

SUNDAY TALKS TO BENSON STUDENTS

High School Pupils Greet Evangelist and "Ma" and "Rody" with the School Yell.

SPEAKS AT CENTRAL SCHOOL

When "Billy" Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Sunday, "Rody" and George Brewster, reached the crowded auditorium of the Benson high school he was greeted by the high school yell.

Prof. John Speedie introduced the party and "Rody" entertained the young people with music, playing "Old Kentucky Home" medleys.

The songs were joined in by the audience. "Rody" detected the voice and face of one of his best choir singers among the corps of singers and pointed her out to the audience, which caused laughter and applause.

Mr. Sunday began by saying he was not going to preach a sermon, but just give a talk, choosing for his topic "Education," and for forty-five minutes he gave a talk full of good advice to young men and women of the high school and all seventh and eighth graders of Benson.

"Idleness puts the skids under more young people than any other one thing," said the evangelist. "Idleness causes you to lose opportunities to better yourselves and it invites to mischief and puts flaws into your character which will work against you all the time."

He advised them to be kind and recommended to every boy and girl to "try to be an alligator, because the alligator never stops growing as long as it lives."

In His Best Form. Mr. Sunday's talk was long and in his best form.

At his class the young son of Prof. Speedie carried forward a splendid bouquet of red and white roses, presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sunday with the compliments of the school.

After a brief talk by Mrs. Sunday the party left for the Central school, where both Mr. and Mrs. Sunday made short talks to the grade school pupils. "Billy" commented on the excellent condition of the Benson schools and told the children that, as he was once a school janitor, he "knew what he was talking about" when he said their physical upkeep was excellent.

"Ma" declared in her little talk to the grade pupils that "Billy" seemed to dust so well when he was a janitor that he is still good at it and can dust off the furniture with his handkerchief perfectly.

Ye Are My Witnesses Even to the Uttermost Parts of the Earth

In the sermon at the Tabernacle Friday afternoon Mr. Sunday said:

Text: "But ye shall receive power after the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto Me, both in Jerusalem and in all Judaea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." Acts 1, 8.

That means in the streets, in society, in the store, on the railroad, wherever you are. Jesus Christ staked His cause upon the character and the lives and the utterances of His followers.

He staked salvation upon you and what you will do. When He left He wanted you to learn His words and principles and tell them to others. He taught His disciples that they might teach others and others teach you and you teach others.

All right, that's just what we are doing today. But if you believe it and don't live it then you are not doing His teaching.

In Isaiah, 64 chapter, God issues a challenge to the world, "Let them bring forth My witnesses and that they may be justified. Ye are My witnesses, said the Lord, and My servants whom I have chosen."

He says, "Bring forth your witnesses and I'll bring forth My witnesses and then you can choose." That's what He is doing today. He says to the thieves, things, prostitutes, saloon keepers, "Come, tell what you'll do for the people." Then He calls the Christians and says: "Tell what I have done for you and then let them choose."

If the saloon keeper feels happier in expounding booze than the man who won't touch the rotten stuff, and if the woman who is selling her life gets more joy than the pure, virtuous woman, let them bring forth their witnesses, and if they prove it by those witnesses, then I'm ready to quit God's work right here and rest my cause.

And in court with all of its shenanigans, all of its corruptions and bribery of judges and buying of the jury and the witnesses, the thing that is indispensable is the witness, whether it may be man or woman; what they know, and they are supposed to have an important fact that others do not possess. A witness is always an aid to some individual or cause and aids in setting free or convicting.

Your mother or your grandmother might have been a Christian, but what you need is personal experience. Have you a recommendation to the world of Christ? Let's hear it.

Should Be God's Witnesses. It's a sad thing to have a man or woman testify to one thing and have the next witness prove it was all a lie. It doesn't only hurt the witness, but it hurts his case.

It's a sad thing for a man to say he is a Christian, and then prove by his life that he is a liar.

The witness who is found to have perjured himself is an injury to the cause he represents in court and you injure the entire body of believers when you side step and go wrong. You bring reproach on the cause of God.

The whole is injured by a part. If you injure your finger the whole body suffers. So if one Christian goes wrong all Christians have to bear the brunt of the blame. The most important thing is the witness, and God says He wants you to be His witness.

When Paul was on his way to Rome, and he was shipwrecked on an island, he had the natives gather up sticks and build a fire.

By mistake for a stick Paul picked up a serpent. You know one of the means of protection of animals is to adapt themselves to the color of their surroundings. And when the fire became warm and the serpent was aroused, it struck him.

The natives knew it was a venomous snake. It might have been a rattler, as asp or a cobra, but the natives knew it was venomous, and they expected to see Paul swell up and die. When he didn't they worshiped him as a god, and he had to rebuke them and say he was not a god, but a Christian.

So you see God can use even a snake to preach His gospel. He doesn't have to have preachers in swallowtail coats and white neckties and gold-rimmed spectacles. He doesn't have to have college professors hanging around. He can use even the snakes and the sticks and the leaves to preach His gospel. And because Paul didn't die the people believed and scores were swept into salvation. He had the goods on them.

The Lord is not compelled to use the snakes. The Lord is not compelled to use evangelists. He does not have to use Sunday school teachers. He can take snakes, sticks and anything and use them for the advancement of His cause.

Those heathens saw Paul and believed. So the heathen nations today are gaining on the nominal Christian nations. The eyes of the heathen are turned toward the godly, in the street, in the factories, everywhere you go, not simply in the pew.

No Power from Card Parties. When Peter walked by the beggar and he asked him for help Peter said: "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have I will give unto thee. Arise, and go thy way."

And the people saw and believed.

Do you think he would have had the power if he had just come from some dance, or some bridge-whist party, or some cheap skate leg show?

That's the reason a lot of you haven't power today. That's the reason a lot of you church members are not worth three whoops this side of perdition.

God doesn't want the milk-and-water and chalk-and-egg kind of stuff you call religion. Your religion is not virtue. You don't know how to hit the ball for Jesus. You aren't up to the mark on your feet for that, and it's no wonder that the devil has the drop on you and is able to make you one, two, three strikes and you're out.

You haven't the punch that produces the sleeper. About the best you can do is to give the devil a few love taps and when he jams you against the ropes it is then that you turn to the Great Referee to save you from a knockout.

It's an insult to profess to be Christians and live the way some of you do. It would be an insult to profess to love your husband and live with some one else.

When Jacob gave Joseph his coat of many colors his brothers were jealous. One day they saw him coming and took him and stripped the coat from off his back and dipped it in a kid's blood and then took it to their father and said, "We don't know whether this is Joseph's or not."

Miserable liars. But Jacob knew and he said: "It is my son Joseph's coat. An evil beast devoured him and my gray hairs will go down in sorrow to the grave." They lied.

They knew they had sold him to the Ishmaelites and Potiphar's wife wanted him to surrender his manhood. But he stood pat for his virtue and would have nothing to do with her.

By intrigue she threw him into prison for four years. Then the king had a dream and Joseph came and interpreted it.

He said they would have a famine and they gathered all the grain and stored it in the barns. The famine swept the land of Canaan, where Joseph's father was, and he sent his sons to Egypt to buy corn. And they returned with wagonloads.

Jacob knew that he hadn't given money enough for that much corn, and his sons told him his son, Joseph, was yet alive. But he would not believe it until he saw the corn, then he knew.

Too Many People Windjammers. In other words Jacob said: "I'm from Missouri; you've got to show me the corn."

So what the world wants is deeds, not words. The heathens are waiting for the Christians to bring them religion. The eyes of the unaved multitudes who never read the Bible are reading your life.

Words are cheap. Too many of you are windjammers. The father saw the (Continued on Page Seven, Column Six.)
