

COUNCIL ASKS FOR COURT TRANSCRIPT

Hold that Letter from Police Judge is Not Sufficient in Lid Lifting Case.

MAY GO TO DISTRICT COURT

When the city council received from Police Judge Foster a letter conveying information of the police court conviction of J. D. Graham and J. T. Ford, 1208 Farnam street, on charges under the liquor laws, Mayor Dahlman said, "I have never seen a saloon license revoked on a letter from a two-by-four police judge. Let him send us his transcript of the case."

City Attorney Rine advised the council he was not ready to give an opinion upon the sufficiency of the communication of the police judge. Judge Foster will be asked to send the council a transcript of the case not later than Thursday morning.

Saloon Still Open.

The council agreed to allow the saloon to remain open pending the determination of the cases in district court. Attorney Ritchie, for the saloon men, said he expected to get a hearing before Judge English Thursday morning.

Mr. Ritchie characterized the police court hearing of October 6 as a "kangaroo court." He said the original list of eighteen jurors, from whom six finally were selected, were all prohibitionists, and he added that one of the jury served as an usher at the Tabernacle. He maintained that the letter from the police judge to the council did not constitute sufficient evidence to warrant revocation of the license by the council.

The attorney for Graman and Ford further contended that the charges against his clients were not sustained at the police court hearing. Because the city commissioners are all friends of his, was the reason given by Attorney Ritchie why he did not start injunction proceedings to restrain the council from revoking this license before the case shall have been heard in district court.

Michigan Alumni to Have Banquet Here Saturday

The building and endowment of a $1,000,000 club house, for Michigan men in Ann Arbor, the seat of the University of Michigan, is absorbing the attention and energy of Michigananders the country over this month, and a local committee, with R. C. Peters as chairman, is in charge of the campaign among alumni resident in Nebraska. More than 200 committees are engaged in the project, with an average of ten alumni on each committee working among Michigan's 35,000 alumni, and a total of $1,000,000 is to be raised by their efforts in a single month.

Saturday evening the Michigan alumni of the Missouri valley will hold their annual banquet at the University club at 6:30 p. m. This is also the union banquet, held in all the large cities of the country at this time, winding up the campaign for funds for the club house.

Dean Henry M. Bates of the law school at Ann Arbor will be the guest of honor. Lyle I. Abbott will be toastmaster.

Date is Set for Eleventh Annual Omaha Auto Show

TAILORING FIRM SUES BLACK BECAUSE OF FIRE

An echo of the disastrous fire that destroyed the Board of Trade building last winter is now being heard in a trial before a jury in Judge Truett's district court.

Charles E. Black, men's haberdasher and governor of Ak-Sar-Ben, is being sued by the McCarthy-Wilson Tailoring company for $1,500. Black had given his check for that amount to the tailoring company in payment for the lease of the company's store room in the Board of Trade building.

When the fire destroyed the building the next day Black stopped payment on the check. The company seeks to recover the amount. Black contending that he is not liable because the company was unable to and has not delivered the lease and store room.

Trail Hitters Are Reconciled and Suit is Dismissed

"Billy" Sunday's influence in instilling happiness into trail hitters is again reflected in divorce court records at the court house.

Ell Tharp sued his wife, Sarah B. Tharp, for divorce less than ten days ago. Then they both hit the sawdust trail at the "Tab" and were reconciled. Now Tharp has decided he doesn't want a divorce and the couple have gone to living together again at 318 North Sixteenth street, with their five minor children.

"God is with us," says Tharp, "and He will make our home a happy one again."

Harry O. Palmer, attorney for Tharp in the suit for divorce, is now arranging to withdraw the case from Judge Redick's docket.

Sarah Tharp, 16-year-old daughter, is the girl who recently confessed that she had tried to kill her father. She and the other children, Leonard, 13, Ray, 14, Roy, 12, and Nettie, 9 years of age, all hit the trail at the Tabernacle, with their parents, during the last week of the "Billy" Sunday revival.

Kicks on Paying $3,000 for Water to Mix Concrete

Three thousand dollars for water with which to mix his concrete is more than Mr. Hodgkin of the Hodgkin Construction company expects to pay in the construction of the new assembling plant for the Ford Automobile company.

He insists that the Metropolitan Water district is asking him an exorbitant price for the water he was using in mixing his concrete for the plant; and he refuses to pay it. He was before the city council to make a complaint.

Relief or no relief from the council, however, he has fixed his own fences for any emergency, and is soon to tell the Water district to keep its old water. He has finished one well already on the site of the new Ford plant, and it is furnishing an excellent supply of water. He is about to begin the construction of another well to furnish still more water.

Mr. Hodgkin estimated that at the rate the Water board was charging him, his water for the concrete work would cost him $3,000.

He says he can dig wells much cheaper than that.

Bankers Begin to Arrive for Their State Convention

President Jesse C. McNish of the Nebraska Bankers' association arrived in Omaha from Winnebago yesterday to be on the ground a day before the opening of the sessions of the convention of that association today at the Hotel Fontenelle.

Other bankers are beginning to arrive this afternoon. With President McNish on the ground, the officers of the association are all here, as the rest of them live in Omaha. By this evening it is expected that at least 100 delegates will be here, and Secretary Hughes is to have a desk at headquarters at the Fontenelle to register those who desire to register early.

The executive council is to hold a session this evening at 8:30 at the Fontenelle, to attend to some of the final details of the convention.

The regular session of the association is to open at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon in the convention hall of the Fontenelle.

LADY GREGORY AT THE BRANDEIS ON THURSDAY

Lady Gregory who will speak at the Brandeis theater, Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock, is making her third tour in this country. This season, she will make a transcontinental tour thus spreading throughout the United States the ideas for a national theater for which she and William Butler Yeats have become world famous.

It was in 1899 that Lady Gregory joined Mr. Yeats in establishing a national theater that should stand for the best there is in Irish drama. Her life-long knowledge of the Irish, her insight and sympathetic humor, especially fitted her to reach the ideal she had set, and the success of the movement is today known the world over.

Previous to her active work for the National theater, Lady Gregory had published a number of books, interpreting the sentiment, loyalty, romance and traditions of the Irish people.

WANT KENNELLY WILL SET ASIDE

Relative of Late Mrs. Elizabeth Kennelly Who Received Nothing File Objections.

"JACK" DINEEN IS SOLE HEIR

That the late Mrs. Elizabeth Kennelly, widow of John Kennelly, who once owned much land along the river bottoms between the two bridges, was of unsound mind and the victim of undue influence when she made her will is alleged in objections filed in probate court.

John J. Dineen was made the sole heir and executor by the will. Other relatives are Mrs. Elizabeth M. Graham, wife of George Graham, the ball player; Mrs. Marie Camp, both granddaughters; May Estelle Haley and William Haley, minors, who are great-grandchildren.

They petition that the will be set aside and an administrator of the estate be appointed by the court. The estate was originally worth over $100,000, but is alleged to have dwindled since the death of John Kennelly and wife.

When Mrs. Kennelly died, she directed that "Jack" Dineen, whom she made her sole heir, should exercise "fatherly care" over the other relatives, but that he should be under no legal obligation.

George Shields is guardian ad litem of the minor children. The application to probate the will, to which some of the heirs object, will be heard by Judge Crawford Monday.

Security League Keeps Up Activity; Invites Stimson

The executive committee of the Omaha branch of the National security league held its first meeting at the Commercial club yesterday with General Harries presiding, and twenty members present. National Field Agent Brewster made a report of the progress of the movement and the work he had been doing in different cities during the six weeks since he was last here. He is to go to Lincoln for a meeting there, which is to organize a local branch at the capital city.

It was agreed that the Omaha branch would continue to recruit its membership still further, hold a public meeting in the near future to draw attention to the need of a preparedness program. General Harries has been in communication with former Secretary of War Stimson in an effort to secure him for such a meeting in Omaha.

W. H. Smith Inquest Will Be This Morning

The inquest into the recent murder of W. H. Smith, Woodmen of the World cashier, has been set by County Attorney Magney for this morning at 9 o'clock, at Coroner Crosby's office.

Although the murder occurred October 15, ten days has been allowed to elapse in order that all clues might be run down and complete evidence arranged for the investigation.

Miss Grace Slater, the young stenographer whom Smith was accompanying home when he was shot, was the only witness of the shooting, and she will be the chief person to be examined.

Dandruff Goes! Hair Gets Thick, Wavy, Beautiful

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this! Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy, at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of luxuriance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—Advertisement.

Introduce Law to Prevent Auctions in Retail Center

A proposed ordinance seeking to prevent auction sales in the immediate center of the city is to be introduced in the city council, perhaps next Monday. At the request of the Associated Retailers of Omaha such an ordinance is being drawn up by City Attorney Harry Fleharty. He is using the present ordinance of the city of Minneapolis as a guide. A copy of this was furnished him by the secretary of the Associated Retailers.

The agitation for such an ordinance grows out of the fact that so many fake auctions are constantly put on wherever a vacant room may be rented for a time by a faker who is here for a week or a month, and who stick red and yellow posters across the front advertising a bankrupt sale, where no bankruptcy has taken place. That so many bankrupt posters in the business section of the city are especially bad advertising for the city, particularly when they are flaunted before the eyes of strangers who do not know the facts, is one contention made by the retailers.

The Minneapolis ordinance creates a business district, within the limits of which no auction may be held.

In Denver there is no ordinance, but the council has agreed with the retailers not to grant licenses for auction within a given district.

Boys and Girls Sell Old Papers to Get Money for Pictures

Boys and girls of Park school realized $5.19 from the sale of 13,806 pounds of old magazines and papers collected by them.

The school was divided into the Ma-rons and Whites, the former winning by collecting 7,730 pounds, as against 6,335 pounds by their rivals.

The proceeds will be used for purchase of pictures and Victrola records.

Studebaker Seven Passenger Forty Horse Power FOUR $885. What's the DIFFERENCE? Many a man who wanted to buy a car has said that to himself as he looked over the 1916 market. What IS the difference? Why does this car cost more than that? What extra POWER or quality or comforts do you get? You must have wondered it yourself, and— -this is the Studebaker DIFFERENCE in QUALITY. It is the ONLY car ever offered in America or Europe that has decreased its price and at the same time so GREATLY INCREASED its quality. You know how prices have been reduced in many cases. In this Forty Horse Power Studebaker FOUR, nothing has been reduced but the price. That has been decreased from $985 to $885. But it has been INCREASED in wheelbase from 108 to 112 inches. It has been INCREASED in capacity from Five to SEVEN passengers. It has been INCREASED in motor from 3 1/4 x 4 to 3 3/4-inch bore x 5 inch stroke. It has been INCREASED in tires from 33 x 4 to 34 x 4 Goodrich. The upholstery is the finest grade of genuine, hand-buffed, straight-grain, semi-gloss leather on the market. The body-finishing operations have been INCREASED from 20 to 25 in number. The steering-knuckle is forged of chrome-vanadium steel, and high-grade alloy steels have been lavishly used throughout the car. The motor bearings have been made oversize. The radiator, gas passages, propeller shaft, rear axle housing have been increased in size. Wherever a change in materials was made BETTER materials were used. And for performance, for long-time service, for economy of operation and for durability with a high re-sale value, this Forty Horse Power Studebaker stands alone in a class of its own. See the car today—judge its DIFFERENCE in quality for yourself. SOUTH BEND, IND. DETROIT, MICH. WALKERVILLE, ONT. E. R. WILSON AUTOMOBILE CO., Studebaker Factory Branch Bldg.—25th Ave. and Farnam St

Budweiser Hops —On hop quality depends beer flavor. Those remarkable qualities of Budweiser and Michelob which distinguish them as being superior to other beers are their deliciously refreshing, never varying taste and exquisite bouquet—due to the exclusive use of the very best Saaz (Bohemian) Hops. And there's no danger of our supply of these vitally important hops failing. For years it has been an established rule to keep on hand a two-year in advance supply. During the summer of 1914 our president, while on his annual hop buying trip abroad, selected and purchased 775,000 pounds (1550 bales) of the choicest Saaz Hops—and was fortunate in having them shipped to this country before the embargo was rigidly enforced in March, this year. Add this to the 500,000 pounds on hand and you'll see how secure is our position. This foresight enables us to give to our millions of friends exactly the same beer, flavored with exactly the same hops that have helped to make Budweiser quality and Michelob goodness known and liked the world over. Our supply is sufficient to last at least until the closing days of 1917. Anheuser-Busch St. Louis, U. S. A.
