MAPPING OUT PLAN TO HELP FARMERS

Bankers and Agricultural Farm Heads Confer Over County Demonstrators in State.

TEN COUNTIES HAVE OFFICIALS

(From a Staff Correspondent.) out a program to better the farming conditions of the state the president and the secretary of the State Bankers' association, with Carson Hildreth, chairman of afternoon with Chancellor Avery of the school. The meeting was held at the Harry Forbes, state farm.

J. C. McNish of Wisner, president of the bankers' association, and W. H. Hughes of Omaha, the secretary, were present. The meeting was called by Mr. Hildreth to interest the bankers, through their officers, in outlining a definite working program of assistance to certain counties in acquiring farm demonstrators, to be presented at the October meeting of the Bankers' association for approval. At the present time there are only ten counties in the state which have farm demonstrators. These are paid jointly by the federal government, by the state and by the local community. It is the idea of the bankers to help out certain counties with funds for a demonstrator, when these counties would otherwise be delayed a year or more by the lack of available funds from the state or the federal gov-

JUDGE ENGLAND STIRRED OVER PURCHASE OF AUTO

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 27.—(Special.)—Judge W. H. England this afternoon asked the Lincoln city commission to investigate fire department, made upon the recommendation of Public Safety Commissioner John Wright. England claims in his letter to the commission that the city was forced to pay $300 for an automobile not worth over $300 as a very liberal estimate. Although the purchase was made through John Dahsen, a repair man, it was charged by England that the machine really belonged to Fireman Kemplin, a member of the Lincoln department and an employe of the city. The city commission fixed Tuesday afternoon as the date for the hearing and asked the men who preferred the charges to appear and present their evidence.

Mayor Charles W. Bryan is brought in indirectly by Judge England on having signed and approved the warrant for the purchase of the machine, although informed that it was not a first-class auto-

Both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Wright entered vigorous denials. Mr. Bryan said the signing of the warrant was a mere formal matter as large numbers are presented to him each week for signature. He said he did not know anything about
