GIANTS WIN FINAL; REMAIN IN CELLAR

Boston Loses Poorly Played Game to McGraw's Men by Fifteen to Eight.

LARRY DOYLE LEADS LEAGUE

BOSTON, Oct. 7.—The New York Giants and the Boston Braves closed the season today, the former in last place and the latter in second position. The game was marked by an avalanche of hits and runs, made possible by indifferent pitching and lax fielding. New York scored fifteen times to Boston's eight. Under the easy hitting conditions Larry Doyle, leader of the Giants, bettered his hitting average so that, unofficially, he leads the league batmen. Score:
