

HAPPENINGS IN THE MAGIC CITY

Joe Koloks, Greek Restaurant Man, Appears for Fourth Time Before Police Judge.

STUDENTS ARE READY FOR GAME

Joe Koloks, Greek proprietor of a restaurant at 415 North Twenty-ninth street, appeared for the fourth time before Police Judge Reed yesterday morning on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. The judge fined the man $25 and costs and assessed a fine of $1 and costs on each of the four inmates. They were Fred Habi, Jim Aur, C. Dirk and Mike Geary.

Koloks is a common figure in the police station. Always blandly smiling he has invariably put up bond money with which to free himself and whatever inmates are arrested with him. Always he pays his fine without a murmur. No attorneys defend the man. But in broken English he has always pleaded "not guilty." Outside of these brief words he says nothing.

"How long are you going to keep this up?" he was asked by an officer. "I am impetuous uplift of the hands in the common foreign manner was all that would be received by way of an answer. His place was raided last Sunday evening.

Ready for Alumni Game. Quarterback Johnny Bahr of the alumni eleven has recovered from his sprained ankle and is well enough to play in the high school game. With the departure of "Cy" Rheezy for Ann Arbor to enter the Michigan university, the lineup on the alumni side will be considerably altered.

Coch Patton has also encountered both fortune and misfortune in rounding out his team. A stack of work to find a quarterback and center to fill the places of Quarterback Leach and Center Korbmaier was closely followed by the sudden quarantining for diphtheria of the home of Gust Ruzic, thus eliminating him from practice for a week or two.

The lineup of the two teams as given out last evening follows:

Selling Others' Sheep. John Ward, alias John Gillies, son of W. W. Gillies, prominent sheep raiser of Evansville, Wis., was arrested last evening at 6:30 o'clock by Detectives Allen and Dvorak at the stock yards on a charge of attempting to gain money on a four-carload consignment of sheep that were not his. He is being held by local police until further word can be received from the owner of the sheep.

Burn Their Loot. Latest reports in the city and county-wide search now being made by South Side police and railroad detectives for the gang of boxcar robbers, who have been doing a thriving regular business in the last two or three years, indicate that much of the stolen goods has been burned so as to avoid detection. No less than ten catches, in living houses or in the open, have been found to contain hidden merchandise stolen from moving freight trains.

This morning word was received from Missouri Pacific agents that a big lot of shoes lately recovered are of the same manufacture and evidently come from the same place as those discovered in the hands of thieves some weeks ago in the east side Burlington tracks. This alone is an indication of organized work, the thieves dealing with every railroad going to and from the city. The shoes were made at Stillwater, Minn., presumably at the state penitentiary there.

But five men have been arrested by the police so far. They are Morris Lenergan, alleged to be leader of the gang; John Butkus, Will Mack and two others. A warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of an other. Just what charges the railway men will make in their case against the thieves is not known yet.

Church Gives Concert. To mark the moving of the headquarters of the Central Christian church from their present location in the old Young Men's Christian association building at Twenty-fourth and M streets to a new building at Twenty-fifth and M streets, a sacred concert will be held Sunday evening. Teachers of the adjoining department of the church will demonstrate to the public their ability as educators in music.

Miss Emma Ward, young piano student who is now attending Bellevue college, will preside at the piano. Following is the list of other instructors in their respective departments who will take part:

Arthur Swenitzer, voice and choral director; Joseph Woolery, violin; Mrs. A. A. Swenitzer, piano; Public speaking; Miss Field, physical culture for women; Mrs. W. B. Meyers, art needlework; Miss Emma Ward, piano; Mrs. G. A. Swenitzer, physical culture teacher for men and a boy worker is not yet secured, but are being sought for.

Bowling Scores. In the Stock Yards league the Tass Bros. won two out of three games from the Union Stock Yards company. King of the company five was high in the standings, but Johnson of the opposing team played high in number of pins. Scores:

At the conference besides Mr. Rockefeller will be the principal operating officials of the company, all the mine superintendents and the grievance representatives of the various Colorado camps. Between fifty and sixty men are expected to attend. In announcing the meeting Mr. Rockefeller declined to make public in advance any details of the industrial plan which has been worked out by himself and W. L. Mackenzie King, in collaboration with President J. P. Wetherill and other officers of the company. He said, however, that it was in no sense an attack upon union labor.

John D. Will Spring Unionism Substitute. DENVER, Oct. 1.—An industrial plan which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., characterized as "broader and more democratic than unionism," will be submitted to officers and employees of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at Pueblo on Saturday. Announcement of the meeting was made by Mr. Rockefeller tonight.

CHAMP CLARK GREATEST LIVING MISSOURI MAN. SEDALIA, Mo., Sept. 30.—Champ Clark, speaker of the national house of representatives, was named as the greatest living Missourian, by Governor Major, in an address here today. The selection was made by the governor in accordance with a request from the officials of the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Your Sick Child Is Constipated! Look at Tongue. Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, bilious or feverish.

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

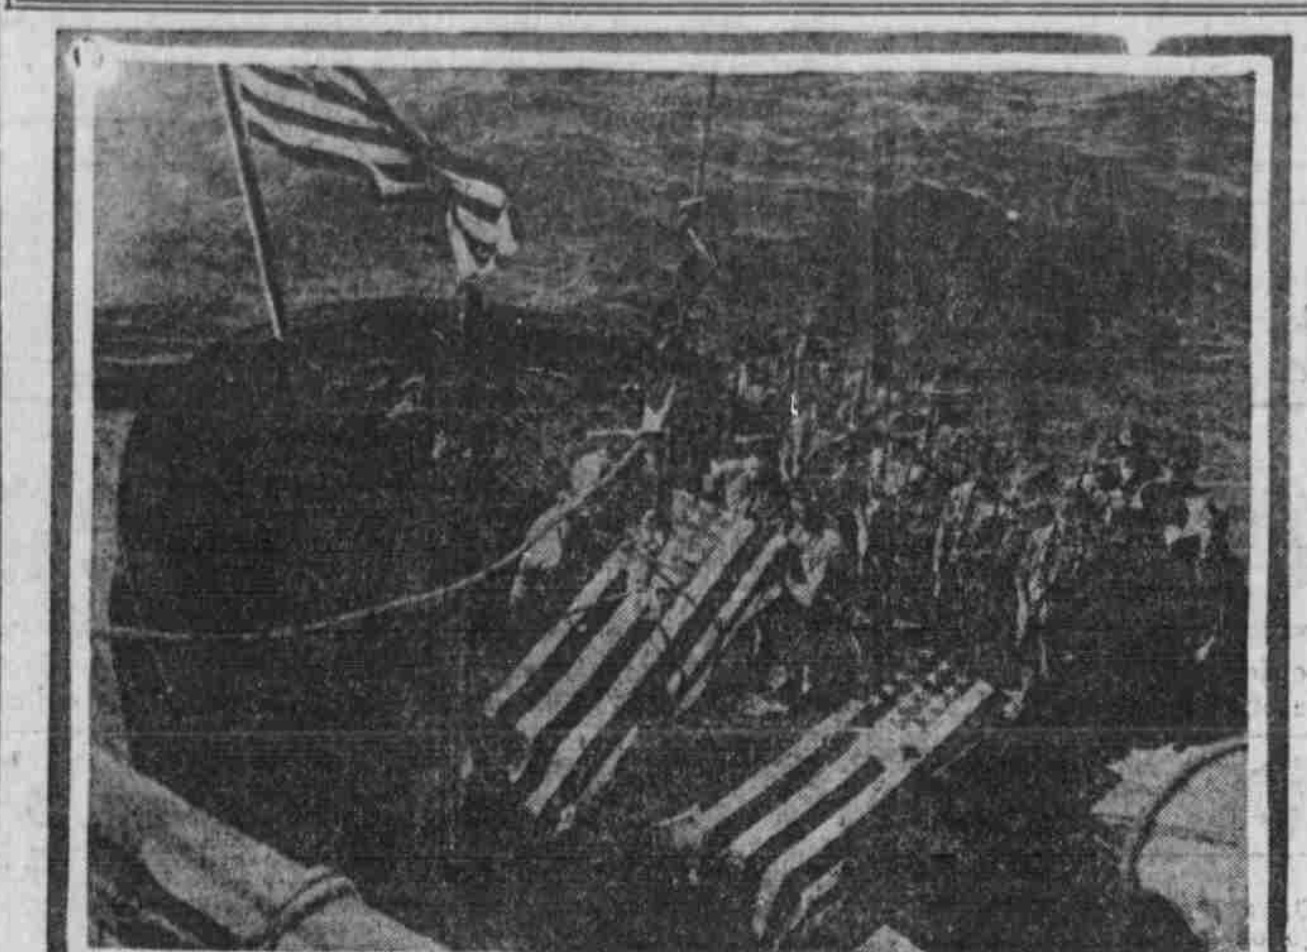

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting usually-look. Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, "diapers" sore, throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mother, can't you see after giving this harmless "Fruit Laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 5-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

Poor Miss Saxe is Forced to Be Catless While in Omaha

Rumor in the shape of a young fellow at the Loyal hotel (we decline to be more definite)—Rumor has it that Miss Grace Saxe, the efficient Bible teacher of the Sunday party, is disappointed in Omaha in one particular and only one. In every other city someone has presented her with a cat to be her pet during the campaign.

Yet here in Omaha there is no cat to greet her when she comes, tired from her day's work, no cat to purr at her feet as she sits at her studies, to leap lightly to her lap in her leisure moments. No doubt there are many cats out of employment in this great city, wandering the streets, back yards and fences with no mother to guide them, no home to shelter them, no fish to eat, no milk to drink. It is a categorical stigma that in all this catalog of cats there is no cat for the eminent Bible teacher.

Shame on cat-tight Omaha. Any respectable cat of pleasing appearance, affectionate disposition and good habits (no night cat allowed) will hear something to her advantage by calling at the Loyal hotel.

SUNDERLAND BROS. AND HULL LOW ON COAL BIDS

Sunderland Bros. and C. W. Hull were successful bidders for the coal business of the Greater Omaha School district for the ensuing year. The supplies committee of the Board of Education next Monday evening will recommend that these coal firms be awarded the contracts.

The Sunderland bid of anthracite coal was $10.00 per ton, delivered to any or all of the schools of the district. The same firm bid from $3.88 to $4.23 per ton on bituminous coal delivered to the schools of Omaha proper. For schools in the South Side district the Hull bid on bituminous coal was from $3.90 to $4.42 per ton, according to the locations of schools.

The estimated requirement for the school year is 8,500 tons of bituminous and 250 tons of anthracite.
