

IF BACKACHE TAKES SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Says Backache is sure sign you have been eating too much meat.

Uric Acid in meat clogs Kidneys and irritates the bladder.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and all misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

How to Save Your Eyes

Try this Free Prescription.

Do your eyes give you trouble? Do you already wear eyeglasses or spectacles? Thousands of people wear these "windows" who might easily dispense with them. You may be one of those, and it is your duty to save your eyes before it is too late. The eyes are neglected more than any other organ of the entire body. Every day you strain your eyes when you sit down and read your newspaper, but how about your eyes? Do you read them? You know you do not. You read or do something else that keeps your eyes busy; you work your eyes until you go to bed. That is why so many have strained eyes and finally other eye troubles that threaten partial or total blindness. Eyeglasses are merely crutches; they never cure. This free prescription, which has benefited the eyes of so many, may work equally well for you. Use it a short time. Would you like your eye troubles to disappear as if by magic? Try this prescription. Go to the nearest wide awake drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water, drop in one tablet and allow it to thoroughly dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. Just note how quickly your eyes clear up and how soon the inflammation will disappear. Don't be afraid to use it; it is absolutely harmless. Many who are now blind might have saved their eyes had they started the eye care for them in time. This is a simple treatment, but marvelously effective in multitudes of cases. Now that you have been told how to delay a day, but do what you can to save your eyes and you are likely to thank us as long as you live for pointing this prescription. The Valmas Drug Co., of Toronto, will fill the above prescription by mail, if your druggist cannot.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR REMOVERS ARE DANGEROUS

Don't Use Poisonous So-Called Superfluous Hair Removers. You may escape permanent injury if you use so-called hair removers, but you cannot escape an increased growth because after each removal the hair is bound to grow out more bristly and in time it will become so coarse that nothing will remove it but a razor. Don't let your hair be so devitalized. It is useless to use bases or rub-on preparations because they only remove from the surface of the skin. DeMiracle is the only depilatory that has a binding guarantee in each package which entitles you to your money back if you will get the genuine DeMiracle and you will get the original liquid hair remover. Others are worthless imitations—refuse them. DeMiracle is sold in $1.00 and $2.00 bottles. The larger size is the most economical for domestic use and large users to buy. If your dealer will not supply you order direct from us. The truth about the treatment of superfluous hair mailed in plain sealed envelopes, on request, DeMiracle Chemical Company, Dept. B, Park Ave. and 12th St., New York.

HITTING THE TRAIL WITH "BILL" SUNDAY

Trail-Hitter Not Prompted by Temporary Attack of Hysteria, Declares Usher.

FIRST-NIGHTERS COME BACK

By AN USHER. The average individual who is outside the folds of the church and who attends the Sunday meetings at the tabernacle merely as a matter of curiosity or entertainment looks upon the sawdust trail-hitter as one who goes to the front under a temporary attack of hysteria. Such, however, is far from being the general rule.

While most of the men and women who go down the trail grasp the hand of Mr. Sunday and then occupy front seats while prayers are offered in their behalf and for their future, do so deliberately and after they have carefully and thoughtfully weighed the religious questions. As a rule few of those who have gone down the sawdust trail at the tabernacle have done so during the first meeting that they have attended.

Scores of the first nighters at the tabernacle who subsequently hit the trail had little regard for the teachings of Mr. Sunday when they first entered the building. But as he evolved his argument they became interested, and though the discussion of religious topics usually regarded as dry and uninteresting, they followed him closely, taking in every word that he uttered. At the close of the sermon, the first nighter goes away pretty firmly convinced that a better way has been pointed out. With those who are in this state of mind an impression has been made and they are at the tabernacle again the following night, frequently accompanied by a friend.

Second Sermon Counts. With those who are in a receptive mood, the second sermon that they hear Mr. Sunday preach causes them to feel that they are ready for the trip over the sawdust. However, there are but few who possess the courage to make the start alone, and here is where the efforts of the personal advisers is felt. The work of this individual is to make the path from seat to mourner's bench in to easy to tread.

The successful worker has to be a party of many resources and something of a mind reader, taking in at a glance the method to be employed in handling individuals. One man will quickly join the worker down the trail when the invitation to "come on" is given, while another will quietly sit in his seat as if he had no mind.

Some other man feels less when a worker comes up, slaps him on the back and says:

"Come on old man and join me. I want to show you the way to a better life." With another man this familiarity would be repulsive and perhaps he would need to be brought into an argument before he would start. Consequently it is apparent that the worker among those who seek to hit the trail must be full of resources and study those whom he seeks to help along the journey.

Takes Seat in Front. Once down the trail and after the convert has grasped the hand of Mr. Sunday, he or she goes to the seat in front of the pulpit, there remaining until the work following the extending of the invitation is completed. This done the secretaries get busy. They pass cards among the trail-hitters for them to sign. On these cards are written the names of the converts, their residence address and the church for which they have a preference.

Subsequently the cards go to the pastors of the respective churches and from that time on it is incumbent upon them to bring the new converts into full communion with the church and its teachings. Of the trail-hitters the majority are young persons—usually under 21 years of age, though there are many older, some being bowed with age.

Sunday to Address the Transfer Men, Maybe at the Den

At a meeting of the transfer men the suggestion was made that "Billy" Sunday address them at a special meeting at a place other than the Tabernacle. City Commissioner Jardine and others are arranging the details. In all probability the Ak-Sar-Ben den will be secured and the time will be after the Ak-Sar-Ben festival.

Wind Friday Night Puts Balloon Out of Commission

After the crowd had left the carnival grounds Friday night, and the wind had tired of playing with piles of confetti in the streets, it tackled the dirigible balloon, inflated, and moored on the High-way.

When the men appeared for work in the morning they discovered that the cigar-shaped gas bag had been badly torn by the wind, and will be out of commission for the rest of the festival.

"Billy" Sunday Sure Is Proud of Cook

"Nora," the Sunday family's housekeeper in Winona Lake, Ind., is "some" cook. Here's the way "Billy" described what she cooks when "Ma" and he come home.

"Nora gets some dried sweet corn—some of this they cut off the cob and dry on a sheet in the sun. I don't like this canned stuff—and she puts it to soak over night to be ready to stew. Then she gets a juicy steak, or maybe a pot roast, and then she bakes some potatoes so they're mellow when you break 'em apart and put butter on 'em! Then she makes apple sauce with a little nutmeg on top and—apple pie with a hunk of cheese. And, to top it off, coffee with whipped cream. Oh, I tell you! Good night!" (Winona Lake papers that "Nora" takes please copy.)

Motor Progress. "Run our new 1916 patent neoprene rubberout is the latest thing on the market," said the agent. "What's the advantage?" asked the prospective buyer. "To begin with, it is a dividend-bearing car," said the agent. "In addition to that we have arranged with national and other banks in all parts of the world to cash 'em on sight. If the owner ever gets hard up."—Chicago Herald.

"What?" cried Miss Bonehill. "Do you mean to say that from 1870 from 1915 is only 45?"

"Not arithmetically, Miss Arabella," said Jimpton, "but in reckoning a woman's age, always."—Chicago Herald.

No Interference.

"When the jury in a western court found the accused guilty of the crime charged, the prisoner rose in the dock and dramatically exclaimed: 'What! My heaven strike me dead if I am guilty!'"

"The judge waited a few minutes and then said: 'Prisoner at the bar, since Providence has not seen fit to interfere, the sentence of the court will now be pronounced.'—St. Louis Republic.

TO TALK ON CIVIC UPLIFT

Miss McDowell, Head of Chicago Settlement Work, Is to Be in Omaha One Day Next Week.

LUNCHEON AT COMMERCIAL CLUB

Miss Mary E. McDowell, head of the University of Chicago Settlement, and "the woman who solved the garbage problem for Chicago," will be the guest of the local Social Settlement directors Wednesday, October 14. A luncheon at the Commercial club has been planned, following which Miss McDowell will talk on "Civic Uplift Through Settlement Work." Reservations should be made with Mrs. E. H. Scott.

Miss McDowell has lived for twenty years "back of the yards," as head and creator of the University of Chicago Settlement in the stockyards district. She began in two small flats of four rooms each, but is living now with sixteen other residents in an attractive brick house that was built for the University Settlement, worth $5,000, including gymnasium, club rooms, etc.

Miss McDowell was a charter member and first president of the Woman's Trade Union league and one of the organizers of the Immigrant's Protective league, and the Woman's City club, having 200 members. She is chairman of the city waste commission of the Woman's City club, and last July was made a member of the City Waste commission, created by the city council. At the last meeting of the National Federation of Settlements she was elected president. She is a member of the executive committee of the Methodist Federation for social service.

Miss McDowell has been chairman of the industrial committee of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs and was one of the most active members of the legislative committee that secured the ten-hour day for wage-earning women. She initiated the movement and secured an appropriation from congress of $30,000 for the investigation of the working conditions of women and children in factories and stores in the United States.

Omaha Orchestra to Play for Teachers

A symphony orchestra of 100 pieces is to give the principal entertainment to the Nebraska Teachers' association this fall. The date is November 5, at the Auditorium.

The Omaha Symphony orchestra is the name of the organization that is to give the concert. Henry Cox is the director. This feature is to be presented free by the bureau of publicity of Omaha to the members of the association. Hitherto noted singers like Gaski and others have been presented for the entertainment of the teachers. This year, Manager Parrish of the bureau of publicity decided to present this orchestra instead of a singer. "To comply with the educational spirit of the Nebraska State Teachers' association," said Mr. Parrish, "the bureau presents this entertainment, to show the people that Omaha and Nebraska can produce a musical entertainment equal to any that can be produced anywhere in the land."

Last Longer. "Are you a chess player?" a landlord asked a prospective tenant. "I much prefer to have my house occupied by chess players." "No, I am not a chess player, and I can't account for such a singular preference," replied the would-be tenant. "It is simple enough," said the landlord. "Chess players move no second, and rarely, without great deliberation."—Philadelphia Ledger.
