HILLES JUBILANT OVER G.O.P. VICTORY

Says Results of Elections Must Be Anything But Gratifying to National Administration

DEMS MAKE AN EXPLANATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Charles E. Hilles, chairman of the republican national committee, today issued the following statement on the results of Tuesday's election: "The results of yesterday's election must be anything but gratifying to the national administration. The contest in the democratic state of Maryland is so very close that the result will be in doubt until decided by the official canvass. In the democratic state of Kentucky, where national questions were lugged in by the democrats to avoid a drubbing, the republicans have shown their old-time form. We have carried Cincinnati by the largest plurality ever given a candidate in that city."

What G. O. P. Did. "The republicans have retained control of the legislature in New York and New Jersey, have elected local officers in up-state New York and all officers in Philadelphia. They have swept Massachusetts by pluralities ranging from 10,000 to 30,000, electing all state officers and 100 republican members of the legislature against seventy-nine democrats. "We have carried the one congressional district in Pennsylvania and three in New York, one of which, the Twenty-third New York, has been held by a democrat. "The Boston Post contended that the national administration was on trial and that the election of McCall would be a vote of lack of confidence in the policies of President Wilson. "Surely the national administration cannot point with pride to and pretend to be complimented by the success of Tammany hall in securing control of local New York offices, and sitting in the defeat of the New York constitution."

Dem. Statement. WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—A statement issued last night from the headquarters of the democratic national committee, commenting on the results of yesterday's election, said: "The results yesterday show that while the republicans and bullmoose have gotten together in some states, the democracy has made large gains from the progressive ranks. "This is notably true in Massachusetts from which state the first official returns are available. The democratic gubernatorial candidate, Governor Walsh, made a wonderful race. He polled the largest vote ever given a democrat in the state, while Mr. McCall, the republican candidate, ran way behind the normal republican vote given party nominees in recent years. The boat of the republicans in Massachusetts that they would carry the state by from 25,000 to 40,000 majority remains unfulfilled. "Walsh's Total Vote. "The total vote given Walsh yesterday was 229,312, while McCall received 225,916 votes. The vote for Governor Walsh was nearly 20,000 greater than he received two years ago, and 37,000 more than he received in 1912. President Wilson received only 173,400, as against 281,775 for Taft and Roosevelt. Taft received 265,998 votes in 1908, which is 39,000 more than the vote given McCall yesterday. "In this connection, the important fact should not be overlooked that Massachusetts is one of the old line republican states. "It has elected republican legislatures and republican United States senators for generations. The democratic party, which has always been the minority party, is stronger in the state today than it has ever been before. "There were three state election results yesterday, where governors were chosen. The democrats won their state tickets in two of these three states. While they lost the governorship in Massachusetts, a heretofore strong republican state, they elected a democrat to replace the present republican in Maryland. "In Kentucky the democrats elected their candidate for governor, A. O. Stanley, whose election was opposed by number of republican spellbinders of national reputation, including former Vice President Fairbanks. The fine victories in two of these closely contested states and the very remarkable race made by the party leader in the other is highly gratifying to the national democracy for all of these states have been in the republican fold during the last few years. "The results yesterday are full of encouragement to democrats, demonstrating conclusively that it is the constructive and gaining party, while the republicans have fallen signally in their efforts to force back into the ranks progressives and independent republicans."

NEBRASKANS BUY BOTH GERMAN AND ALLIES' BONDS Nebraska and Iowa are showing little partiality for one side or the other in the war, so far as purchase of bonds is concerned. "Both the German third war loan and the $50,000,000 Anglo-French bond issues are being bought and over $100,000 worth of each has been taken in Nebraska and Iowa, according to Lawrence Brinker, investment broker. "Investors consider the proposition on its financial merits," he declares. "If they decide to invest in the war bonds, and they have sympathies with either side, they buy the bonds of that side. So far each kind of bonds has had about equal sale."

The Habit of Taking Cold. With many people taking cold is a habit, but fortunately one that is easily broken. Take a cold sponge bath every morning when you first get out of bed—not ice cold, but a temperature of about 60 degrees F. Also sleep with your windows up. Do this and you will seldom take cold. When you do take cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and get rid of it as quickly as possible. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

"No Expectations" of Retiring, Says Judge Sanborn

Judge W. H. Sanborn of the United States circuit court of appeals, now in the city, sitting with District Judge Munger of Nebraska and Pollock of Kansas, to hear arguments in the suit wherein the Missouri Pacific would restrain the Nebraska State Railway commission from continuing in effect the 2-cent passenger rate law, is eligible to retirement. Judge Sanborn reached the age of 70 years October 19. The United States law that provides for the creation of the federal court further provides that if they so desire, members of the bench may retire. Numerous lawyers throughout the country are anxiously waiting to learn just what the judge is going to do with reference to giving up the position. If Judge Sanborn is going to get off the bench and give the attorneys a chance to try on his judicial shoes, he is keeping his plans to himself. Asked if he expected to retire in the near future, Judge Sanborn, in the best of humor and smiling at the impertinence of the question, replied: "I have no expectations."

Asked if he might be quoted as saying that he had given the question of retirement some consideration, or that he had not given it consideration, the judge answered: "Again I say that I have no expectations, but you might say that I think these Nebraska rail ways are the most delightful that I ever saw."

Arrange Plans for Burton Reception

Arrangements for the reception and public meeting in honor of Ex-Senator Burton of Ohio to be held in Omaha next Wednesday, are assuming definiteness. The afternoon reception in the lobby of the Fontenelle hotel is to be conducted by the McKinley club, whose officers and committees will be in charge, while the evening meeting in the assembly room of the hotel will devolve upon the citizens' committee which was organized for the occasion. Former United States Senator Joseph H. Millard will preside and the guest will be introduced by former Senator Norris Brown, who has a colleague of Mr. Burton's in Washington. The meeting will be entirely open to the public and except for the introductory presentation will be addressed by Senator Burton only.

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy—Save 52 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule contain a large quantity of plain syrup. A pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy. Then get from your druggist 2 1/2 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—without saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter cough. It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with glycerine and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation.
