

POLICE CREDIT ANOTHER HOLDUP TO THE APE MAN

Man Answering Description of the Smith Murderer Holds Up Clarence Anderson and Miss Stella Schoor.

GIRL MANAGES TO MAKE ESCAPE Seventeen Suspects Arrested and Arranged Before Miss Slater and Ed Malone.

TWO RESEMBLE THE MURDERER Clarence Anderson, 608 South Seventeenth street, and Miss Stella Schoor, 815 North Thirtieth street, were held up in front of the latter's home by a man answering the description of the Smith murderer.

The same build, wearing apparel and the same manner were displayed by this holdup, who robbed Anderson of $2, and then at the point of a revolver compelled Miss Schoor and her escort to walk up the boulevard, in front of him, until Indiana avenue was reached. Here he forced them to enter grounds surrounding a vacant house, and commanded Anderson to commit unmentionable indecencies. The latter refused and was struck over the head with the weapon.

The robber then grasped Miss Schoor by the arm and dragged her into a nearby vacant lot and attempted to attack her. She fought with him and in the struggle managed to kick him in such a manner that he abandoned his attack. At this time pedestrians passed the house and the holdup made his escape in the darkness.

Operated Here Two Weeks. Although this robbery and attack occurred on October 2, the police are convinced that it was perpetrated by the same man that shot Smith and threatened to assault Miss Grace Slater, Furthmore Captains Maloney and Dempsey are of the opinion that the fellow has been operating off and on in the city since the middle of August. From that period of the year up to the present time a string of holdups by a lone highwayman, whose description tallies with the sought-for murderer, as well as incidents of the holdups, tend to convince that such is the case.

"I think it more than likely that the same man is responsible for all of them. I have questioned the victims closely and in the statements of each event certain remarks has led me to believe that he has been here for some time," said Maloney. Captain Dempsey is of the same opinion. Besides the Smith affair, the Anderson-Schoor robbery and the William T. House holdup—in which a carry party was interrupted at the House residence, 628 Pine street, the guests robbed—are a number of others, all perpetrated during the month of October.

Frightened by Auto Light. On the night of October 13, Burley Leighty, 1908 Binney street, in the company of a young lady, whose name he refused to tell the police, was robbed at Thirtieth and Wirt streets by a lone bandit, who took his watch, and had started toward the young woman when the light of an approaching auto threw its rays on the trio, and he turned and made his getaway. His description is the same as the Smith bandit.

The same night William Brener, 216 Cass street, and Marie Holland, 41 North Twenty-fifth, were forced to deliver their valuables by a highwayman, who took $5 from Mr. Brener and several rings from Miss Holland. The description of this man is the same as that given by the others.

October 14, Miss Nellie Nanna, Miami street, was robbed at Thirty-third and Lake street, by a highwayman, who took a valuable diamond ring, and used exceedingly vile and profane language during the operation.

Robbed of Diamonds. October 5 William Bro of the Neville hotel was robbed at Twenty-second and Emmet streets of $300 worth of diamonds by a fellow of the reported type.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR W. H. SMITH

Large Attendance and Many Floral Tributes Mark Last Rites for Murdered Man.

FRATERNAL SOCIETIES ASSIST

The funeral of W. H. Smith, Woodmen of the World cashier who was shot Saturday night by a highwayman, was held at the home, 318 Fuller avenue, Council Bluffs, yesterday. The house and the lawn were too small to accommodate the hundreds of persons who came to attend the services. The floral tributes were of the most lavish character. Many of them came from Omaha.

The services began at 2:30 o'clock and continued for nearly an hour. Excelsior lodge, the Bluffs Masonic organization where Mr. Smith had risen to the highest honors within the gift of its members, marched to the house in a body, escorted the bearers to the cemetery and conducted the Masonic rites at the grave. The local camp of the Woodmen of the World also attended as an organization. The services at the house were placed under their charge.

Palm Grove, Woodmen circle, convened its members at the home of Mrs. Newton, a neighbor on Fuller avenue, and marched to the house. Other organizations, including Modern Woodmen and Eagles, also attended in large numbers. Many of the prominent Woodmen in Omaha, including the officers and employees of the home office, were present. They united in giving beautiful floral tributes.

The services began at 2:30 o'clock and continued for nearly an hour. Excelsior lodge, the Bluffs Masonic organization where Mr. Smith had risen to the highest honors within the gift of its members, marched to the house in a body, escorted the bearers to the cemetery and conducted the Masonic rites at the grave. The local camp of the Woodmen of the World also attended as an organization. The services at the house were placed under their charge.

Tells of Dead Man's Fine Character. Dr. A. G. A. Buxton, rector at St. Paul's church, conducted the religious services at the house. Mr. Smith was an Englishman and a fellow countryman of Dr. Buxton. He told of the splendid character of the dead man, of his happy home life and the universal affection felt for him by all who came into contact with his pleasing personality. He alluded but briefly to the tragic death.

The pallbearers were all Masons, but nearly all of them were also representatives of the Woodmen of the World as members of the organization. They were: Former Mayor Dell G. Morgan, Harry H. Griffith, Leonard H. Ogden, W. F. Thorne, Earl Stiles and William Johnson.

The services at the grave in Fairview cemetery were witnessed by all who went to the home and by many others who had gone directly to the cemetery.

Victims of Wreck Are Buried with Fraternal Honor

Both burials were in charge of the local lodge of Odd Fellows and there were members of the order from nearby towns in line. The floral offerings were beautiful and numerous. Interment was in the Tecumseh cemetery.

CARRANZA GIVEN FULL RECOGNITION

Governments of Pan-American Conference Carry Out Their Plans Relative to Mexico.

LETTERS ALL SIMILAR IN TONE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Formal recognition by the United States of the de facto government of Mexico, with General Venustiano Carranza as chief executive, was accomplished at noon today by the delivery to General Carranza's representative, Eliseo Arredondo, at the Mexican embassy of a letter from Secretary Lansing.

Recognition letters from the Pan-American conferees, similar in tone, also were received by Mr. Arredondo. The communication from Secretary Lansing was sent by messenger and later Mr. Arredondo was invited to the State department by the secretary for a general conference on Mexican affairs.

Tomorrow Mr. Arredondo will start for Saltillo, Mex., to meet General Carranza and present to him the letters and notes of recognition from the several governments of Central and South America, which arrived during the day, in accordance with the decision of the Pan-American conference yesterday.

Others Are Expected. Recognition by other nations than those represented in the Pan-American conference is expected to follow soon. Great Britain probably will be one of the first of these. Although no final decision has been reached as to the appointment of an American ambassador to Mexico City, the most likely choice is Henry P. Fletcher, at present ambassador to Chile.

Secretary Lansing's letter says in substance that the secretary takes pleasure in informing Mr. Arredondo that the government of the United States recognizes the de facto government of Mexico, of which General Carranza is the chief executive; that the United States is prepared to receive a diplomatic representative of the de facto government as soon as it is possible to send one to Washington and asks that Mr. Arredondo communicate this information to General Carranza.

OFFERINGS FOR SUNDAY TAKEN IN TABERNACLE

Collections for Payment of "Billy" Have Already Begun Instead of Waiting Until the Last Day.

SPEER EXPLAINS CHANGED PLAN

Says Many Might Not Be Reached if Opportunity Deferred Till Next Sunday.

SAYS CAN'T REPAY EVANGELIST

"Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord" "Billy" Sunday quoted in the course of his sermon yesterday afternoon and then he added grimly: "Just you watch the Lord get busy on some of the old liars in Omaha that have been maligning me. Just mark down their names and watch them drop out."

The offerings for "Billy" were started yesterday instead of being confined to the services next Sunday. Envelopes were distributed throughout the audience and many checks and pledges placed in these envelopes will go to "Billy."

"This is done because many are here today who will not be able to be here next Sunday," Rev. Hugh B. Speer said in a speech explaining the plan for getting together the evangelist's compensation. "We can't repay Mr. Sunday in mere dollars and cents for the wonderful regeneration he has brought to Omaha and this money will be not so much an offering to Mr. Sunday as a thank offering to God that we have been privileged to have him here."

"Billy" preached on the promises of God to his people and how they take away the sting of all troubles if people will but accept them. The sermon bristled with a score of verses containing definite promises to all who will believe and accept and rest upon them.

It was an optimistic sermon and not without its humorous touches that set the audience in ripples and tales of laughter. "Read your Bibles," he said, "and see the promises. Some of you never open them except to fill in the family record with births or deaths. You lose your 'specs' and can't find them and there they are, six months later, in the Bible."

Frighten Wife with Kiss. Again, he spoke of cheerfulness. "Go home," he said, "and speak kindly to your wife. Kiss her; never mind if it does frighten her at first. Why, if some of you old devils would go a day without cursing your wife she'd think you were sick."

Worry, he characterized as not only foolish and life-sapping, but "as big a sin as stealing chickens." "Worry! Great Caesar's ghost!" he exclaimed. "What a dreadful thing! You worry about everything, like the old woman who said, 'I feel bad when I feel good because I know I'll feel bad again.' Some people worry because they think the Germans are going to lick us. They haven't got enough people over there altogether, including the Japs, to lick this bunch. Calamity howlers! Rely on the promises of God. Don't worry in time of trouble. Don't throw away your ticket when the train goes into a tunnel. It'll come out again all right. Some people go round with a face so long they could eat oatmeal out of a gas pipe."

Responsive Reading Useful. Faith, reliance on the promises and having the Spirit of God, he said, are requisites. Singing and going through responsive reading are of no avail, he declared. "They just drone through it. What good does it do them?"

The audience was large for an afternoon service, numbering about 4,500. A collection for the International Evangelical association of which Mr. Sunday is an officer, was taken.

COUNT PROCEEDING SLOWLY

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 19.—Unofficial returns from eighteen districts in Jersey City, Elizabeth and Plainfield give 1,020 votes for and 1,719 against adoption of the woman suffrage amendment.

Complete unofficial returns from three districts in Trenton and partial returns for seven others at 9 o'clock tonight give 633 votes for and 1,128 against the amendment.

Wilson Given Noisy Welcome on Visit To Jersey to Vote

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—President Wilson returned to Washington tonight from Princeton after casting the first ballot ever given by a chief executive of the United States in favor of woman suffrage.

The president's brief visit to his local residence was marked by a more enthusiastic welcome from the Princeton students than ever before had been given him on any of his numerous trips there since he entered the White House. The young men gave noisy evidences of their approval of his stand on the suffrage question.

Cheering, singing, whistling and marching in close formation greeted the former head of their university uproariously and hundreds of them remained near him from the time he arrived until his departure.

Women suffragists were not much in evidence during the president's visit, and only two approached him to thank him for voting for their cause. There were no women watchers at the polling place and no women in the vicinity soliciting votes.

The president put in a hard day's work going to and coming from Princeton. He spent several hours on the train with his stenographer dictating answers to letters. He also worked on the note to Great Britain regarding interference with American trade, which was sent him from the State department some time ago.

BULGARIANS REACH RAILROAD

Claim is Made that Serbians Have Driven Back the Invaders, Regaining Lost Territory.

FRENCH ARE IN STRUMNITZA

BULLETIN. PARIS, Oct. 19.—An Italian squadron has left for the near east under sealed orders, supposedly to participate in the blockade of the Bulgarian coast, according to a Brindisi dispatch received here this evening, but which has been delayed in transmission.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Italy has declared war against Bulgaria, but the question whether it will send troops to join the British and French forces in Serbia remains as obscure as the results of the fighting raging on Serbia's eastern frontier.

The Austro-German armies which occupied Belgrade appear to have advanced more than fifteen miles south of the city, but the outcome of the fighting between Bulgarians and Serbians along the important Saloniki-Nish railway cannot be summed up so easily.

At two points, the northernmost of which is Vrnanya, the Bulgarians assert they have reached this railroad, while to the south the Serbians are reported to have driven back the invaders.

Both Athens and Paris maintain that French troops have occupied Strumnitza, in southwestern Bulgaria, but there are available no official reports relating to the struggle in this quarter, and none is expected until the fighting reaches a more conclusive stage.

Removal of General Sir Ian Hamilton from command of the Dardanelles force was received in England with mixed feelings, coming on the heels of rumors of a possible withdrawal from Gallipoli peninsula. In the best informed circles, however, the appointment as commander-in-chief of Major General Charles Munroe is interpreted as an indication that the campaign will be prosecuted with renewed energy, as the country has great confidence in the new leader's ability.

War Declared Upon Bulgaria. ROME, Oct. 19.—Italy has declared war on Bulgaria, according to an announcement by the Stefani News agency. The Havas correspondent at Rome telegraphs: "The Italian government, by order of the king, declared that a state of war existed between Bulgaria by reason of Bulgaria's having opened hostilities against Serbia, thus allying itself with the enemies of Italy and combating its allies."

Austro-German Advance. LONDON, Oct. 19.—Italy has declared war against Bulgaria, but the question whether it will send troops to join the British and French forces in Serbia remains as obscure as the results of the fighting raging on Serbia's eastern frontier.
