and still others had automobiles, or teams.

Under the ruling applying to entry upon the Goshen Hole land a squatter's rights are supreme; that is, if a man makes a selection of 160 acres for a homestead and commences improvements, followed by the establishment of a residence, this will hold against all comers.
It is understood at the Burlington that most of the women have gone upon the land with the idea of establishing residence and holding possession until they can make their filings, October 25, or subsequently.

Bellevue Students Want Paper Issued Every Two Weeks

Considerable difference of opinion developed Friday afternoon at a meeting of the Bellevue college faculty over the question whether the "Purple and Gold," the college paper, should be issued as a monthly magazine or as a semi-monthly newspaper. Dr. A. A. Tyler, head of the publication committee, and President Nichols, with Dean of Women Carter and Librarian Churchill, held out for a monthly magazine on the ground that a newspaper could not be given so conveniently in the library, that the extra advertising necessary to issue the semi-monthly would lower the character of the paper and that a magazine was more in accordance with the dignity of the college. Younger members of the faculty are in favor of the newspaper. The student body, headed by Anne M. Johnston, editor of the paper, Ralph E. Martin, assistant editor, and Raymond Gilmore, business manager, is overwhelmingly in favor of a newspaper every two weeks in newspaper form.
The faculty finally recommended an election by the students and faculty combined, which will take place in chapel Tuesday morning.

Robber Looks Over Woman's Ears and Fingers for Jewelry

Miss Conner of 3588 St. Mary's avenue was stopped Friday evening near her home by a masked and armed stranger who demanded her to stand still while he examined her fingers and ears for jewelry.
After failing to find anything of value, he commanded the frightened young woman to stand in the spot where he left her and count twenty-five to herself while he made his escape.
The police have a detailed description of the man, whose apprehension is expected.

Kugel Wants a New Law for Speeders

Superintendent Kugel of the police department will recommend to the city council an ordinance to restrict automobiles to slow down to a speed of five miles an hour while passing school buildings. He finds there is no specific ordinance on this matter.
"During the week I observed that in many instances the children are careless.
I was at one school where I saw a child running across the street in front of an automobile. I spoke of the janitor and told him I thought he should exercise a little care when the children are dismissed. I know that some automobiles do speed at the schools, but I maintain the janitors and teachers can do much to improve the situation," said Mr. Kugel.

M. A. PAST IS MANAGER OF THE POSTOFFICE BAND

The Omaha Postoffice band has been reorganized under the name of the Omaha Letter Carriers' band, and Marcus A.
Past, who has served as chairman of the recent convention committee in such an efficient manner, was chosen as manager of this large musical body and as a slight token of their high regard for Mr.
Past they gave him a very pleasant surprise Friday evening when they gathered, without a moment's notice, at his residence, 4619 North Thirty-eighth street, and serenaded him with several musical numbers.
The local branch will assemble at their meeting place at the office—it was nearly 1800 Chicago streets, on Saturday evening, October 2, to listen to a report from the convention committee.

CATS ARE GIVEN GOOD FLYING START FOR LIVES

Chief Clerk Harrington of the health department believes the West Lake street cat mystery has been solved.
He said: "The other evening while I was working at the office it was nearly 9 o'clock—a woman called over the telephone and said she was a school teacher living on West California street. She said she had two strange cats locked in her apartment and wanted to know what she should do with the feline visitors.
She asked if we would send a man after the cats. It is reasonable to suppose that she saved the cats a flying start and that they took a northerly course over to Lake street, where a man with a revolver impeded their progress."

ARLINE SMITH HOUSE PRESIDENT AT BELLEVUE

Arline Smith of Blair, Neb., senior at Bellevue college, was elected house president by the girls of Fontenelle hall Friday afternoon to replace Helen Hayden, elected last spring, who is taking her senior year at Grinnell college.
Miss Smith is very popular among her classmates at Bellevue and had no opposition at the election. Fontenelle house presidency is the highest honor a girl can win at Bellevue.
The remaining members of the board will be chosen by the various classes next week.
