Railway Mail Men Meet Here to Plan for Christmas Rush

Christmas is not far off. So say the railway mail officials, in whose work the holiday mail rush is always the chief concern.

The superintendent and chief clerks of three railway mail divisions are meeting here in important conference, to work out plans for facilitating the Christmas mail, so that no delays will occur in Santa Claus' postal delivery system, that might disappoint intended recipients of gift parcels.

Through storage cars will be arranged for in order to avoid the unloading and rehandling of through mail. The railway mail officials attending the conference belong to the Omaha-Ogden, Chicago-Omaha and the Lake Shore divisions of the service, known as the fourteenth, sixth and ninth divisions, respectively. They are as follows:

Fourteenth Division—Superintendent Frank D. Johnston; Assistant Superintendent M. H. Blackwell, Captain W. S. Felt, chief of schemes and schedules; W. B. Hite, chief of terminals; C. S. Kelly, chief clerk, all of Omaha, and C. A. Beach, chief clerk, Cheyenne.

Sixth Division—Superintendent E. L. West and Chief Clerk C. P. Flanders, W. H. Riddell and W. G. Thomas, all of Chicago.

Ninth Division—Chief Clerk W. G. Rose of Chicago. These railroad officials are also meeting with the postal men: J. E. Melette, Union Pacific; W. P. Stoughton, Northwestern; J. E. Buchanan and L. H. Stubbins, Burlington.

New Charge Placed Against Man Whose Auto Strikes Girl

For the first time appearing on the police records of Omaha, the charge "For Investigation" was registered against P. L. Sparring of the South Side.

Sparring, while driving an auto at a moderate rate of speed, struck Ross Manfito, aged 5 years, in front of the car. The child was injured about the head and later attended by Dr. C. B. Poltz, who is undetermined as yet as to the seriousness of her injury. Sparring escaped with much difficulty from a mob, several of whose number were armed with knives, bent on his destruction. He appeared at police headquarters, where his version of the accident was later substantiated by witnesses. He was released on his own bond.

"The charge 'For Investigation' has originated through just such occurrences as these," asserted Captain Marshall. "Heretofore men who have been held for similar incidents have been termed on the books 'Suspicious Characters.' This charge being erroneous and a mark against many an honest, upright man's reputation, Chief Dunn has approved the new term, which covers the ground and does not charge anyone with anything which they may not happen to be."

Prof. Clapp to Tell of German Air Raids Over City of London

John Mantel Clapp, who will speak to the public school teachers this afternoon at the Swedish auditorium, and in the evening to the Palmisest club members at the Omaha club, recently spent a period of months in London, where he had occasion to observe the operations of the German air raiders.

His subject at the Palmisest club meeting will be "London in War Times," and to the teachers, "The Voice in Education and Life."

Prof. Clapp is regarded by Mr. Webster and Superintendent Clapp of the public schools as one of the ablest speakers now before the public.

"I want to urge that members of the Palmisest club avail themselves of hearing this brilliant man. It will be something really worth while," states Mr. Webster.

Prof. Clapp is vice chairman of the National Committee on American Speech and director of the National Council of Teachers of English. He is now connected with Lake Forest college.

CONFESSES CRIME OF TWO YEARS AGO

Young Italian Tells of Killing Man in New York—Asserts it Was Self-Defense.

WAS ABOUT TO GO TO WAR

Arrested for a murder committed two years ago in Brooklyn, N. Y., Paolli Micelli, a young Italian living at 1008 Davenport street and known here as Charlie Paul, confessed in detail before Chief of Detectives Maloney and witnesses.

Micelli was brought to the station by Detectives Dunn and Kennedy, to whom he stoutly protested his innocence, asserting that he had never been in Brooklyn. Finally he broke down before Maloney's rapid fire questioning, and, weeping bitterly, admitted that he shot and killed Parino Pasari, when the latter attempted to rob him.

He explained that Pasari approached him on the street one day and demanded $5. Micelli refused the demand, asserting that he had no money.

The next day he purchased a new watch chain and was wearing it when he again happened to run across Pasari. The latter saw the chain and reaching for it demanded $20 within twenty-four hours or he would kill Micelli on sight.

In the struggle for the chain, Micelli says his antagonist sought to draw a weapon, but he beat him to it, and shot Pasari, killing him instantly. From Brooklyn he hit the freight as far as Omaha, and has been working here as helper in the Union Pacific blacksmith shop ever since.

He was preparing when arrested to return to Italy and enlist in the army. "I have to fight for my life here, maybe, anyhow," asserted Micelli with a wry smile. He quickly regained his composure after the confession and is willing to return to New York and face the music.

Another Hat in the Ring for the Job of Postoffice Boss

Another hat in the ring for the Omaha postmastership is promised in the case of William Hall, who is to be pushed by his friends with a demand for recognition for what used to be South Omaha. William Hall is a brother of Dr. P. L. Hall, the well known democratic war horse at Lincoln, friend of Bryan, and member of the democratic national committee for this state. He has lived forty-five years in Douglas county, residing in South Omaha, and has been in the railway mail service for twenty-eight years with the exception of a brief period when he was a clerk in the Omaha office. If Mr. Hall should land the job, South Omaha would annex the postmastership after having its postoffice annexed to Omaha.

Truck Drivers Jolt Taxi Twice; Fined

Distilled water and gasoline will not mix successfully is the firm belief of Judge Foster, who fined William Jonisker, 374 Burt street, and Raymond Walker, 134 North Twenty-fourth street, $5 and costs and $2.50 and costs, respectively, for intoxication and reckless driving.

Wednesday afternoon, according to the arresting officer, the two men, driving an auto truck of the American Bottling company, collided with a taxi at Twelfth and Calton avenue, damaging the latter machine. The pair was ordered to drive to the station, as was the taxi driver, the accompanying witness. The latter got there first and had his machine standing in front of the station, when the officers and truck drivers arrived. Once again the truck jolted the taxi, working further havoc. Hence the fine.

Women Save $5 Using Gasoline

Dry clean your dresses, suits, silks, yokes, gloves, draperies, etc.

Save $5 to $10 by doing your own dry cleaning. Here is a simple and inexpensive way to clean and brighten children's coats, suits, caps, woolen garments, Swiss lawn, organdie and chiffon dresses, kid gloves and shoes, furs, neckties, ribbons, silks, satins, lace, yokes, silk shirtwaists, draperies, rugs. In fact, any and everything that would be ruined with soap and water.

Get two ounces of solvite at any drug store and put it in two gallons of gasoline, where it readily dissolves. Then put in the goods to be cleaned. After a little rubbing out they come looking as clean and fresh as new. You will find nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles, requiring no pressing.

Any woman can do home dry cleaning in a few moments at little cost and save lots of money. It is as simple and easy as laundering, and you can't make a mistake. Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline, and your druggist will sell you two ounces of solvite which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dish pan completes your home dry cleaning outfit.—Advertisement.

EAST OMAHANS PROTEST ON NEW DUMPING GROUND

Forty-seven residents of East Omaha have signed a petition presented to the county board in which the commissioners are asked to prevent the city from establishing a dumping ground on the new site recently selected by the council. The petition asserts that the proposed dumping ground would be so near the East Omaha school that it would endanger the health of the students.
