

CRIMSON TAKES ON THE NASSAU CLAN

Game Between Harvard and Princeton Overshadows All Other Eastern Battles.

WILL BE SPECTACULAR COMBAT

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.- The annual contest between Princeton and Harvard tomorrow overshadows all other gridiron struggles of the day in the east. Dartmouth and Pennsylvania will meet in Boston, Brown will invade New Haven, Notre Dame will be the Army's opponent at West Point and Bucknell will play the Navy. Washington and Jefferson faces Pittsburgh, while Cornell tackles Michigan at Ann Arbor.

With the playing of these games the complicated foot ball situation in this section will be cleared to some extent and the eastern championship claimants reduced in number.

The defeat of Harvard by Princeton would leave the Tigers on a par with Cornell and Colgate, while should the Crimson triumph over the Tigers, the Nassau eleven will be brought down to he plane of Harvard, Yale, Pennsylania, Dartmouth and other strong teams half and Driggs at fullback. which have suffered one or more set-backs during the season of 1915. The same applies to time Washington and Jefferson-Pittsburgh contest, for neither eleven has been defeated and both have winning records which include victories over big institution teams.

Will Be Spectacular Struggle, The battle between Harvard and Prince ton in the Palmer memorial stadium promises to be one of the most spectacular struggles of the season. The Orange and Black is expected to prove a far stronger opponent for the Crimson than was the case a year ago, when the Cambridge clan won easily by a score of 20 to 0. The early games of the Harvard schedule have shown that the team is not as formidable as was the case twelve months ago, while Princeton's forge to the front has been uninterrupted to date.

The edge in playing form and all-around strength appears to be with the Tigers, for they developed team and individual power both on attack and defense early in the season. With Harvard the situation has been quite the reverse. Coach i ago and the eleven has been slow to find itself. With the exception of the defeat by Cornell, a team of exceptional ability and speed, Harward has made about as good a showing as it did up to this time in 1914. Yet it is remembered that once the Crimson swung into its gait it overwhelmed Princcton, 30 to 0, and Yale, 16 to 0.

One of Great Possibilities. Whether this sesson's Harvard eleven has the ability and power to finish out the schedule in the impressive manner the team did a year ago is a question open to argument. The fact remains, however, that Harvard will face Princeton with a combination containing the elements of a formidable attack and defense. Individually and collectively, the Crimson team is one of great possibilities. It has shown flashes of almost irresistible offense and defense and should it settle down early in the game and play to the limit of its powers, victory for Princeton

Notre Dame will be represented at West Point by an eleven on a par with those which it has sent to face the cadets during the last two years. Exof Nebraska, its slate is clean and the middle western team should give the soldiers a hard fight for the game honra. # Princeton on Edge for Big Battle With Harvard CORN IS ALSO QUITE STRONG

PRINCETON, Nov. 5.-Princeton players are on edge for the big gridiron battle with Harvard tomorrow, according to head Coach Rush, who planned only the lightest kind of practice for the Princeton team today, Signal drills and instructions how to meet the attack of the Crimson eleven was all the work Rush had mapped out. The varsity was to be lined up against the scrub team for the purpose of opposing the plays Percy Haughton, the Harvard coach, is supposed to have taught his men, but there was to be no scrimmage.

There was still some uncertainty as how the Princeton team will line up in tomorrow's contest, the first really big contest of the season, Halsey, the big right tackle, who was injured in the scrimmage practices, will probably start in his position against the Crimson tomorrow. Charley Highley will start at left end and Lambertson at right end. McLean will start at left tackle, Nourse at left guard, Genert at center, Hogg at right guard, Captain Glick at quarterback, Shea at right half, Tibbott at left

It is expected that 40,000 persons from New York and Philadelphia will come here to witness the game.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW

Two Features Loom Large in Week's NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Two features loom large in this week's reports, the ever-widening activity of trade and the increased momentum attained in many industries. Out of these grow overtime in factory, mill and shop: progressive improvement in industries almost wholly dependent on domestic wants; larger payrolls; sustained, if not increased, demand upon jobbers and limit of its powers, victory for Princeton is by no means assured.

Princeton has uncovered a defense when occasion demanded which was almost impregnable and an offense sufficiently strong to penetrate its opponent's line.

It is doubtful if the attack is as powerful and piercing as Harvard's, but this defect appears to be offset by a better defense. The Tigers' chief point of weskness has been slow play by the ends, and unless there is a decided improvement at the wing tops, the sprinting and dodging ability of Captain Mahan may more than overcome the superior punting of Driggs.

"It was the old link that did it," exclaimed a central High school student at the conclusion of the game with Lincoln yesterday.

The link, be it known, is a victory for the Omaha High Seconds over the Lincoln High Seconds, and that is just what happened yesterday. In the preliminary the local scrubs beat the Link scrubs, 3 to 0, a dropkick from the fifteen-yard mark by Quarterback McFarland in the fourth quarter, with but a few more seconds to play, turning the trick.

Last year the local scrubs beat the Capital City scrap heap and the first team beat Omaha. CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Prices on Board of Trade.

Features of the Trading and Closing
Prices on Board of Trade.

CHRCAGO, Nov. 5.—Signs of much enlarged receipts here next week brought about a setback in wheat values today after the market had reached a level like above the low point of October 25. The finish was heavy at $400 to be net decline, with December at $1.04 to the net decline, with December at $1.04 to the net decline, with December at $1.04 to the net decline, with a gain of a shade and provisions unchanged to 10c higher.

Evident attempts to grab profits by shipping wheat to Chicago from other leading terminals, notably Minneapolis and Kansas City, gave to traders here a desire to realize on holding.

The wish did not manifest itself in action, however, until the December delivery here had touched $1.07 and had acquired a premium of $1.00 cm May. Sig export clearances were chiefly responsible for this buige, although the strength was owing also to foreign buying at Winnipeg and to advices that the crop movement from first hands in the northwest showed a notable falling off. The export clearances today amounted to 3.64,000 bushels, the largest total in months.

3.64.000 bushels, the largest total in months.

Announcement from Liverpool that arrangements for uninterrupted shipment of supplies from Russia all winter had been effected by the completion of a railroad to a new port called Ekaterina did not appear to have much influence on the wheat market here. A moderate temporary dip in prices at the start was the only perceptible result.

Corn advanced in sympathy with wheat and owing to prospects of unsettled weather and the talk of export sales by way of the Gulf of Mexico. Disappointing returns from huskers were numerous. Oats kept within a narrow range. Seaboard demand continued.

Packers' buying rallied provisions. At first the market was weak because of lack of support.

HOGS Supplies were the lightest of any day this week, only about thirty-seven cars, or 2,599 head, arriving. The total for the week of 16,819 is almost 5.0s larger than a week ago, but is 1,500 smaller than two weeks ago and 6,899 short of the corresponding period of last year.

Shippers were back in the game this morning, taking a pretty decent share, of comppers were back in the game this morning, taking a pretty decent share of the light supplies at figures that were uneven, and looked anywhere from steady to billio higher. The first bids made by packers were just about steady with yesterday's average, but it is doubtful if they bought many hogs this way. Sellers, encouraged by the activity of shippers, hung on for General trade was fully be higher, a big string selling at $8.90, with a decent showing at $8.90 and a sprinkling on down. As noted above several loads of good light and butcher stuff made $7, the top. For the week prices are a big 30c lower all around. Last Saturday $7.20 was the popular price, while tops reached $7.30. There has been a fair sprinkling of pigs here all week and the market has been variable. There is nothing stable about the demand, and good Idaho and Montana stock pigs have moved largely at $8.5076.75, with an occasional sale as high as $1, price being regulated, of course, by the strength of the demand and the resulting amount of competition on different days.

SHERP—Supplies of sheep and lambs were slightly larger than on Thursday, and were heavier than for any Friday is since four weeks ago. About thirty-three loads, or 8,000 head, were reported in placing the total for the five days at 62,380 head. This is more than 23,000 lighter than last week and 44,000 short of two weeks ago, but is larger than last year by 8,000 head. Total for the week is smaller than for any similar period since the first week of August.

A good share of the offerings consisted of fat lambs, but the market got under way in good season, and a good clearance had been made by mid-forenoon. Quality was somewhat better than on Thursday, and while sales looked steady on paper, some traders were inclined to quote prices a little easier. Good fed western lambs sold at $8.76, as did most of the rangers. Killers bought warmed up lambs down around $8.50, and pretty fair rangers falled to beat $8.60. Sunnming up prices were quoted as close to steady, but there was undoubtedly a weaker tone to the market. Values are weak to a dime lower than at the week's best time, but are strong, said on good lambs mostly 15c higher than a week as 0.

Metal Shares Are Chief Sustaining Influence at the Ses-

BRISK INQUIRY FOR COPPER

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Metal shares were the chief sustaining influence of today's market, other parts of the stock list showing an irregular or heavy trend. The inquiry for coppers was inceasant, trading in that group attaining large proportions, with new records for Anaconda, which added a point to its recent rise, at 57; Chino, 1%, at 50%, and Utah, 3%, at 50%. Other coppers, tucluding American Smelting, rose 1 to 3 points. According to trage reports, demand for this product, both from domestic and foreign consumers, indicates a material increase and higher quotations for the metal are predicted.

Specialties, more particularly those in the so-called war classes, were again erratic, presumataly as 1, result of recent financial statements which indicated that some of the speciacular advances of the midsummer were not warranted by actual business conditions. Sithletem Steel luctuated within a narrow range and closed at 456, a loss of 5 points. United states Steel, which was less active relatively, though leading all other favorites, broke 1½ points, to 80%, and closed without recovery.

Railway shares were under greater pressure, their gains of the early week inducing further realizing sales. Candaian Pacific fell 3%, to 180, and Athison, Uniton Pacific, Southern Pacific, New York Central and New Haven yielded 1 to 2 points. Among the lesser rails the heaviness of Missouri Pacific and Denver

York Central and New Haven yielded I to 2 points. Among the lesser rails the heaviness of Missouri Pacitic and Denver & Rio Grande Issues suggrested some apprehension regarding latest developments affecting those properties.

The session's activity was confined the first and last hours, with frequent intermediate periods of duliness. Lowest prices were quoted in the final dealings, investment stocks showing greatest heaviness. Total sales amounted to 98,009 shares.

Feeder lambs were scantily supplied, offerings consisting of a few small packages of rangers, and some warmed up stock that was not good enough to suit killers. Nothing at all toppy was included in the offerings, but values were nominally steady. Good black-face ewes, about the first here this week that showed real breeding class, went to a breeder buyer at $5.80.

Most of the fat sheep offerings were ewes, which moved on a steady basis, selling largely at $5.50. With the exception of one little buige, muttons have soid on a steady basis all week, and today's prices are on a par with last Friday.

KANSAS STOCK RANCH ALFALFA LAND

Great hog and cattle ranch. 250 acres growing alfalfa. Irrigation not necessary. 600 acres bottom farm land (no overflow). 1,200 acres in pasture. Good improvements. Two sets of buildings. Abundance of good water. Considerable tunber near buildings. I own the ranch and wish to get in touch direct with purchaser, not real estate agents. Best equipped ranch in Kansas at a very low price; will sacrifice for quick sale. Want some cash, could take good eastern Kansas or Missouri farm land as part pay and reasonable mortgage. Talk business in first letter.
