Cabinet Members Bombarded with a List of Questions

LONDON, Oct. 20.—Cabinet ministers again were bombarded with war questions in the House of Commons today, but for the most part they managed to escape an intended frontal attack.

However, Harold J. Tennant, Parliamentary undersecretary of war, declined to give further information on the ground that it would be against public interest.

The suggestion made by William J. Lyons-Hicks, unionist member of the Brentford division of the Middlesex, of a policy of reprisals as a deterrent to Zepplin raids, was frowned upon by the war office.

"The royal flying corps," he said, "is a military organization in England for military operations. The dastardly raids by the enemy on undefended towns and defenseless people should not be allowed to divert the energies of this fighting force from its primary military purpose."

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Oct. 20.—This section of the border today resumed quiet for the first time since the train wreck, robbery and murders by Mexican bandits Monday night. No executions of Mexicans since yesterday were reported, the number of executions being reported as one.

Cavalry patrols reported that most of the Mexicans living between the scene of the wreck and the river vacated their houses and fled early yesterday.

SUFFRAGE SNOWED UNDER IN JERSEY

Constitutional Amendment Giving Women Right to Vote, Carries in but One County in the State.

OTHER AMENDMENTS DEFEATED

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 20.—Latest returns today on the state election yesterday indicate that the proposed amendment to the state constitution granting suffrage to women was defeated by a majority of more than 50,000.

Ocean county, which returned a majority of 300 in favor of the amendment, apparently was the only county carried by the suffrage workers.

The struggle over the suffrage question resulted in comparatively little attention being paid to the results of the other proposed constitutional changes, providing for an easier method of amending the state constitution and authorizing counties and municipalities to make ex-cess condemnation on the taking of lands for public purposes.

Both of these proposed amendments were defeated by large majorities, according to latest returns.

Fired with New Zeal

Women workers for the suffrage cause said today that far from being dismayed by yesterday's vote, they were fired with greater zeal than ever. Plans were already under way, they said, to stir the state with a campaign, which, if successful, would give women the vote in selecting presidential electors next spring by means of legislative action.

The anti-suffragists, however, profess to see in yesterday's result a settlement for years to come of the agitation for woman suffrage in New Jersey. Under the state constitution, as it stands today, a suffrage amendment cannot be again placed before the electors for five years.

The company sat down to a real old-fashioned chicken dinner. After the repeat Coach Schisler gave one of his rousing talks, telling the men what they have before them to clean up Peru and the rest of this year's schedule.

Sunday Preaches on Incarnation of Christ

What Jerry McAuley Did for Mankind. A few years later he died and by a disease brought on from the days of his life in sin.

Men came from Wall street, bankers closed their banks, merchants came by scores and scores. They clamored to see him and they opened the coffin and allowed them to pass by and take a last look at him.

Account for him without Jesus Christ and you insult him and his wife. Go to New York City and you will find drinking fountains to perpetuate his memory.

You are not what you ought to be and he says: "Accept Me and I will make you into what you ought to be."

He rooked and rooked the cradle. Down the streets of Chicago twenty-five years ago this winter went a burglar. Under his coat he had a burglar's kit wrapped up in a piece of carpet.

He staggered along and he saw a light ahead and he heard singing. He went in and dropped in the rear seat, and God aroused his conviction.

Account for his salvation without accepting Jesus Christ and you insult and slander God and the world.

Don't Pass Up His Salvation. The man says: "I was a drunkard and he made me sober."

Another says: "I used to swear and he made me pious."

Another says: "I used to mistrust my wife, and he made me kind to her. My children used to run when they heard my voice and my step; now they rush to meet me when I come home with my dinner bucket."

Yes, we are what we are by faith in Jesus Christ. And I see large throngs up yonder in glory. I can see the trumpeter, Gabriel, sounding the reveille on the resurrected morn.

Carsons Explains Why He Quit the English Cabinet. LONDON, Oct. 20.—Coming direct from Buckingham Palace, where he handed to King George the seals of his office on his resignation from the cabinet, Sir Edward Carson appeared in the House of Commons this afternoon and set at rest all conjecture regarding the reasons for his retirement.

Rising from his old seat on the front opposition bench, the former attorney general in a few words made the house conversant with the cause of the ministerial crisis, which he said was due entirely to the fact that he found himself in complete variance with the cabinet on questions of near eastern policy.

Flush Kidneys With Salts if Back is Aching. Noted authority says we eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys.

Take glass of Salts when Kidneys hurt or Bladder bothers you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of stinging, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.
