WHEAT MARKET VERY STRONG

OMARA, October 11, 1915.

OMAHA. October 11. 1911.

All cercals on the list sold at higher prices today.

The wheat market was very strong. Ninety-six cars were reported in and wheat held its own, selling like higher to Ic lower, with most of the sales going at the higher figures.

Corn was also a good seller. The receipts were light, but the demand was good. Corn sold ic to I've higher.

Outs also advanced ic to le higher.

There will be no market tomorrow, "Columbus day."

Clerarances were: Wheat and flour equal to 1,53,000 bushels; corn, 17,000 bushels; outs, 21,000 bushels.

Liverpool close: Wheat, 16,000 bushels, against no receipts or anipments last year because of holiday.

Frimary corn receipts were 25,44,000 bushels and shipments of 23,000 bushels against no receipts or shipments last year because of holiday.

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—Progress of the Teutonic advance toward the Dardanelles had a distinct effect here today as an influence tending to lift the price of wheat. After a nearly continuous upturn the market closed nervous, 2625% net higher, with December at $1.04%1.05 and May at $1.0661.061%. Other leading staples, too, all showed gains—corn %c to 1811%c, oats %c to %@ic and provisions 100040c.
Announcement that delivery of 19.000,000 bushels of wheat purchased by France in Roumania and Bulgaria had been cut off by the greatly changed military situation throughout the Balkans attracted eager attention from dealers here. The inference was drawn that the bulk of the total amount named would have to be replaced by shipments ordered from this side of the Atlantic, Liverpool dispatches were also at hund indicating that Great Britain was already feeling the pinch in supplies. As receipts in the domestic spring crop region were measor and farmers in the winter wheat belt were said to be continuing to hold back on the better grades the buying here became quickly of a broad character. One firm alone took 1,000,000 bushels out of the pit in a single hour.

Confident assertions by bull leaders that the opening of the Dardanelles was now a remote prospect did a good deal to hasten the upward swing of the wheat market. Fears were further riscouraged late in the day by an active demand for Manitoba and by huge clearances at the seaboard.

Increasing complains of serious crop damage made corn values firm. The market was also affected by predictions of unsettled colder weather and by the bulge in wheat.

Oats merely reflected the action of the other grains. There virtually was no bulge in wheat.

Oats merely reflected the action of the other grains. There virtually was no pressure to sell.

Nearly all deliveries of provisions rose to the highest prices so far this season. A lively advance in the hog market gave impetus to the buying side.

HOGS—Advices from other markets were very bullish and as the local run was very light even for a week opener, trade opened generally higher. Shipping grades showed the short end of the advance, but at that were all of 5@10c, and in a good many cases a flat 10c higher. Tops reached $30, a new high mark for the year, but quality was a great deal better than anything here at last week's close.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. J. Mackay, rector of All Baints, assisted by Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks, pastor of the First Presbyteriam church. Burial was in the family lot in Prospect Hill cemetery, buside her husband, J. N. H. Patrick. An immense quantity of flowers were sent to the church by friends. These later were sent to the Clarkson Memorial bospital. The pallbearers were:

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY AT WESTMINSTER SUCCESS

The rally of eight Sunday schools at Wastminster Presbyterian church yea-terday morning was a big success. Miss Gamlin of the Sunday party led and the church was crowded, some being there as early as 8:30 a. m. Forty-five young folks hit the trail and more than fifty others made promises to join the church as soon as possible and try to lead better Christian lives. Miss Gamlin went to Council Bluffs. where at 11:40 she conducted a rally of the Broadway Methodist Episcopal Sunday school.

GLIB STRANGER BORROWS FROM MEN SEEKING WORK

So eager for work were John Huntla, Clio, Ark., and William Marrow, Patterson, Ark., that they followed a gitb stranger all day, listening to his promises. He had them at the stock yards on the South Side yesterday afternoon, when he grandly announced that he owned a half interest in the big place. A few minutes later he borrowed $10 from Morrow and $35 from Huntla "to buy cigarettes with," and he has not been seen since.
