JOHN D. MAKES PUBLIC ADDRESS

Rockefeller Predicts There Will Be No More Strikes in Colorado Fuel Company's Mines.

TAIRS TO DENVER MERCHANTS

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 8,-John D. Rockefeller, jr., today made his first public address in Colorado, when he was the guest of honor at the weekly luncheon of the Denver hi Chamber of Commerce. Speaking of business men, he discussed the problems of the state, particularly with regard to industrial questions. After expressing satisfaction at having been given an opportunity to meet the business men of Denver, Mr. Rockefeller thanked the people of Colorado for their kindness and friendliness to him during his three weeks' visit in the state. He said that the friendly feeling of the state toward himself was due in a still larger measure to his father, John D. Rockefeller, sr., who had shown is interest in Colorado and his confidence in the future of the Rocky mountain region by his large investments in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

Mr. Rockefeller referred to what he called a misapprehension on the part of the public regarding the Rockefeller attitude toward labor. He read extracts from his own testimony before the Federal Commission on Industrial Relations which he said proved that he believed in the right of labor to be organized.

He spoke of his recently promulgated industrial plan as a further proof of his friendliness to the working class. In concluding he declared that there must mayer be another strike in the coal mining figurity in Colorado, because when strikes occurred all parties weo losers, including the public.

On Ankle. Sore and Red. Clothing Aggravated. Lost Rest. In Two Weeks Well.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"After pulling garden weeds and scratching my ankie with my finger which was stained with the juice, my ankie began to get sore and red. I bought some salve and the redness disappeared, but the skin got rough and later the spet got larger. Then it began to itch and the itching was so intense that it would wake intense that it would wake me up at night and I would be scratching and I scratched until the blood started. My clothing aggravated the breaking out, and I often lost my rest.

"I saw Cuticura Scap and Ointment advertised and I bought a cake of Scap and a box of Ointment. In two weeks' time I was well." (Signed) J. F. Saare, 314 6th St., Baraboo, Wis., March 19, 1915.

OUR TELEPHONE POLICY

TOWARD PUBLIC

The success of this Company, we are confident, depends upon our operating along lines that meet with the approval of the public.

The people, we believe, have a right to know what we are doing and why we are doing it, and we welcome an opportunity to explain the reasons for any of our policies or practices.

All our accounts are kept in strict accordance with the best known practices, so the public at any time may know through their governing bodies we do with it.

It is our aim to use the best and most advanced equipment, and to render the public the most dependable service of which modern brains and science are capable.

Years of experience has taught us what it costs to produce telephone service, and we know that we are furnishing service at the lowest possible rates at which good service can be produced.

We aspire to win and merit a reputation with the public for furnishing efficient service, and for integrity. courtesy and absolute fairness in all our dealings.

TOWARD EMPLOYEES

We feel sure that the best service is only to be had when fidelity and lovalty are reciprocal in employer and em-

It is our purpose to pay employees sufficient compensation to secure their best services.

We strive to assist worthy employees to accumulate by making it easy for them to acquire a financial interest in the business. Nearly half of all the men employed are stockholders.

We have endeavored to keep our working quarters sanitary and com-fortable, for without such conditions the best work would not be possible.

With no expense to the employees, we provide for sickness, disability, injury, old age and death in a broader spirit than any corporation or govern-

To make for the highest efficiency in our personnel, we rigidly enforce the principle of advancement dependent upon integrity, ability and meritorious work alone.

TOWARD INVESTORS

We have absolutely no "watered stock." A dollar has been invested for every dollar's worth of securities issued. This has been proved beyond all doubt by hundreds of investigations by commissions and governing bodies.

Good business policy prompts us to keep the investment of our security holders safe by maintaining a sufficient reserve to rebuild or replace our property when it is destroyed by fires or storms, or is worn out or becomes obsolete.

We are confident that the public welfare is best served by our constantly making extensions and improvements to our existing property to serve the continuing requirements of the public for additional service.

In order to get new money for extensions, it is essential that we pay fair dividends. No man will put his money in an enterprise unless he is reasonably sure that it will be safe and that fair dividends will be paid promptly.

Briefly, our telephone policy is: To give the best and broadest service to the greatest possible number of people at the lowest rate at which it can be produced and still pay a fair wage to the employee and a reasonable return to the investor. We believe that such success as we have had has been because our business has been conducted on these lines.
