

SOUTH HIGH TEAM WALKS ON NEB. CITY

Packers Win Fierce Battle from Old-Time Enemies, Thirty-Four to Seven.

KELLOGG STARS FOR THE LOSERS

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 1 -- (Special Telegram.)-The fleetness of Sam Kellogg, fullback and nucleus of the Nebraska City foot ball team, was all that saved the local team from a 34 to 0 shutout from South High school team of Omaha on the local field this afternoo Standing under his own goal post feigning certain defeat that worthy plucked an ill-fated Omaha forward pass out of the air and with no interference at all raced the entire length of the field for a touchdown. He also booted the ball over the goal post for the extra point. The final score was 34 to 7.

It was a losing fight from the start against Coach Patton's trusties. Only for a few minutes in the third quarter when the trusty toe of Captain Kellogg saved the locals from repeated touchdowns did they show any velocity at hitting the line.

Kellogg's Fine Work. During the game oSuth High registered 399 yards and lost downs but three times. Nebraska City carried the ball for only 146 yards, being upable to penetrate the stone wall of the Omaha line. Kellogz registered eighty-seven yards in a single run. Linee amashes were unavail-

Captain Bott as an open field run Shainholts as a line smasher and Arthur-ton as a plunging mate formed too powerful a combination for the locals.

For a time in the spirited third quarter when Kellogg saved his team with his toe, talling 206 yards in punts one. Smith, Nebraska City's colored half, seemed to have mastered the puzzle of the South smashes. But it lasted for only a moment. The last quarter made up for it all. Eight times Neeraska City held like a stone wall on their own three and five-yard lines. Darkness had settled over the field when Dworak, halfback, who substituted for Shainholts on the last half, went ever for a tough-

Only Twenty-Two Minors Now Exist

CHICAGO, Nov. 2-Twenty-two minor leagues as compared with forty-seven last year are now in existence, according to officers of the minora making plans today for the trip of magnates to San Francisco, where next week the annual ting of the National Association of Professional Base Ball Leagues will be held. Each of the leagues will be represented, it is expected. Some discussion of retrenchment may take place at the meeting, blit most of the leagues which weathered the storm of last summer already enforce their salary limit rules very strictly, it was said.
