

Best Liver and Bowel Laxative For Family Use

"Cascarets" regulate women, men and children without injury.

Take when bilious, headachy, for colds, bad breath, sour stomach.

Instead of nasty, harsh pills, salts, castor oil or dangerous calomel, why don't you keep Cascarets handy in your home? Cascarets act on the liver and thirty feet of bowels so gently you don't realize you have taken a cathartic, but they act thoroughly and can be depended upon when a good liver and bowel cleansing is necessary—they move the bile and poison from the bowels without griping and sweeten the stomach. You eat one or two at night like candy and you wake up feeling fine, the headache, biliousness, bad breath, coated tongue, sour stomach, constipation, or bad cold disappears. Mothers should give cross, sick, feverish or bilious children a whole Cascaret any time—they are harmless and safe for the little folks.

HOW much is Mrs. Galt's taste going to affect the fashions? The engagement is announced barely a month, and already there is "boiling green," in honor of Mrs. Galt's family name. We all remember "Alice blue" and "Helen pink," and there was an attempt made to introduce an "Eleanor" color of some sort after the last inauguration. But the Wilsons were never considered "smart" as the Roosevelts or Tafts were smart, and the Eleanor shade was short lived.

The advent of a southern aristocrat may bring some social changes to the White House, and the popularity of "boiling green" may be a gauge in making this forecast. The color itself is a dull, obtrusive shade.

In keeping with the traditions of her own "cliff-dweller set" in Washington, Mrs. Galt has never affected the striking or glaring. In her dressing she never wore the extremely low cut decollete gowns which are so frequently seen among the ladies of the official set and the diplomatic corps—and, for instance, often quite a rude shock to "the lady from Arizona."

Of course, this does not mean that our future first lady of the land is not a stickler for form. But it does mean that she has very fixed ideas of elegance and what is the appropriate thing.

Mrs. Galt is very far from prudish or puritanic ideas of dress. She comes of generations of those who have dressed for dinner and taken it as a matter of course. But she does believe that the cut of even a dowager's evening bodice should be no longer than a well-bred mother chooses for her own debutante daughter.

Speaking of what this interesting personage wears, it is not inappropos to tell the number and last of her boot, 3 1/2 A. "If I have one vanity in the world," says our president's fiancée, "it is my foot."

Personal Mention.
Judge and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan returned home Sunday evening from Plattsmouth, where they were guests at a house party given by Mrs. Gering and the Misses Gering.

MOST OF GOSHEN HOLE LAND HAS BEEN TAKEN UP

R. B. Howard of the Burlington land department wires from Cheyenne, Wyo., that up to Monday night 600 of 800 tracts of land in the Goshen Hole country, recently opened to settlement and subject to entry had been filed upon. The filings have all been made upon 160-acre tracts. Of the remaining tracts it is estimated that nearly all are too rough for agricultural purposes and are good only for grazing.

Says Simple Laxative Better Than Castor Oil

Case of Chronic Constipation Yields to Mild Laxative Compound.

Writing from The House of the Good Shepherd, at Sunnyside, Ave., and 19th St., Seattle, where she is the guest of her life-long friend the Reverend Mother, Mrs. Mary Austin, widow of a wealthy San Franciscan, who lost everything in the fire of 1905, says she experienced speedy relief from the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and that she found this gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative more effective than several doses of castor oil.

MRS. MARY AUSTIN

The active principles of certain laxative herbs are combined in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to act on the eliminative organs in an easy, natural way, without griping or other discomfort. Its freedom from opiate or narcotic drugs of every description, combined with its gentle action and positive effect, makes it the ideal laxative for family use. Druggists everywhere sell it. For full particulars a bottle.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
