She Will Tell Her Stories to Men, Women and Children This Week

A unique entertainment, a doll carnival, is to be given at the Orchard-Wilhelm store, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. For this event, the Orchard-Wilhelm people will bring Miss Ritza Freeman of Chicago, the well-loved storyteller of Fellowship House and the University of Chicago Settlement.

It isn't only for children that this doll carnival and especially the story telling is arranged. No, sir-ee! For the story hour Thursday and Friday at 3 o'clock is going to be for mothers, women shoppers and for men too. Miss Freeman makes quite a point of that for she believes the tired business man likes stories full as well as children.

At any rate, men have been known to throng Miss Freeman's story telling groups even during business hours, attracted. It is whispered by the beauty and charm of the fair story teller, as well as her stories.

The perfectly wonderful time for children is planned for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Miss Freeman will be in costume and there will be a grand play hour after the story telling. Miss Freeman is asking each little girl to bring her doll to meet the dolls at the Orchard-Wilhelm store.

Miss Freeman, who has a most attractive personality, is well known in Omaha where she has visited frequently. She has been a guest of the Spielbergs and Mrs. Frederick Cohn and she has told stories for Mrs. Hanchett's classes. Her home is in Randolph, Ia.

Miss Freeman was spoken of as the most successful insurance woman in the country before she entered social service work and then took up story telling. She has written tales for children and one of her volumes "Norra Tales Retold" is said to be most fascinating. One of Miss Freeman's plans for the winter is a story hour each Saturday afternoon for the women prisoners at the Bldwell.

tions can be made during the next two weeks and arrangements can be made to enter at a later time, if that is desired.

In the expression class, led by Mrs. Effie Sweet Kittelson, there are only a few places left to be filled. This class started off with a great deal of enthusiasm Monday night. The class papers can be secured at the office of the Young Women's Christian association every week and for these there will be a small charge.

The chorus, under the leadership of Miss Cora Schwartz, meets on Thursday nights at 7 o'clock. Many girls like to sing or want to learn and in this class such is possible at a very small price. This class will be held open longer than the others, so that those who are now singing in the Sunday meeting choir can enter at a later time. Miss Florence Riboudes is to be the accompanist.

A new class is to be formed in English grammar for the girls who have been in the classes for the foreign girls, but those who want to enter this class can call at the office and receive information about it. The grammar that will be studied will be that of the grade schools.

The household arts department calls attention to the classes which have been installed since the Prospectus went to print. Another Domestic Science I class will start at a later time. A supper club class on Saturday night from 5 to 7:30 and Domestic Science III on Friday morning instead of Domestic Science II on that morning.

Harry Kane, colored, 1418 Pacific street, who shot and wounded Frank Robinson, colored, at 1105 South Thirtieth street last Sunday, was arrested in Council Bluffs by Sheriff Gronowig. Kane is in the Omaha city jail, as is Robinson, who has just been released from St. Joseph hospital.
